

WILSON T. HUME SHOT; MAN RECOVER

Ordered From Office, Enraged Man Returns and Fires Three Times at Back.

ARREST IS NOT RESISTED

Shooting Follows Attempt to Collect $64.95 for Embezzlement, of Which Former Associate of Victim Is Under Sentence.

Ordered out of the office of Wilson T. Hume, an attorney, shortly before 12 o'clock yesterday, Frank A. Consentino drew a .32-caliber revolver and fired three shots at the lawyer, one of which struck him in the back, deflecting upward from a rib and passing out of the body in front of the left shoulder. A splinter of the rib penetrated the left lung, but the wound is not expected to prove fatal.

The shooting occurred in room 407, Panama building, in the office of A. W. Bahlike, an attorney, with whom Mr. Hume was conferring at the time. The room adjoins the office of Mr. Hume. With the primary intention of seeing H. C. Smith, lawyer, whose office is with that of Mr. Hume, Consentino, who is a barber, living at 387 Second street, called for Mr. Hume. Being told that Mr. Smith was at lunch he insisted upon talking to Mr. Hume. Told to get out of the office, resentment flared, and when Mr. Hume had resumed his conversation with Mr. Bahlike, the shots were fired from the doorway.

Assailant Surrenders Quietly. The man gave himself up without resistance and even asked that the police be called. He was badly frightened at the result of his deed and later could offer no explanation for it, except that he lost his temper and fired, scarcely knowing what he was doing. With Dr. C. H. Wheeler in attendance, Mr. Hume was taken to Good Samaritan Hospital, conscious and in little danger.

Mr. Bahlike's story of the shooting was as follows: "I was sitting alone in my office, which adjoins that of Messrs. Smith and Hume, when this man entered and inquired for Mr. Hume. I told him that Mr. Smith had gone out for lunch. He then asked to see Mr. Hume and I told him Mr. Hume was busy but that he could see him if he would wait a few moments.

"When Mr. Hume came in, Consentino asked him about the money, but Mr. Hume replied that he knew nothing of it, and that he was not in the transaction, only representing Brunswick in the trial out of friendship.

"Mr. Hume turned to speak to me again, when the caller, who had started to leave, turned back and interrupted us. Mr. Hume was much annoyed.

"I have nothing to say about that matter," he told the man. "I am not interested in it and will not argue with you." The man insisted that he must be interested in the money, and said: "You go on out of here," said Mr. Hume, taking the man to the door. "Now stay out! Don't come back."

Attack Comes Unexpectedly. "He then returned to resume his conversation with me. He had his back to the door when Consentino came back, and, half hidden by the door, fired three shots. Two struck the wall, the third struck Mr. Hume in the back. I ran for the man, who was out in the hall by that time.

"Mr. Hume called to me and I returned to find out how badly he was injured. Are you hurt?" I asked him. "I don't know whether I am or not," was his reply. I helped him take off his coat and vest, and a hole was visible in the vest lining and blood was beginning to flow.

Mr. Hume's statement substantiated that of Attorney Bahlike. He told City Detectives Swennes and Moloney that he did not lay his hands on the man, but had ordered him out of the office. He admitted that he was in command, but was so because the caller muttered something in dissatisfaction which Mr. Hume took to be a threat.

A. M. Brunswick was sentenced to jail for an indeterminate term of one to 10 years, upon conviction in Circuit Judge Dana's court three weeks ago, for the embezzlement of $64.95 from Consentino. The conviction did not satisfy Consentino and since that period he has visited the offices of Mr. Hume and Mr. Smith several times. The lawyers could not make him understand that there was no opportunity for him to collect the money that Brunswick had spent.

ANTI-FIGHT LAW IS ASKED

Mayor Wants Felony Reduced to Jail Sentence Offense.

To aid the police in suppressing prize fighting in Portland, Mayor Albee has instructed City Attorney LaRoché to prepare an anti-prizefighting ordinance to submit to the City Commission for passage. The measure, according to the Mayor's plans, will set out clearly the limits to which boxing exhibitions can go and will make violations punishable as misdemeanors instead of as felonies, as is provided under the state law.

PAY FOR OFFICER ASKED

Portland Heights Men Ask Council to Aid Man Shot by Robbers.

A delegation of business men, residents of Portland Heights, appeared before the City Council yesterday to urge the passage of an ordinance appropriating money for the relief of T. J. Healy, a night watchman who was shot in the shoulder and abdomen January 27, 1914, while attempting to arrest two highwaymen in Portland Heights. The Council referred the matter to Mayor Albee for investigation and report.

In the delegation were County Commissioner Holman, Dr. A. J. Giesy, James P. Kerr, James McE. Wood and Dan Malarky. They declared that Mr. Healy, familiarly known as "Big Tim," sacrificed himself for the safety of the community and therefore should be reimbursed by the city for his loss.

MR. BAKER WILL RUN

Candidacy for City Commissioner Is Announced.

PLATFORM PLEDGE BRIEF

Fair Treatment to All Interests and Efficient Work Its Features. Some Indorsements Are Given Publicity.

Formal announcement of his candidacy for City Commissioner was made yesterday by George L. Baker, owner of the Baker Theater and a prominent figure in civic movements of the past few years.

Mr. Baker's announcement had been informally forecast by his friends some little time ago, but his final decision has just been made. Friends of the candidate in business, professional and industrial lines have given their indorsement to his candidacy, and already his campaign is under way.

"I have been associated with Mr. Baker closely in Ad Club affairs," said Charles F. Berg, former president of that organization, "and I know him thoroughly. Not only is he a man of rare executive ability, but his capacity for hard work and his liking for it are phenomenal. These qualities have demonstrated to my satisfaction his fitness to fill positions of importance and responsibility. I know that he would make good as City Commissioner, and therefore it gives me pleasure to indorse his candidacy."

Other Friends Speak. Julius L. Meier, of the Meier & Frank Co., C. C. Colt, president of the Union Meat Co., and H. E. McCabe, one of Mr. Baker's veteran employees, were among others who made public statements in his behalf.

"I have been associated with Mr. Baker in civic work," said Mr. Meier, "and I regard his methods as highly efficient. If he is elected I believe he will make a good Commissioner, and Mr. Baker worked with me in last year's Rose Festival," said Mr. Colt, "and as general manager and director of that event manifested rare efficiency and ability. What I learned about him then convinces me that he is a careful, sincere business man who would make a good City Commissioner."

"Mr. Baker has been my employer for 15 years," said Mr. McCabe, "and I know how he treats working people. He is considerate of us all, and we feel we cannot do enough for him. Every man in the theater hopes for his success in this campaign.

Mr. Baker's formal announcement of candidacy, issued yesterday, follows: "I believe I have the qualifications, and am certain I have the earnest desire to indorse the office to which I aspire, efficiently and for the best interests of the city and its people. I pledge myself, if elected, to give all interests and all people fair and impartial consideration and treatment, and to give my best efforts to be devoted to the business of the city. On this simple platform and with this pledge I ask for the voice of those who believe I am a proper timber for the office to which I aspire.

Oregon Is Lifelong Abode. Mr. Baker is 47 years old and has lived nearly all his life in Oregon. He was born at The Dalles, but removed to Portland in his early boyhood, with his invalid father and his mother. Thrown upon his own resources he maintained himself and his parents, contributing also to educate himself in the public schools. Twenty years ago he worked at the old Marquam Grand Theater as stage mechanic, and from that position was promoted by Manager Calvin Hag to be assistant manager. A few years later he embarked

CANAL VALUE NOTED

Vice-President Earling, of St. Paul, Sends Felicitations.

VINCENT ASTOR IS INVITED

Governor Lister Promises to Participate, Army Officers Will Be There and Several Senators and Representatives.

That the development potentiality of the Dalles-Celilo Canal is recognized by the transcontinental railway lines of the Pacific Northwest is demonstrated in the following letter from H. B. Earling, vice-president of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railway Company, to the Dalles-Celilo Canal celebration committee in response to an invitation to participate.

"I want to take this opportunity of offering my congratulations on the completion of the canal. Any project of this kind which tends toward the development of this Northwest country is to be welcomed by all, and the railway serving this territory can well afford to wish such an undertaking success, notwithstanding any temporary loss which they may possibly suffer. Whatever makes for the upbuilding and development of the community must in the long run redound to the benefit of all. I trust this enterprise will fully meet your expectations and that Dame Fortune will be with you during your week of celebration."

"I beg to say that I will arrange to be at Lewiston and Clarkston May 3, which, I understand, is the point at which the Dalles-Celilo Canal celebration will begin. I will also arrange to continue with the committee on the fourth and fifth and may possibly be able to take in the entire trip. You may be sure that I will do so if it is possible and I think you would be safe in so indicating on your printed matter. I will also appoint a committee of three or five citizens to represent the state during the celebration and as soon as the committee is decided upon I will furnish you with a list of names."

Vincent Astor and party, who are making a tour of the Pacific in Mr. Astor's private yacht, the "Norma," and are at present at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, were yesterday invited by telegraph to visit the Columbia River during the week of The Dalles-Celilo celebration and participate in the exercises held at Vancouver May 6 and also, in the event that proper transportation facilities can be provided, will participate with a staff of officers at The Dalles and Big Eddy, May 5.

Participation of United States Senators and Representatives in the formal ceremonies of The Dalles-Celilo Canal opening is assured through letters and telegrams received by the committee. Those who have signified their purpose to be present are: United States Senator Pittman of Nevada; Borah and Brady of Idaho; Jones and Poin-dexter of Washington; Chamberlain and Lane of Oregon; Representatives of Oregon: Hawley, McArthur and Sinnott; Senator Walsh of Montana; and Senator Reed of Missouri.

ARSON THEORY IS HELD

EARLY MORNING BLAZE DAMAGES STOREHOUSES $78,000.

Baron-Fulop Company Is Heaviest Loser—Investigation of Fire Begun by Chief Stevens.

An early morning fire of unknown origin in the storehouses of the Baron-Fulop wholesale clothing company at 53 North Fifth street swept a three-story building yesterday morning, causing damage to four firms to the extent of $78,000.

The estimated losses, almost wholly covered by insurance, were: Baron-Fulop Clothing Company, 53 North Fifth, $50,000; Oregon-Washington Paper Company, 51 North Fifth, $20,000; Chausse-Prudhomme Printing Company, 55 North Fifth, $3000; and H. Wolfe & Son, shirt and overall factory, 52 1/2 North Fifth, $5000.

Suspecting incendiarism, an investigation of the cause of the fire was begun yesterday by Battalion Chief J. Stevens, Harry P. Coffin, chairman of the public safety commission, and members of the District Attorney's office. "It looks bad," was the only comment Chief Stevens would make last night, but a full report on the findings is expected today.

The fire spread through long piles of clothing on the second floor, the stock room of the Baron-Fulop Company, and before it was under control had broken through the ceiling to the third floor, occupied by H. Wolfe & Son, a concern manufacturing overalls and shirts that had not been in operation for a month past. Machinery and stock stored there were damaged.

The building, which is owned by the Ames-Harris-Neville Company, is leased to the Baron-Fulop Company but was only slightly damaged.

The Oregon-Washington Paper Company was a heavy loser, the damage being estimated by E. J. O'Neill, of the company, at $23,000, fully covered by insurance.

The only damage to the Chausse-Prudhomme Printing Company was caused by water and amounted to about $300, fully insured.

The fire at 3:37 A. M. was subdued only after nearly three hours' fighting under Battalion Chief Young.

Joyful Anticipation of Motherhood

There is apt to be a latent apprehension of distress to mar the complete joy of expectation. But this is quite overcome by the use of so many women to use "Mother's Friend." This is an external application designed to lubricate the muscles and to thus relieve the pressure reacting on the nerves, that the natural strain upon the cords and ligaments is not accompanied by those severe pains said to cause nausea, morning sickness and many local diseases.

Many people believe that those remedies which have stood the test of time, that have been put to every trial under the varying conditions of age, weight, general health, etc., may be safely relied upon. And judging by the fact that "Mother's Friend" has been in continual use since our grandmother's earlier years and is known throughout the United States it may be easily inferred that it is something that women gladly recommend.

"Mother's Friend" is prepared only in our own laboratory and is sold by druggists everywhere. Ask for a bottle to-day and write for a special book for expectant mothers. Address Bradfield Regulator Co., 663 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

Mother was your first sweetheart. She guarded you from the cradle down through the years. Her life was one of worry and tears for your safety. Never forget that.
