SALT LAKE, April 7 .- (Special.)-Salt Lake took the second game of the series with Walter McCredle's Beavers this afternoon by an 8-to-4 score. Altogether today's game was the best exhibition of baseball yet seen on the Salt Lake field and marked by sensational fielding and hitting by both teams. A crowd of 2500 fans witnessed the game. There were three home runs. Salt Lake started the fireworks in the first Lake started the fireworks in the first inning, pounding three runs across. Orr landed at first when Stumpf foozled a grounder, Zacher boosted one for a three-bagger, scoring Orr and was in turn sent home on a homer by Gedeon. In the second inning Salt Lake scored two more and things began to look pretty bad for the Beavers, Faye singled, went to second on a passed ball and scored on a single by Shinn. Shinn was scored by a long single by Orr.

In the third inning things quieted down and in the fourth McCredle's men scored one, when Speas sent a long drive over the left field fence. In the fifth inning Salt Lake made another, when Shinn scored on a double by Tennant. Another run came in the sixth, when Faye scored on a long drive by Hall and a homer in the eighth brought Salt Lake's total up to eight.

In the ninth inning Stumpf started a rally for Portland and the team batted around. The rally netted three runs, but it was too late to break down the big lead of Blankenship's aggregation.

Callahan pitched a splendid game, but appeared to be a little out of form. McCredie said that it was probably the high altitude. Hall for Salt Lake was the hero of the day and set himself up as a batting pitcher. Score:

SAN FRANCISCO, April 7.—San Francisco defeated Venice today by a score of 1 to 0, in a game that was chiefly a pitchers' battle and that was marked by but one sensational feature. This was a one-handed catch by Fitzgerald, the Scals' right fielder, of Gleischmann's long fly. Fitzgerald picked this off the fence, the catch bringing cheers from the fans.

The single run was made in the first inning, Schaller crossing the plate as a result of singles by Bodie, Fitzgerald and Jones. In the second a double, Fitzgerald to Schmild, prevented the Scals from losing their advantage.
