DISTRICT ALLOTMENTS MADE

Engineers Stationed Here to Expend More Than $2,500,000.

Notices from Washington, D. C. reached Portland yesterday of the fact allotments had been made officially of funds for river and harbor improvements so that more than $2,30,000 is made available for projects directed $450,000 for the Willametts and Columbia Rivers below Portand, while for the Upper Willamette and Yamhill Rivers the fund is $25,000, with $15,000 for the Cowlitz and Lewis Rivers and $1060 for the Clatskanie River.

for the Clatskanie River.

Colonel Morrow, in charge of the Colonel Morrow, in charge of the First Oregon District, was notified that there was $76,000 for the Coquille River; $70,000 for Coos Lay, $3000 for Morrow, $20,000 for Stricking River, $117,500 for Strisian River, $2000 for Yaquina Bay, $116,175 for Nehalem Bay, $20,000 for the Snake River shalem Bay, $20,000 for the Upper Columbia the funds are set aside from the rivers and $37,000 for the Upper Columbia the funds are set aside from the rivers and harbors bill appropriations, but the funds are set aside from the rivers and harbors bill appropriations, but in addition Colenel Morrow will have, through appropriations in the sundry civil bill, $172,000 for Tillamook Bay and bar and $50,000 for Crater Lake National Park improvements. The rivers and harbors act provides for a number of examinations to be made and allotments will follow if the estimates of the cost are within the limit and the ports with a number of guests and recommendations of the engineer offindations of the engineer offi-

SINGERS ABOARD ROSE CITY

Travelers Charmed by Musicians While Elements Bestir Themselves.

Operatic airs, love songs of sunny Italy and a few more familiar to those not finished musicians, made the voyage of the Rose City more pleasant, the contributors being the second detachment of the Lambardi Opera Company, which is to appear at the Baker Theater. None of the Coast navigators is more of an enthusiast of player machines than Captain Rankin, but this time the one in his quarters was ime the one in his quarters was tilled, for the opera stars held all land to Panama Canal for Duty. Captain Theodore H. Dillon, Corps of Ingineers, U. S. A., who has been sta-loned here since May 2, 1912, as mili-ary assistant to Colonel Morrow, in tary assistant to Colonel charge of the First Oregon District projects, received orders from Washington, D. C., yesterday to proceed to the Parama Canal by May 1 and report in person to Colonel Goethals, Governor of the Canal Zone, for assignment to duty there. Captain H. H. Robert had been mili-Captain H. H. Robert had been military assistant to Colonel Morrow, and he was sent to Fort Sam Houston, being relieved by Captain Dillon. Beth officers had to do mostly with the construction of The Dallas-Cellio Canal, leaving Colonel Morrow free to direct other projects and exercise general supervision over the canal job. As the latter is being finished rapidly and with its formal opening scheduled for next month, it is not believed another officer will be sent to Portland as Captain Dillon's successor.

E. W. Wright, manager of the Portof Portland, returned yesterday afternoon from Astoria, where he made his first inspection of the tugs Chinook and Wallula, both crews having been in for a short time while he was there.

BANDON, Or., April 7.—Tugs at high tide early today released the steam schooner Speedwell, which stranded last night on the North Spit, outside the entrance to the Coquilie River. The vessel was towed to Bandon, where it was found that her damage was so slight that she will be able to leave here on schedule.

The Speedwell, with 20 passengers and 40 tons of freight from San Francisco, was being towed by a tug across the bar last night, when a heavy wind tore her loose from the tug and sent her on the spit.

ITCHING BURNING ECZEMA ON BODY

And Face. Appeared Like Pimples. Loss of Sleep Terrible. Clothing Bothered. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Healed in Ten Days.

5223 9th Ave., Los Angeles, Cal. first noticed an aching in my lower limbs. My whole body was affected later on, and my face looked and felt as if someone had poured boiling water upon it. Then the eczema appeared like pimples. The itch-ing and burning were intense and the loss of sleep was terrible. My clothing bothered me.

"I was troubled two weeks before I did anything. Then I underwent treatment and was no better. About that time I became unconscious and lay for twelve days just like a dead woman. I had a friend whose little girl was healed by Cuticura Soap and Ointment, so when I was suffering so much I happened to remember that and began the use of Cuticura Soap and Ointment. I got relief immediately. I applied the Ointment and then washed it off with the Soap. The eczema was completely healed in ten days." (Signed) Mrs. Ella Miller, Oct. 16, 1914.
