Whirlwind Canvass to Be Started by Business Men and Organizations.

MR. MEIER GIVES WARNING

Chamber of Commerce Is to Take Active Part in Work, Sending Speakers to Every Meeting Held by Road Advocates.

- GOOD ROAD MEETINGS FOR REMAINDER OF CAMPAIGN. Thursday, 8 P. M.—Public stereoscopic lecture at headquarters, ground floor Yeon building. Friday, 8 P. M.—Multnomah Club, John E. Yeon and C. C. Chapman, speakers. Saturday, 10 A. M.—Farmers' assembly in headquarters in Yeon building. Afternoon at Grange, E. E. Coover to speak. 8 P. M.—Central Library, J. B. Yeon, speaker. 8 P. M.—Headquarters, Yeon building, for general public. Sunday, Afternoon and evening—St. Johns meetings, John E. Yeon, speaker. Tuesday Afternoon, Albina Homestead School, E. E. Coover. Peninsula School, A. S. Benson. Fernwood School, Frank B. Riley. Sunnyside School, C. C. Chapman. Chapman School, John E. Yeon.

A campaign of dynamic energy, 40-horsepower strength and whirlwind enthusiasm will carry the gospel of good roads to the voters of Multnomah County in the six days remaining before the special bond election next Wednesday.

Plans for this gnatting-gun movement were completed yesterday, when 45 business men met in the Yeon building in response to a call by Julius L. Meier, a member of the good roads committee.

Mr. Meier, in a serious but good-natured way, took the business men severely to task for their apparent apathy in the present road bond campaign. He called attention to the fact that Roadmaster Yeon, S. Benson, Amos Benson, E. E. Coover and a few others have been doing nearly all the work and that men who ordinarily ought to be interested in road improvements are not doing their just share.

"Don't think that because you and all your friends are going to vote for the bonds," he said, "that everyone else is going to vote them. Your duty does not end by going to the polls and voting. We must see that our families, our relatives and our neighbors vote."

Chamber to Lead Hand. "If this election is lost it will be our own fault. We can win it, as it ought to be won, if we do our plain duty. But if a few of us sit back and take no further interest than merely voting we are in grave danger of losing it."

Mr. Meier's remarks and the responsive chord with many of the others. Speaker after speaker agreed that his utterances expressed the present situation and the need for a more active result of Mr. Meier's presentation of facts the newly organized Chamber of Commerce will get firmly and squarely into their duty and devote its solid effort to its support. A monster ratification meeting will be held by the Chamber next Monday.

Meanwhile the work will be conducted along lines definitely laid down at yesterday's informal meeting. Delegations to Attend Meetings. At least three members of the Chamber of Commerce will be assigned to attend every road meeting held in the county and assist the regular speakers. This work will be inaugurated at once. Members of the Chamber will conduct personal canvasses in their respective home communities to enlist the support of their neighbors. The county will be divided into districts for this purpose.

A committee composed of J. E. English, J. Fred Larson and C. C. Chapman was named to arrange for a house-to-house canvass of the various school districts.

Beginning today the Chamber will have an active speakers' bureau at the disposal of the good roads committee, and men who are well informed on the road situation will be sent into every part of the county to point out the merits of the bond issue. The committee in charge of this bureau will be J. H. Dendore, J. F. Daly and J. A. Curry.

Factory Employes to Be Visited. Another committee composed of A. J. Kingsley, A. C. Callen and John Tait will confer with the various factory officials and men in charge of other lines of industry to obtain their support and that of their employes.

Much enlightenment on the present situation was provided by Rufus Holman, member of the Board of County Commissioners. He pointed out that some of the employment agencies inadvertently are presenting conditions in a false light. One agency blackboard, he explained, contained the announcement: "Men wanted, $2 a day, for state highway work." His investigation revealed that the men were wanted in California and not in Oregon. Commissioner Holman reported that there are at present 15,000 unemployed men in Portland in excess of the normal surplus. It is costing Multnomah County $45 a day to furnish relief for these men, he said.

Bonds Mean Work, He Says. "Put these men to work," he urged. "Give them something to do." The bond issue will provide work at good wages for thousands of these men. Upon suggestion of Edgar B. Piper the various commercial organizations were invited to co-operate in the active work of the remaining days of the campaign.

Manager Baker Secures Lambardis for Stay Which Promises Musical Attractions Never Before Enjoyed at Popular Prices.

Hundreds of music lovers are all expectancy for the opening at Baker Theater of the Italian Grand Opera Company.

No event that has occurred here for a long time has aroused so much general interest in all walks of life as this, viz., a season of grand opera that does not mean merely a social event, a place to show lavish display and court the fashion rather than the music. It is a season that means real pleasure for everyone, for the prices have been placed within reach of the humblest income and poor and unfortunate indeed is the man or woman who cannot afford at least one or two performances each week during the stay of the Lambardis.

Musical people, teachers, pupils and patrons have become intensely interested, and the sale at the Baker box office has exceeded by far the most sanguine dreams of Manager Baker, through whose efforts Portland is to have the privilege of listening to grand opera without being obliged to pawn the family jewels to do so.

"Aida" Is Bill Tonight. Tonight Verdi's magnificent Egyptian spectacle, "Aida," is to be the bill, and although the same opera, again will be rendered next Saturday matinee and Monday evening, of course the greatest interest is centered upon the opening performance. This brilliant and wonderfully melodious composition, which has been formerly described, was written for Ismael Pascha in 1871. The stage settings, scenery and costumes are gorgeous and the arias and ensemble numbers gems of the rarest creation of a master-mind.

Katharina Lynbrook will sing her way into Portland's heart in the leading soprano role of "Aida," the slave girl who afterwards proved to be the captured daughter of a rival King, and Eugenio de Polco, whose magnificent tenor has aroused the highest enthusiasm in all the important opera-loving

RURAL BENEFITS CITED AS ROAD BOND ARGUMENT

Julius Meier Declares That Route Guaranteed to Taxpayer for 10 Years Is Cheaper Than Yearly Average Maintenance of Paved Highway.

BY JULIUS L. MEIER. THOSE communities where good roads abound, the taxpayers are building more. A guaranteed article at the same price as one not guaranteed is preferable. In the matter of roads, this holds good. A road guaranteed for 10 years is cheaper to the taxpayer than a macadamized or other road, as the yearly average maintenance expense for 10 years exceeds the original cost of a good paved road.

The case with which a farmer can take a loan on a paved road is about four times that of the usual dirt road. Paved country roads are available and in use the year around, and better townships and cities. One county school always are filled where good roads prevail and statistics show a better development of the boys and girls.

Good roads invariably increase the value of abutting property. In proportion the assessed valuation adds a means to an end to secure this harvest all the year around, not mentioning those who will take up a permanent residence. Multnomah County has three and one-half miles of paved roads outside the city. King County (Seattle) has

Time to Take Care

Poisons are created all the time in a healthy body; faster, of course, in sick, and especially any germ disease. The kidneys struggle to filter such poisons from the blood.

Many a bad case of kidney trouble begins after recovery from some infectious disease, and even a cold often has the same bad result.

Common signs of kidney weakness are headaches, backache, rheumatic pains, nervousness, loss of weight and urinary troubles.

During convalescence, in fact, whenever there are signs of kidney trouble, use Doan's Kidney Pills, and help the medicine by avoiding meat eating, over-exertion of any kind and the use of liquor. Drink milk or water.

Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly reliable for sick kidneys. They have been used for years all over the civilized world, are uniformly successful and are recommended by thousands.

Portland proof: Fred Muralt, proprietor Eagle Market, 373 Haight avenue, Portland, says: "All I said about Doan's Kidney Pills in my old home at Lisbon, N. D., can add to that statement then given that the cure they brought me has been lasting. I have had no sign of kidney trouble since."

For the Rainy Day—The Kingsbury Piano

Many a man spurred on by his practical wife has provided for the "rainy day" by giving his little girl a piano. Today she is teaching music and is independent. Or she is organist at the church—or plays for the kindergarten or is supervisor of public school music down state—or travels as accompanist for a concert singer.

Your Gift of a Cable-Made Piano

at a time when you didn't much miss six, seven or even eight dollars a month, gave her the right stir. Today you look upon that investment in a true-toned staunchly built piano as one of the best you ever made. AND IT WAS—for these famous makes are UNMISTAKABLE VALUES—

"Take a lesson from the kindergarten teacher's primer," was the advice of C. C. Chapman to the Ad Club at its luncheon yesterday in an address on advertising through the medium of booklets and pamphlets.

Simple, direct style, putting forth the facts in such form that every reader of the booklet will "get them," he held to be the chief key to successful ad writing in the form of booklets.

"Don't be afraid of getting your booklet too long," he said, "so long as the material in it is interesting reading. If your subject matter is interesting

Why Suffer From Migraine or Sick Headache?

USE ANTI-KAMNIA TABLETS

Dr. J. J. Caldwell says that this exceedingly distressing disease does not shorten life, but does not appear to be curable. Sufferers from this affliction are condemned to undergo the periodic attacks every few weeks until they are forty years of age, after which the attacks are less frequent and finally disappear entirely. Palliative measures during the attack are all that is possible to suggest, while care in the diet is the best preventive measure. An attack may often be prevented by taking two Anti-Kamnia Tablets when the first symptoms appear, and one Anti-Kamnia Tablet every two hours during the attack shortens it, eases the pain and brings rest and quiet. Anti-Kamnia Tablets may be obtained at all druggists. Ask for A-K Tablets. They quickly relieve all pain.

BIG EATERS GET KIDNEY TROUBLE

Take Salts at First Sign of Bladder Irritation or Backache.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat too much and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out, they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache or dizzy, nervous spells, acid stomach, or you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then get fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water beverage, and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time—Adv.
