DISTRICT IMPROVEMENT FOR MOUNT TABOR PLANNED

City Engineer Dater is preparing plans for a big district improvement for Mount Tabor, on the north and east side of the city. The plans and estimates of the cost soon will be ready for filing with the council, when bids will be asked. This district will include East Twenty-fifth, East Seventy-first and East Seventy-second between East Yamhill and East Stark and the intersecting streets. Most of these streets have been graded and curbs and sidewalks laid. Sewers recently were completed on these streets and the property owners are anxious to have their streets improved in this district. The property affected is considered high class, and is occupied by many attractive homes.

PUBLIC SPEAKING CLASSES MEET TO-NIGHT.—University of Oregon extension classes which are scheduled to meet in the Central Library this afternoon and tonight are: Parliamentary and practical public speaking at 7 o'clock in room 11, conducted by Professor Prescott; Dr. Schmidt's class in German literature at 7:30 in room A, and Mrs. Parsons' class in literary appreciation at 7:30 in room B. On Saturday night Mrs. Parsons will meet her class in the same story at 7:30 in room B. Professor Prescott's class in practical public speaking which now meets on Thursday night will hold its next meeting on April 22.

REALTY BOARD TO HEAR ROAD TALKS.—Every member of the Portland Realty Board has received one of the "Vote for Good Roads April 14" shields with a notice printed on the back inviting him to attend today's weekly luncheon of the board, which has been set aside as a Good Roads day. County Commissioner Rufus C. Holman and Roadmaster Yeon will deliver the principal addresses and H. P. Palmer will preside. The idea of printing the notice on the good roads shield originated with Paul A. Cowill, the new secretary of the Realty Board, who promises a novelty invitation each week.

LARCENY TRIAL SET.—N. E. Bradley alias Babe Bradley, arrested for larceny by Detective Royce Wednesday will be tried before Municipal Judge Stevenson today. Bradley is said to have obtained $300 in money and two diamond rings, valued at $150, from Miss Eita Handley, clerk in a 13-cent store on Portland street, last October. He is charged with the larceny of the two rings and is said to have planned to go to San Francisco but when the time for leaving arrived Bradley failed to appear.

SANDY PIONEER DIES.—John Riderbush, aged 84, a pioneer resident of the Sandy district, died last week at his home near Sandy. Mr. Riderbush was born in Lappendewald, Germany. He came to Sandy 40 years ago, settling on a farm, where he had a good estate. From that time he was a widower and four children, besides three who died in infancy. Funeral services were conducted from the Riderbush home and interment was made in the Brunns Cemetery.

EARLY ROSE ARRIVES EARLIER.—One of the first roses of summer has opened up its petals and is nodding sweetly its pretty smiling face toward the sun. It is a small pink climber grown by H. T. Grist, 775 East Twenty-eighth street. Last year the rose blossomed April 15. The plant is about 5 years old and always has been one of the first roses to bloom in Portland.

RAZOR SHAVE TALK SCHEDULED.—Charles F. Berg will talk on "Some Things That Make for a More Efficient Salesman" at the Portland Salesmen's Association tonight at 6 o'clock in the Rosarian room of the Commercial Club. The programme will include three-minute talks by members and a question period.

MR. EDWARDS DEAD

Manager of Dwight Edwards Company Passes.

DEATH COMES SUDDENLY

Condition Improved, but Turn for Worse Proves Fatal in Few Hours—Large Part Played in Civic and Club Affairs.

Dwight Edwards, one of Portland's prominent business men, died at his home at 1153 Thurman street early yesterday morning after several months' illness. The funeral will be held at 1 o'clock tomorrow from J. P. Finley & Son's chapel, Fifth and Montgomery streets. The body will be cremated at the Portland Crematorium. A short service at the chapel will be conducted under the auspices of the Christian Science church and at the crematorium the Shriners will be in charge.

Dwight Edwards, Prominent Business Man Who Died Suddenly Yesterday.

The pallbearers will be Fred Speer, W. E. Gluff, A. W. Whitmer, Jacob Speier, Edward Ehrman and L. A. Lewis. Mr. Edwards had been suffering from diabetes for some time but during the past week he was considerably improved. A sudden turn for the worse came about midnight last night, Mr. Edwards dying about five hours later.

He was 45 years old and had lived in Portland for about 10 years. He was born in Carson City, Nev., and at the time of his death was in the Northwest, where he became associated with Mill Brothers, wholesale coffee and tea dealers. In 1905 he came to Portland and assisted in the organization of the Dwight Edwards Company, which has become one of the leading wholesale coffee houses in the city.

He was president and Edward Ehrman, vice-president, of the company. Mr. Edwards was among Portland's most progressive and public-spirited citizens. He was prominent in civic affairs. He was one of the founders of the Rotary Club and was its first president. In appreciation of the work he had done for the city, the organization of the Rotary Club, about a month ago, elected him president emeritus. He also was an active member of the Arlington Club, Commercial Club and Chamber of Commerce.

He is survived by his widow and two sons, Theodore, aged 22, and George, aged 15, and a sister, Mrs. George Coleman, of Santa Barbara, Cal.

Funeral services will be held at the Congregation Ahavai Shalom, corner Park and Clay streets, tonight at 8 o'clock and tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock.

RAST WISE TO SPEAK.—"Counting the Days" will be Rast Wise's topic at Beth Israel tonight at 8 o'clock.

AUDITORIUM PLAN UPSET

SETTLEMENT WITH ORIGINAL ARCHITECT MAY DELAY WORK.

Provisional Offer to Accept $10,000 Fee Considered by Council and Thought High—Suit May Result.

Another delay in proceedings leading up to the starting of the proposed public auditorium may develop as a result of a difference of opinion as to the value of the services performed by Architect Freedlander, of New York, in preparing working plans for the building. It was originally proposed to cover a block and a half in size. These plans are of no use now, but the city is obliged to pay for their preparation because of the fact that the old Auditorium Commission ordered them made. Architect Freedlander contends the cost of the plans was $10,000. The majority of the City Council expressed the opinion that the value of the services performed by the architect for the building in a contest held several years ago, was $5,000.

WIFE SUED AS JANE DOE

Man Would Divorce Spouse Whose Name He Says He Doesn't Know.

W. H. Brown yesterday filed suit for divorce from a woman whose true name he says he does not know. He named her "Jane Doe" in the historic "Jane Doe" case. Other names he gives are Jennie Smith, Jennie Kellogg, Minerva J. Rust and Minerva J. Rust.

In his complaint the man avers he married the woman in Portland January 1, 1912, when he believed her name was Minerva Rust. Then he discovered, he alleges, that she had been married to E. F. Kellogg and Newton Rust and had not been divorced, he says. Since his own marriage, the complainant alleges, the defendant has contracted marriages "at various times with divers men."
