

6-STORY FALL NOT INJURED

R. M. Richardson Crashes Into Imperial Hotel Grill and Lands on Table.

BROKEN GLASS SHOWERS

Leap Taken Under Mental Strain, Due to Overwork and Worry, Physician Believes; Man Is Prominent in Klamath Falls.

Although he had dropped from a sixth-story court window of the Imperial Hotel, crashing through a galvanized iron screen protecting a skylight, through the wire-strengthened glass, and, finally, carrying with him an eight-foot square panel of art glass over the team of the hotel, landing in a sitting posture on dining table...

Overwork Thought Cause.

Mr. Richardson is a court stenographer, and for many years was employed in the Circuit Court in Klamath County, over which Judge H. L. Benson presided before he was elevated to the Supreme Bench. During the last session of the Legislature, Mr. Richardson had been a Senate clerk, working for W. Lair Thompson. He is about 46 years old, about six feet high and weighs nearly 250 pounds.

"Proprietor" Wants Clothes.

"I'm a prophet of the Lord, come down from heaven," he said. "Get me some clothes here. Eat," was the response of the employe as others rushed into the room, the Greek employe, too, apparently no internal injuries nor broken bones, and he was marvelously free from bruises.

MR. RICHARDSON WELL KNOWN

Man Who Leaped at Hotel Prominent at Klamath Falls. SALEM, Or., April 11.—(Special.)—R. M. Richardson has property in Klamath Falls and is one of that city's best known residents. Justice Benson said today that Richardson had worried a great deal since the death of his wife in Chicago last fall, where she was operated upon for cancer. He has been in Portland about three weeks.

WAR ENDS COLONY PLAN

WISCONSIN GERMAN, HOWEVER, WILL LOCATE IN OREGON. Relatives Expected to Come From Fatherland Are Killed or Captured, Promoter Writes Chapter. The hope of Carl Nuernberg, of Sheboygan, Wis., to bring his relatives from Germany and come to Oregon to found a new colony has been shattered by the recent war in Europe, in which several of his relatives were killed, but he is still persisting in his plan to make Oregon the home for himself and family at least.

A year ago the Commercial Club of Portland received his request for information, written in the German language, pertaining to the opportunities afforded in Oregon. His name was sent to the various commercial organizations affiliated with the Oregon Development League, and within two weeks time he was deluged with literature. He immediately planned to form a small colony of his relatives in Eastern Oregon. His father, brother-in-law and brother were drafted into the army and the plans shattered.

The New Chamber of Commerce is now in receipt of a letter telling of his plight; his father killed in the war; his brother-in-law taken prisoner; a submarine, has not been heard from. All that remains of the party are his friends and himself, now in Wisconsin, and he insists on coming to Oregon to locate.

This is one of numerous inquiries which are coming in from German farmers living in this country and Canada, who intend making Oregon their future home.

WAS MISERABLE COULDN'T STAND

Testifies She Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Lackawanna, N. Y.—"After my first child was born I felt very miserable and could not stand on my feet. My sister-in-law wished me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and my nerves became firm, appetite good, step elastic, and I lost that weak, tired feeling. That was six years ago and I have had three fine healthy children since. For female troubles I always take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it works like a charm. I do all my own work."—Mrs. A. F. Kreamer, 1574 Electric avenue, Lackawanna, N. Y.

The success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, is unparalleled. It may be used with perfect confidence by women who suffer from displacements, inflammation, ulceration, tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the standard remedy for female ills.

Women who suffer from those distressing ills peculiar to their sex should be convinced of the ability of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore their health by the many genuine and truthful testimonials we are constantly publishing in the newspapers.

If you want special advice write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.
