trude P. Corbett

TRIP on the river in a trim litthe launch, the Sea Otter, was Harvey C. Wortman yesterday after-noon, following a charming luncheon honoring Miss Renee du Pont house guest of Misses MacMaster. Luncheon was served at the Wortman residence and covers were placed around a table adorned with garlands of pink Killarney roses entwined with blue forgetme-nots, for Miss du Pont, the Misses MacMaster, Miss Elizabeth Jacobs, Nan Pennoyer Russell, Rhoda Rumelin and Mary Stuart Smith. The trip on the river in the launch was the first this season and the smart little boat was decked gaily for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Wortman frequently entertain aboard this vessel during the Summer months. honoring Miss Renee du Pont, house . . .

Another event of importance yester-day was the dinner dance at the Irv-ington Club, about 200 guests attend-ing. After dinner a business meeting followed, in which the reports of com-mittees and officers were read and the election of officers took place. The latter part of the evening was devoted latter part of the evening was devoted to dancing. Miss Sarah Patrick was dancing. Miss Sarah Patri-airman of the arrangements.

St. Stephen's Guild was also sponsor for a delightful and interesting event last night, when Miss Gibble Gault gave a dramatic impersonation of "Miss Gibble Gault" at Linnea Hall. After the reading dancing was en-joyed by the younger set.

The Spanish-American War Veter-ans will give a benefit for the drum and bugle corps Friday night at the Turn Verein Hall, Thirteenth and Main and bugle corps Friday night at the Turn Verein Hail. Thirteenth and Main streets. The programme which was given so successfully for the Fernwood School will be repeated. A number of dances will be given by talenteed children, Indian scenes and a sketch by the drum corps.

Miss Corrine Key, Frederick Crowthers and George Denholm will sing.
Laura Shay and Albert Redda will give the Yama Yama song and dance.
The children doing solo dances are: Margaret McCulloch, Willetha Ritters, Helen Ritters, Dorothy Lyons, Nellie Hubbard, Zenarian Blue. Winifred Flanders, Helen Zigler, Elim Rasmuss, Enn. Roger Shay, Marion Buechel, Eunnie Cowgill, Miss Winifred Evans and Laura Shay. The children will be chaperoned by Mrs. H. J. Blaceing, Mrs. H. F. Whitfield, Mrs. A. King Willam J. Hofmann, Mrs. R. M. Ritters and Mrs. William J. Hofmann, Mrs. Mrs. H. Entire and Mrs. William McCulloch. The entertainment is under the direction of Mrs. C. Shay and it is hoped enough money will be raised to equip the boys for the Rose Festival.

Mrs. and Mrs. R. M. Malpas, of Spotane Committee and the was an appropriate ger man and the word "rob" the man burst into tears. "I am not a thief," he was, y and tit was death if they caught me. I had no money to pay my way, home and the school Superintendent Armstrong explained in feeting the truth. J. A. Churchill, State Superintendent Armstrong explained in the motive of the was speaking of Public Instructions, delivered the main address at the meeting in Orient Saurday. Mr. Armstrong explained in the truth. Jake it and go unto his probable that meeting in Orient Saurday. Mr. Armstrong explained in the truth. Take it and go unto his probable that some point between Orient and the was an appropriate ger man and the was an appro are at the Portland Hotel.

J. H. Kennedy, Conrad Meyers, Richard E. James and M. S. Fitzgerald comprise the committee in charge.

A number of the young married set were guests of Mr, and Mrs. Winslow
B. Ayer last night to hear the interesting and clever Miss Ruth Draper, of New York, give a delightful monologue. Supper rounded out the evening's galety. . . .

Jean Morrison will preside at a dinner for the younger set preceding the ball, and Miss Claire Wilcox also will be a dinner hostess complimenting Miss du Pont before the ball.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Clemence (Alma Lauritzen) are receiving congratulations on the arrival of a son, born Sunday

Mrs. C. S. Ottenheimer, of Louisville, Ky, is visiting at the home of her sis-ter Mrs. S. Brunn, 739 .orthrup street.

Miss Clara Hirschberger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hirschberger, who has been for more than a year in Germany, is now en route home, having sailed April 6 from Genoa, Italy,

THE regular monthly luncheon of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs council will be held on Saturday the Hotel Benson, All who plan to go may make reservations by applying to Mrs. James W. Tifft. The time for the meeting of the general feder-ation council is approaching and on Saturday there doubtless will be some Saturday there doubtless will be some important matters discussed.

The vandeville show for the benefit of the entertainment fund is scheduled for April 27 and, while some of the acts are so far kept as profound secrets, the outlook is that the offerings by the participating clubs will be of a high type and that the show will be a success. Some of Portland's most gifted young women are to contribute to the programme.

The finance committee is directed by Mrs G. J. Frankel, chairman, assisted by the presidents of all the clubs.

The committee on excursions is planning various cutings and trips. The euto tours will be routed by the Auto-

IRVINGTON MAID WHO PARTICIPATED IN SORORITY TEA.

The Hawthorne Parent-Teacher As-

Are at the Portland Hold.

The Hawborne Parallet Teacher Association will meet today at 230 colock elaborate. "Collige feet" to be given the Hawborne School. Some in-Friday evening at Collide Hail by the Friday evening at Patrons of the Stephens School and their friends are interested in the benefit performance of "An Artist's Romance," which will be given April 30 in the Eleventh-street playhouse. A long list of society and elubwomen will be patronesses. The proceeds will be used for the poor children of the district. Miss Lois Williams and Miss Special and the process of the arrange. Smuckler are in charge of the arrange.

At the Cotton Ball this evening at Hotel Multnomah, society will have a rare treat in seeing for the first time in Portland the exhibition dancing of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Fetters, recently of San Francisco. The Fettels are charming people and are well known in San Francisco, where they have given for the Will dance at the Monday Night Dancing Club's next meeting. Miss Jean Merrison will preside at a dinner for the younger set preceding the ball. tion to be held today in the headquar-ters, 171% Eleventh street, from 2:30 to 3 o'clock. The honored guest will be Mrs. Ada Wallace Unrub, National or-ganizer and former state president of the Oregon Women's Christian Temperance Union. Mrs. Unruh will leave soon for a tour of several states in the interest of her work. Tea will be served under the direction of Mrs. S. J. under the direction of Mrs. S., J. Haight. Mrs. Unruh will give a short

> Dr. Luther R. Dyott gave an excel-ient and helpful address before the members of the Portland Study Club at their meeting this week in the home of Mrs. H. G. Farker. The club voted to join the state federation, adding one more to the big federation fammont and Miss Katherine Pavis.

Mrs. John White Ferguson, state organizer of the P. E. O. Sisterhood, invites all unaffiliated members to her home, 347 East Thirteenth street North, Thursday at 2:30 o'clock, when she will hold an informal reception in honor of Mrs. Dorothy Seymour, of Forest Grove, who is state president of the P. E. O. Sisterhood, and Mrs. Ella Saxe Herman, who was the first president of the Oregon chapter. Those who attend will take the Broadway car. The state convention of the P. E. O. Sisterhood will be held in Forest Grove May 25 and 26.

The Ladd Parent-Teacher Circle will meet on Thursday at 2 o'clock, There will be a short programme. Marshall will be a short programme. Marsha Dana will speak on "The School as Social Center."

no longer want to vaunt itself as the made, biggest and best country on earth. Eng. land will no longer want to rule the seas to suit herself. Germany will not want all the trade of the earth. All will work together for the good of each, knowing that after all that is the truest and surest way to achieve its own best good.

This does not necessarily mean there

This does not necessarily mean there will not be the individual national temperaments. The Italian can still be musical; the French, artistic; the German, scientific; the American, shrewd. Even these national characteristics can one more to the big federation family that has been growing rapidly in the past year. The next meeting will be April 25, when new officers will be elected and annual reports given.

Chapter C. P. E. O. Sisterhood, will meet on Friday with Mrs. John F. Beaumont, 704 Hoyt street. The programme will be directed by Mrs. Beaumont and Miss Katherine Davis. most insignificant bearings upon the lives of people before it can be even begun to be put in practice. But since it is in the line of progress, in the line of getting out into bigger, broader, happier living, isn't it worth while to think about it, to do the preliminary work that will start the movement forward to a bright, though even far-off consummation?

S it is your birthday, Gretonen, you may have this sixpence to spend on cakes," said little Dutch Gretcheg's mother one day. But floors and painting their white yard fences till they shone in the sun.

Gretchen looked very happy as she ran down the lane in her blue kilts, with her white cap on the sunny braids. Just at the corner of the road she bumped into a man resting on the fence. He was ragged and dirty and sick. Feeling sorry for him, Gretchen offered him half of her money, which he eagerly took.

he eagerly took.

Then she noticed that the rags were those of a worn uniform and that his uniform was that of the English sol-

"Don't say a word about me, Miss," said the man, touching his torn cap respectfully. "I am deserting from the British army. It is death if I am caught" caught"

"If you will hide in those bushes there," said Gretchen, "I will bring you some clothing and food."
"Very well," returned the man. "I will wait for you here." And he slipped up into the bushes on the side of the road. Gretchen sped home and in a few minutes returned with some old. but clean, clothing and some old, and meat. These she gave to the soldier.

The girl said nothing about this event when she returned home, fearing semeone might harm the man. But at night she lay awake wondering about him. Presently she heard a step in the sitting-room, and without a moment's hesitation she crept sliently down the hesitation she crept silently down the stairs in her bare feet and peered over. In the moonlight she could see into the sitting-room plainly, and there stood the man she had helped in the morning, putting into a bag the silver candlesticks and the tiny silver urn that always stood on the high mantel. Now both had been in the family a long time_for five generations—and the girl knew they were prized above all price. The man did not look like a wicked one, she thought, and seemed ashamed of what he was doing, for he would frequently stop and shake his head. But when he turned and reached for a silver cup which had been he own Gretchen could stand it no longer. Down the stairs she bounced lightly Down the stairs she bounced lightly and flew into the room.

The man started at the sight of the little white figure with its streaming golden hair.

"Oh! how could you?" gasped the girl. "I helped you this morning and kept your secret, and now you come to rob me."

At the word "rob" the man burst she heard nothing from the man; then one day when the war was over, there came down the road a handsome coach drawn by prancing black steeds. At the cottage door an elegantly dressed gentleman alighted. Gretchen looked in which is a spring it opened and showed a triangle of its team may be elected."

I the cottage door an elegant.

I did not tell you my name when you helped me so kindly a few months ago," said the man. "But I will nown I am the son of General Vinson and was ill for weeks after getting home. So they gave me no punishment. My little girl is well and sends you this," and out of his pocket the handsome soldier took a small velvet box. Touching a spring it opened and showed a tit money she money the mone has gone by.

But when we say America before all most of us mean in the matter of justice, of honesty, of fair play—of those qualities that stand for truth and honor and all that is fair in the world. And if we will question ourselves honestly, evening at 6:30 o'ciock. This is one of I do not think, that as a Nation we desire to lead in the expression of these things. We merely want to stand for them as things needing expression in the affairs of nations, as standards of international policy that should be up-facilities will be taxed to their ca-

the affairs of nations, as standards of international policy that should be upheld. Every nation can possess them And the more of these qualities a nation nails to its standard, and the greater the number of nations asserting them, the better the world will be to live in and the more, as a Nation, we will rejoice.

But when we all come together in this "federation of the world" Tennyson foresaw, in the joining of hands for it the good of all, what is this but planetary patriotism? The United States will be made.

The banquet rooms and kitchen facilities will be taxed to their capacity.

Five men from the session and an equal number of women from the association are in charge of the details and a real, home-cooked dinner will be provided. Every society and department of the church will bring out resting showing will be made.

Now trustees and elders and deacons will be elected. It is rumored that a number of important changes will be made.

The pastor, Rev. John H. Boyd, D. D., The pastor, Rev. John H. Boyd, D. D., predicts the most successful event of the year, with plans for even greater things to be accomplished in 1915-16.

As far as possible, every family of the church and congregation will be represented at the banquet. Including the recent Easter accessions, the roll now numbers more than 1703 members.

Visitors are cordially invited to inspect the plant at all times, and the Church House is at the disposal of any worthy cause at any time, for the worthy cause at any time, for the mere cost of light, heat and service.

PHYSIQUE URGED IN QUEEN

Originator of Slogan Wants Choice Made by Army Rules.

J. C. Cooper, of McMinnville, whose slogan, "The Whole World Knows the Portland Rose," won the 1915 Festival contest, offers a suggestion as to how the queen should be selected. "Why not select the fiests queen ac-

"Why not select the nexta queen according to eugenic, or United States Army standards?" he writes, "Put them on the scales," he continues, "and under the tape. Make physical excellence count high on the score card. Appoint a committee of women of good judgment in each locality to examine all applicants in their respective distincts.

ricts.
"Give health and habits consideration, disposition and all of the qualities that go to make up high grade womanhood. Make a selection from photographs of the 100 most perfect."

Man Bitten by Mule Treated.

SCHOOL SITE TO BE VOTED

SCHOOL SITE TO BE VOTED

Election April 24 First Step for Union High Near Orient.

Residents of the Victory, Lusted, Orient and Cottrell school districts will vote Saturday, April 24, on the site of a union high school building, which Dutch Gretchen's mother one day. But it was many years ago, in Revoluntionary times.

The New York town in which the was bitten by a mule with rables last Saturday, arrived in Portland yesterday and is being given the Pasteur treatment by Dr. Calvin S. White, State Health Officer. The mule, which belonged to Mr. Brown, died from rables worden shees and all the housewives and wooden shees and all the housewives spent their lives in scrubbing their bitten by a coyote 42 days previous.

PELICAN MOLASSES 35c Special, Quarts,

TWO RECIPES

For the best Recipe for a Tea Garden Dainty we'll pay $75-for the next best $25.00. Tea Garden is a pure good sugar food syrup and is far superior to all glucose syrups. Tea Garden is excellent for the children. Sold by all progressive grocers.

> Pacific Coast Syrup Co. Portland, Oregon

WOULD SELECT FESTIVAL RULER FROM HIGH SCHOOLS.

Another Offers Plan of Choosing Royal Personage by Public Drawing, to Which Admission Is Paid.

Selection of the queen and six prinesses for the Rose Festival in June from the girls of the high schools of the city is one of the striking sugges-tions that has been received by The they come up to the qualifications.

A third writer, who gives no clew to his identity but a postoffice box number in Corvallis, wrote:

"Would suggest that you enact the scene in the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel, his Queen, and Elijah rebuking to the court of Ahab with Jezebel to the court of Ahab with Jezeb them for their terrible wickedness. The writer asks for the role of Elijah." TRUNK PRESENTS MYSTERY

Owner Dead Before Baggage Is Left

at Hotel by Man Using His Name. The mystery of a trunk that was left at the Royal Palm Hotel, Third and Flanders streets, February 2, by a person supposed to be J. C. Wilson, of Chesapeake, Lawrence County, Ohio, who, according to his mother, died several months previous to that time, is puzzling City Detective H. H. Haw-tions that has been received by The Oregonian in the scores of suggestions for the contest that are coming in.

This suggestion comes from J. H. Cowen.

"Let me suggest," he says, "that if you want a real spicy contest for the queen and one which is practically free from suspicions of pull, prejudice and plunder, let each of the high schools choose seven young women from their number, well-

Beautify Your House Artistic Furniture

We have a large selection of Art Goods and will be glad to advise you relative

F. A. Taylor Co. 130 Tenth Street

CATERER

weeks in advance. Detective Hawles wrote to Mr. Gaujot for an explana-

FORCED TO VACATE

SALE Women's Coats, Suits and Dresses $10.00 Coats or Dresses $6.75 $14.50 Coats or Dresses $9.50 $27.50 to $32.50 Suits....$19.85

Hudson Bay Fur Co. CRANK'S STYLE SHOP Broadway - near Orpheun Theater.

I must give up my space with the

DON'T FUSS WITH

Musterole Works Easier, Quick er and Without the Blister.

There's no sense of mixing up a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can so easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white MUSTEROLE.

MUSTEROLE is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of a pleasant white ointment. It takes the place of the out-of-date mustard plaster, and the out-of-date mustard plaster, and will not blister MUSTEROLE gives prompt relief from Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Tonsilitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Nouralgia, Headache, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblaine, Frosted Feet, Colds of the Chest (it often prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital site for $2.50.

Be sure you get the genuine MUS-

Be sure you get the genuine MUS-TEROLE. Refuse imitations—get what you ask for. The Musterole Company,

Remarkable Statement of

Girl's Mother. How She

Suffered Until Six Years

Old. How Finally Cured.

Pittsfield, Mass—"My little girl now six years old was born with a hard cold and very delicate. Every Winter she would suffer from croup and poor digestion. Dr. Currier recommended Vinol and within a week she had improved considerably, and her appetite precedured to she wanted things to call proved considerably, and her appetite increased so she wanted things to eat that had disgusted her before.

"On the first bottle she gained one and one-half pounds, and now at the age of six Vinol has made her a solid, healthy, good-natured child, and while sick she was so cross and fretful I grew discouraged and was worn out taking care of her."—Mrs. George Wagner. Pittsfield, Mass.

Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, is a wonderful appetizer, and you can see delicate, alling children improve day by day under its use, it enriches the blood, builds up the body, making pale, delicate children rugged and rosy.

We ask all parents of weak, sick-rugged and rosy.

We ask all parents of weak, sickly, delicate children in this vicinity to try Vinol, with the understanding that if it fails to benefit your little ones, we return your money. The Owl Drug Co., Portland, Or., and at leading drug stores everywhere.

Buy Electrical Goods From an Electrical Man

Was $3.50

See

Guarantee

Shelby

Mazda

Lamps

Reduced

BAKING CO., Inc

Sale Price $2.65

GUARANTEE The Heating Element in this iron is GUARANTEED FOREVER. If it proves defective at any time get a new one from your dealer or from us. Return this Tag with defective element.

TRIANGLE LEKTRIK SALES CO., Detreit, U. S. A.

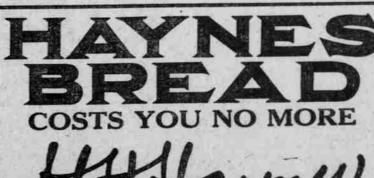

Till May 1

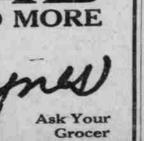

Fixtures 1/3 Off

Lighting

Morrison Electric Co.

2 Stores { 111 West Park 353 East Burnside }

drug stores everywhere. A SKIN OF BEAUTY IS A JOY FOREVER Dr. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S ORIENTAL CREAM OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER

Removes Tan. Pimples. Freckies.
Moth Patches Rash and Skin Diseases, and every blemish on beauty, and define detection. It has stood the test of 6 years, and is so harmless we taste it to be sure it is Ferd. T. Hapkins & San, Preps., 37 Great Jones St., H.Y.G.