Hall and Rain Furies.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Rube Marquard pitched a no-hit game today and shut out the Brooklyn Nationals, 2 to 0. Rucker, the veteran left-hander of the Brooklyn, opposed the New Yorker and it was a great pitchers' battle. Only three men reached base on Marquard, two on bases on balls and one on an error by Fletcher. Only three balls were hit to the outfield. Marquard also helped to win his own game by driving in the second run scored on Rucker.

Next to Marquard's pitching, Lobert's all-around work was the feature. Until he filed out to Wheat in the seventh inning he had reached first base eight consecutive times, including yesterday's game. Score:

CHICAGO, April 15.—St. Louis defeated Chicago, 4 to 2, in a listless game today. Cheney's wildness in the third inning caused his retirement. In this inning three bases on balls, three wild pitches, a stolen base and a single each off Cheney and Standridge, the recruit pitcher obtained from San Francisco, gave St. Louis the game. Doak pitched in midseason form in the pitcher's box. Score:

BOSTON, April 15.—Philadelphia defeated Boston again today, 15 to 1. Hitts bunched in the second inning, together with errors by the Braves' infield, accounted for all the visitors' runs. Mayor, the Philadelphia pitcher, was in fine form. Alternating flurries of rain, snow and hail swirled about the players during the game. Score:

BOXING BILL IS INDORSED

Illinois Lieutenant-Governor Answers Preacher's Protest.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 15.—In a reply to a communication from Willard Barrett, D. D., secretary of the church federation council, protesting against the passage by the Legislature of a law to legalize prize fights, Lieutenant-Governor Barrett, O'Hara today strongly indorsed the boxing bill now before the Legislature.

"I cannot agree with you in your contention that boxers and those who patronize boxing contests are of an especially low order," the letter of Mr. O'Hara to Dr. Barrett reads. "As far as the present bill is concerned, I am determined that both opponents and proponents of boxing shall receive a fair deal in the Senate."

LOS ANGELES.—Fred Kelley, world champion high jumper, was deeply spiked in the left foot in practice three days ago and was injured to an extent that may affect his work in the Pennsylvania relay games at Philadelphia. Kelley, nevertheless, expects to leave here Sunday with Howard Drew, champion sprinter.

Los Angeles.—Oscar Horstman, a Kansas pitcher, will be farmed out to the Northwestern League by the Los Angeles Coast League Club.

Columbus, O.—Freddie Welsh, champion lightweight boxer, has been matched to meet Johnny Harvey, of New York, in a 12-round bout here April 23.

Philadelphia.—Playing steady and consistent tennis, Joshua Crane and George R. Pendergast, Jr., of Boston, defeated George H. Brooke and Edgar Scott in the first round of the court tennis doubles championship of the United States here Thursday in straight sets, 6-4, 6-2, 6-4.

Springfield, Ill.—A racing bill was introduced Thursday in the Senate. The measure would legalize racing in Illinois and would create a state racing commission. The commission would have charge of all race meets, a percentage of which would go to the state.

EDGAR FRANK INJURED

MULTNOMAH WRESTLER BREAKS RIB IN BOUT.

Doctors Advise Against Entry in National Championship, but Game Athlete Says He "Will See."

SAN FRANCISCO, April 15.—(Special.)—Edgar Frank, 125-pound wrestler of the Multnomah Club, Portland, and holder of the title in that division for the Far Western tournament, was injured in a bout with a local wrestler at the expense of great pain. For 15 minutes, on the floor of the Civic Auditorium, Frank wrestled with a fractured rib, finally gaining a decision over his opponent.

The Oregon wrestler is now tightly strapped about with adhesive tape, and whether he will enter the Amateur Athletic Union championships to begin Saturday night will depend on developments. Dr. Bessell, who has attended the injured athlete, says it would be foolhardy and might result in a rib piercing one of his vital organs.

Frank will wait to see how he feels. It was while he was training for the exposition matches that Frank first hurt his rib. Later it didn't bother him and he went through the Far Western tournament in good shape until the final match in his class. Then, while using his body as a lever, the rib gave way. Game to the core, Frank wouldn't admit his injury, and since nothing happened took the title.

He may enter the more important matches, but it doesn't appear at all likely, for advice will be all against such a move.

JUNCTION CITY HAS THREE GAMES.

Charles Harbick, a laborer in Commissioner Dieck's department, was before the Municipal Civil Service Board yesterday for hearing on charges of inefficiency.

The efficiency record as kept by Mr. Harbick's superior officer showed that he was up to the standard of efficiency during 1914, and until the time of his dismissal March 25. On April 14, three weeks after he was dismissed, a report was sent to the records giving him 100 demerit marks for inefficiency. This was to make the records correspond with the charges against Harbick. The Civil Service Board started to hear the case, but discovered that Harbick had not been served with notice of his dismissal in legal form, and for that reason he was reinstated.

Sidelights of Session

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

AN FRANCISCO polo expert says he is in doubt whether Portland has the best polo team at the Exposition tourney or the worst team. As a matter of fact there is no evidence before the court that Portland has any team there at all. To be sure Hamilton Corbett makes his home here, but the other players perhaps never saw the Willamette. St. Maurice Hecksher is from Long Island; Thomas le Bouteiller plays with the Cooperstown team, and J. Sheever Cowdin was formerly a Long Island poloist, but is now resting at San Mateo.

Moving picture films of boxing bouts are not allowed in the United States, but boxing matches are. Why? We don't know as much about it as you do, except that everybody's a little queer says these and me and thou art likewise queer if you have ever been a lawmaker.

Jack Bliss was dumfounded when Harry Hogan sent him an outright release by the Venice club. Bliss says he spurned a three-year Federal contract for $17,500 last fall to stick with Hogan and naturally he is sore. If this is true Jack had better consult "Bonesetter" Reese and tell the famous savant to confine his operations to that portion of the anatomy above the shaving. Hogan is said to be preparing similar tin-can ornaments for Elmer Koestner and Don Rader.

Many a wise word has been spoken in jest. The gink who remarked about Jack Johnson losing his "golden smile" at Havana had inside information. Willard, it develops, knocked out two of the big cinder's 18-carat molars during the battle and Johnson, too proud to spit them out, swallowed the gold.

BIG SALMON ARE TAKEN

ONE FISH WEIGHING 56 POUNDS IS CAUGHT AT OREGON CITY.

River Dotted With Boats—Several Accidents Mark Last Few Days Near Falls, Where Fishing Is Best.

OREGON CITY, Or., April 15.—(Special.)—Salmon trolling below the falls of the Willamette River here has reached its height and scores of boats, weighing to 50 pounds, are being taken from the river daily.

Between 200 and 300 boats were on the river today, extending from the dead line below the falls and the rapids of the Clackamas River. There were fishermen, however, as far down the river as Jennings Lodge. The bright weather brought out scores early this morning from Portland, who spent the entire day on the river.

Several accidents, none serious, have occurred in the last few days. Yesterday afternoon a woman fell overboard and would have been drowned had it not been for aid given her by her husband. She refused to give her name. Another boat was tipped over in the swift water below the falls and its contents lost, but other fishermen rescued the occupants.

The largest salmon caught with hook and line this season weighed 56 pounds and was pulled out Tuesday. One 12-year-old boy caught a 48-pound fish the first of the season. The trolling season will end May 1, when the net season opens. Several fish wardens have been stationed Lawyer in Will Says That He Hoped to Leave More to Family.

NORRISTOWN, Pa., April 15.—Colonel John M. Vandervell, Philadelphia lawyer, of Collegeville, declares in his will, probated today from Del Monte, Cal., where he has been for the last month on his annual vacation. He is coming on the steamer Northern Pacific.

The Great Northern will feature these Indians in connection with all advertising displays calling attention to the festival week in one of the park blocks near the festival center, where they will hold receptions for the visitors and their white sisters and brothers will be invited to the pow-wows and may take part in the square dances and witness the various picturesque tribal ceremonies of the Blackfoot. The Indians to be seen here are among the most magnificent men and women of the tribe, and are full-blooded. Only two in the tribe speak English. Indian interpreters accompany the party, which will be in charge of an Indian agent.

Champagne Dealer Sues Millionaire for $2700 for 100 Cases.

NEW YORK, April 15.—Joseph Leiter of New York, who has been ordered to appear in the Supreme Court here, in answer to a suit over 100 cases of champagne he bought from Charles Bellowes. Leiter insists that the champagne, for which he agreed to pay $2700, is unlike any champagne he has tasted, and that his friends in Washington agreed with him. He refused to pay the $2700 and the merchant has brought suit. Attorney Stetson for Bellowes said recently:

"Mr. Bellowes ordered the 100 cases from France for Mr. Leiter. He kept it for two months and then returned it to me. It was not the same quality as the one he had ordered. He refused to pay for it. We insist that the wine delivered to him was of the same quality as that which he sampled. We shall put experts on the stand to prove this."
