DIVORCE MILL GRINDS ON.—A blow from a carpenter's square missed her head, and the square was driven into a hardwood door, alleges Mrs. Doris Putnam in a suit for divorce filed yesterday. Fritz Putnam yesterday. Another divorce suit filed by I. R. McKinney, who alleged that his wife, Mable E. McKinney, treated him cruelly. Two divorces were granted, Theresa Gauditz from Adolph Gauditz, on cruelty charges by Judge Gantenkin, and Gertrude K. Rush from Walter Rush, on grounds of desertion, by Judge McGinn.

STREET OILING WORK STARTS SOON.—Oiling of city streets is to start May 1, according to plans made by City Commissioner Daly. Automatic sprinklers used last year will start the sprinkling in the center of the city and gradually work out into the outskirts. The starting of the work on May 1 will enable the coating of the streets twice during the summer. Heretofore, oiling has not been started that early. Arrangements have been made for the purchase of 10,000 barrels of oil for the work. GENERAL WHITE OFF TO INSPECTION.—Adjutant-General White left last night for Corvallis for an inspection of the National Guard Company there. He planned to attend the regular drill of the company at that place last night. The general was accompanied by Colonel C. McLaughlin and Lieutenant Williams, of the United States regular army. Tonight the three men plan to be in Dallas for an inspection of the company there.

BISHOP W. H. FOLKE COMING TO PORTLAND.—Bishop W. H. Folke, D. D., of Naperville, Ill., who presided at the recent session of the Oregon Conference of the United Evangelical Church at Corvallis, will be in Portland next Sunday and occupy the pulpit of the Oakley Green Church in the morning. On Sunday, May 2, he will return to Portland and preach in the First United Evangelical Church, Ladd's Addition, in the morning and in the St. Johns church in the evening. Bishop Folke passed a few days in Portland last week. He is visiting the churches in the state of the United Evangelical Church. The bishop will remain in Portland from May 2 till May 9 and make inspection of the Portland and vicinity churches.

ST. JOHNS SCHOOL BOARD TO ELECT.—Teachers, principals, clerk and superintendent of the James Johns high and grammar schools of St. Johns will be elected at a meeting of the Board of Education on Thursday night in the Central schoolhouse. There are more than 30 instructors in all to be chosen. The board will also elect the principal of the St. Johns school district in the Portland district, but there probably will be no change for the year, as the teachers will all be engaged before the election can be effected. The board will purchase a building for the playgrounds of the three school buildings at a cost of $1000 as provided in the budget adopted in December.

MISSIONARY CONVENTION OPENS TONIGHT.—The 11th annual convention of the Women's Missionary Society of the Oregon Conference of the Evangelical Association will open tonight at the Grace Evangelical Church, of Lenta, the sessions to be continued Wednesday and Thursday. Mrs. N. Shupp, president, will deliver the opening address tonight and Rev. T. R. Horschuch will respond. Mrs. E. Banks, laid missionary, will deliver the address on Wednesday evening. Mrs. E. Banks, Echbals, from China, and Mrs. Thomas Moody, missionary from Africa, will speak. During the convention the following officers were elected: president, vice-president and secretaries.

SANDY BRIDGE OPEN.—The new bridge across the Sandy River at the Portland and Clifton bridges is open to the public and was used Sunday extensively, but the road on the east side of the bridge, and instead of following the steep hill along the bridge, a connection with the Latourel road, an entirely new route has been selected toward the south which avoids the steep climb. Sunday more than 2900 automobiles crossed the Troutdale and Bass Line road bridges.

Mrs. CATHERINE DONOVAN AT REST.—Funeral services for Mrs. Catherine Donovan, widow of the late William Donovan, who died Saturday, at her home, 161 East Sixteenth street, were held yesterday from the residence and St. Francis Church, East Pine and East Twelfth streets. Rev. Father J. H. Black officiated. Interment was in Riverview cemetery. Mrs. Donovan is survived by six children, Ellen, John, Josephine, Catherine, Ann and Daniel Donovan.

CALIFORNIA CLUB PARTY TOMORROW.—The California Club party will give a "refugee dance" and party at the Masonic Temple tomorrow night. The entertainment will be in commemoration of the San Francisco earthquake and fire. The party will come attired as they were during the disaster and interesting experiences will be related. Refreshments will be served and music furnished by the orchestra of the Federation of State Societies are invited.
