the Baker Theater.

"PAGLIACCI"

Italian Grand Opera in Two Acts, by Leoncavallo, and Presented at the Baker Theater.

Nedda.....Katherine Lynbrook
Canio.....E. De Folco
Tonio.....F. Benyan

With a large audience expressing its unqualified approval, the Italian Grand Opera Company's presentations of two operas, "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci," at the Baker Theater Monday night, won instant success.

Much of the interest in the singing in "Cavalleria" are by Santuzza, the coquette, and Turiddu, the returned soldier and professional heartbreaker.
Santuzza was attractive, played and sang last night by Miss Katherine Lynbrook, and Turiddu by Eugene De Folco.
Miss Lynbrook made a superb dashing Santuzza. She made the part stand out with reckless coquetry, and with attraction. Her rich, pleasant voice was heard to the advantage in the introduction to the "Hymn to the Madonna," and the rendition sang with fervor. This part just suited Miss Lynbrook's middle voice, and she sang the score with fine confidence and ease.

Romantic Part Well Played.

De Folco made a romantic, reckless beau. The part of Turiddu calls for a youth who returns from army service to find that his former sweetheart, Lola, has wedded Alfio, "the village doctor."
Before he meets Alfio's wife, Turiddu is made love to by Santuzza, but he will have none of her. She plans revenge. Lola is willing to listen to Turiddu's love speeches, and when Santuzza reports this to Alfio that worthy and Turiddu fight a Sicilian duel.
To this story, the music was wedded sparkling music, not easy to sing, but attractive to the ear. Chief among the beautiful melodies of this opera, is the famous "Intermezzo" played by the orchestra as an intermission between the act on the stage. This "Intermezzo" was rendered with charming accompaniment and it sparkled with quiet devotional atmosphere and appealing beauty.

Chorus and Silva Excellent.

The chorus sang with precision and willingness, especially in the soprano leading part. Turiddu calls for a
to find that his former sweetheart, Lola,
has wedded Alfio, "the village doctor."
Before he meets Alfio's wife, Turiddu
is made love to by Santuzza, but he
venge. Lola is willing to listen to Turiddu's
love speeches, and when Santuzza
reports this to Alfio that worthy
and Turiddu fight a Sicilian duel.
To this story, the music was wedded
famous "Intermezzo" played by the or-
act on the stage. This "Intermezzo"
was rendered with charming accompaniment and it sparkled with quiet devotional atmosphere and appealing beauty.

Characters Sit as Audience.

The opera is curiously enough an opera within an opera. The latter is included at a side of the stage, and the characters and villagers sit on seats in the audience, and look at and applaud the action of the principals. Nedda is a flirt, and has a sweetheart, Silvio.
Tonio wants to win her away from her husband and adulter, and when she whips Tonio for daring to love her, she proposes to him. Tonio swears revenge.
He informs Canio of his wife's perfidy. Canio, who is a barber, and who is a mock domestic disturbance, but his jealousy breaks out and he turns coming into tragedy by stabbing to death his wife and her lover.

Tragedy Change Sudden.

De Folco arose to greater heights both in acting and singing as Tonio than as Turiddu. He quickly changed from a happy, laughing, and carefree hearted man who muttered after the stunning: "The comedy is finished." The part gave him opportunity to display his fine dramatic voice. Miss Lynbrook as Nedda was successful. She made her presentation peculiarly attractive, and mature. Benyan as Tonio made a big hit in the celebrated "Prologue" sung before the curtain, and made up for his slight physique by his fine comedy work and splendid singing. Silva made a noteworthy village sweetheart, and sang with distinction.
Neri was satisfactory as the harlequin.

MUTS INITIATE ACT

WILLIAM ROCK TAKES OBLI-GATIONS ON HEILIG STAGE.

W. P. Strandberg, George L. Baker and Others Assist in Ceremonies That Follow Regular Show.

With a blaze of stage trumpets and fanfare of bugles, William Rock, star of "The Candy Shop," was made into a regularly ordained Mut Monday night on the Heilig stage, right after the performance. Muts sat on both sides of the footlights. On the stage W. P.
Strandberg, "The Big Mut," decorated appropriately in electric lights, presided in state.
George L. Baker, in a toga and sandals and looking like a cross between Othello and Raymond Dandee, grandfathered a scholar in his official position of Captain of the Guards.

CHARLES BERG, IN THE TRAP

Charles Berg, in the trapping of a Roman senator, presided in his capacity of "Tel et Tuh Nah." An impromptu service was put into use, and Mr. Berg's instructions to the candidate were keen in original. Mr. Berg's capotes came off the hat and the audience got a great lot of fun out of the proceedings.

J. E. Werlein, as Nuffer Kara Diam, gave Mr. Berg the obligations, and these two were done in original style, embroidered in Mr. Werlein's best little way-down-South dialect. Mr. Berg enjoyed the event and almost broke up the initiation at times with his pert and pertinent observations.
The company members and their guests were grouped on the stage, and they, too, had great fun out of their star's affiliation with a new lodge. W.
T. Fangle was one of the officials pressed into service, as was also Monro Goldstein, as Guardian of the Sphinx. The guests were W. F. Spier, Harry Fleisher, E. W. Mosher, Robert Adams, Dow Walker and N. B.
Wells. The ceremony was made for fun, strictly speaking, but the whole thing gleamed the spirit of kindness and optimism for which the Order of Men United to Serve is known.

Patrolman Pains After March.

Though Monday was not an unusually warm day, when the members of the Portland Police Band concluded their annual march home, the band was at night at "The Candy Shop," all were perspiring freely and Chris Johnson, patrolman and player of the baritone, fainted in front of the police station. He was taken to the Emergency Hospital and later removed to his home.

END OF WAR HELD AHEAD

WHITE TEMPLE SPEAKER PRE-DICTS ONE POWER IN EUROPE.

Dr. Gabelein's Subject at Bible Conference Today Will Be "The Three-Fold Work of Christ."

"There is no universal peace without the presence of him who is the Prince of Peace. The creed that it takes a great war to make a great peace is a mistaken one. The prayer this kingdom come will never be answered until the King comes. Then shall this earth find its peace and glory."

This was one of the statements made Monday by Dr. A. G. Gabelein, who is giving a Bible conference in the White Temple.
The topic of the night's discussion was "What Shall Be the End of These Things?" Dr. Gabelein spoke on the prophecies of Daniel. He traced the history of the various dynasties of the world and said that the world was shown by the prophet, is not yet.
Dr. Gabelein gave as his belief, drawn from his study of the Bible, that after this war there would be set up in Europe one great power and that would be succeeded later by the second coming of Christ. He said the world was moving toward the Roman Catholic Church at present was the opinion of the speaker.

MANAGER PLAN REVIEWED

Whitman College Senior Describes La Grande's City Government.

WHITMAN COLLEGE, Walla Walla, Wash., April 24.—(Special.)—Donald H.
Thompson, a senior who is majoring in political science, has written an article entitled "La Grande Under the Commission-Manager Form of Government," which is now being used in the spring number of the Pacific Municipalities, a magazine published by the Northwest League of Pacific Municipalities.

Thompson deals with the city government of La Grande, and in it Mr.
Thompson shows how the city manager plan of government in this city has changed from the old city council and comform of government alone has failed to do in many cities. He sets forth in the article the success which the city manager plan of government has had along various lines, laying especial emphasis on the cutting down of the city taxes and debts.

Progress in Building Plans.

C. F. Adams, vice-president of the First National Bank, returned Monday from San Francisco, where he attended the exposition and also looked after business in connection with the new First National Bank building that is being erected at Fifth and Stark streets.
Workmen now are demolishing the old building formerly occupied by J.
C. Black & Co. to make three three or four weeks to get the wreckage out of the way. Excavations will start promptly after that. Mr. Adams says the plans for the basement have been completed, but that the drawings and detailed specifications for the main structure are not yet ready.

CHILD FORGES $30 CHECK

Girl, 12, Pays $15 for Silverware, She Confesses to Officer.

A girl, 12 years old, living on East Eighty street, confessed to Patrolman Jones that she had forged a check Monday for $30 and had got H. W. Black, of 548 Plavay avenue, to cash it.
Mr. Black had been called by patrolman Jones and the confession followed. The little girl told the policeman that she had spent $15 for a set of silverware and the $15 was recovered and turned over to the girl's father.
He gave a check for $30 to the policeman to give to Mr. Black.
The check which Mr. Black honored was made out on the Sellwood Bank for $30 payable to L. H. Black, and indorsed L. Hindrick, 781 Leo avenue.
As Mr. Black got his money back, he will not prosecute the girl.

tion of Alcohol.

NORTHVILLE, S. D., April 15.—

old, pulled two bottles from a shelf.
One, containing carbolic acid, fell, the contents of the acid entering his left eye.
The mother quickly called the contents of the other bottle, alcohol, and succeeded in saving the child's sight.

What the Box Scores Show About Players You Know.

BANCROFT scored the only run made for five innings. Boston led 1-0.
Paul Strand pitched a nine-inning, 7-2 victory for the Braves against Brooklyn. He walked two and fanned eight.
Quinn ended up on a hitting streak for the White Sox and failed to connect yesterday.
Carl Mays held Washington scoreless for five innings. Boston led 1-0.
Senators, 2-0, despite Walter Johnson, when Mays was hurt and Collins lost the game. Mays made a hit, run and sacrifice in two times at bat.
Standridge, for the Cubs, was batted down by the box by Pittsburgh, but the Cubs finally won.
Bill Rodgers played second for Cleveland yesterday, accepting three chances without a skip. He failed to hit, but scored a run.
Ernie Johnson, of the Angels, is playing short for the St. Louis Peds.

DANGEROUS DEBILITY

Debility may result from a number of causes—worry, after-effects of acute illness, lack of nourishment due to disturbed digestion, or anything that makes the blood thin, thereby preventing it from carrying health and nourishment to the tissues of the body.
The symptoms of debility vary but weakness is always present, often a tendency to fatigue easily, ringing in the ears, black spots passing before the eyes, weak back, dizziness, wakefulness caused by inability to stop thinking, and unrefreshing sleep.

Debility is dangerous because it weakens the body's defense against disease. For instance, debilitated people take cold easily and Winter is always a trying time for them. When one cold follows another the system surely needs building up.
The treatment of such run-down conditions with Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is based on sound medical principles and common sense. These pills build up the blood so that it nourishes every part of the body, nerves as well as muscles, and brings vigor, strength and health.

BOY FALLS INTO CISTERN

MOTHER COMING TO AID FALLS ON TOP OF YOUNGSTER.

Grandmother Calls for Assistance, and Both Are Hoisted Out With Only Minor Injuries.

VANCOUVER, Wash., April 20.—(Special.)—Clyde Meredith, 5 years old, desiring to see what was under the house, crawled through a loosened board and fell into the cistern. His mother, Mrs.
Meredith, who lives at 808 West Eighty street, trying to locate her son, crawled under the house and, being unable to see, also fell into the cistern.
Mrs. Meredith's mother, hearing calls for help, ran to the street and hailed a taxi. Both the boy and his mother were hoisted out by a fireman. Mrs.
Smith carries a towel for emergencies, and this was used in extricating the mother and son. Mrs. Meredith slipped one end around the boy and he was hoisted up. Then she was hoisted out.

The old cistern was covered with boards, which had decayed. When the boy climbed over them he broke through.
Mrs. Meredith broke her fall by catching the side of the cistern, which is bricked up.

LONGER SCHOOL YEAR NEED

Wisconsin University Survey Finds No Political Meddling.

MADISON, Wis., April 14.—The report of William H. Allen on the survey of the University of Wisconsin, has been made to the State Board of Public Affairs and a summary has been given.
"Numerous statements have been made to the survey, both from within and without the university itself, that the university is being used for the purpose of legislation and should discontinue legislative activity and meddling in politics," the report says. "No confession was made, however, that the survey of legislative interference or of meddling in politics." In reference to social and economic standards for students it is suggested that they be revised so that more students could be admitted. It is suggested that the price of rooms in student dormitories be lowered, and that student aid be increased by remission of
