McCredie Uses Every Possible Device to Stop Bees, but Only Prolongs Game.

SPEAS' HOMER OF NO USE

Portland's Early Lead Upset by Ryan's Clouting-Pitcher Leroy Finally Nicks Callahan With Swat, Making Score 5 to 3.

Walter McCredie tried all sorts of shifts and experiments yesterday, but the best Portland could do was to hold Salt Lake until the 14th inning.

Portland used Higginbotham and Callahan in the box and Salt Lake called on Hall, Lefty Williams and Leroy. All twisted great ball games.

Higginbotham found himself in a lively duel with Bert Hall during the first nine innings and we believe deserved to win.

Speas swooped in like a seagull and spanked his hands on Gedeon's liner, but it proved an elusive as a 50-foot salmon on the end of a six-ounce rod.

McCredie tries hard. He did his damndest to win, but managerial strategy is no more useful than the buttons on the tail of a coat when a man comes up with the bases full and hits into a double play.

With two on the bases Speas sent Lash out to bat for Higginbotham. Blankenship countered by substituting Southpaw Williams against Southpaw Speas.

INDIAN TWIRLER WHO GETS CREDIT FOR YESTERDAY'S VICTORY, AND PILOT OF SALT LAKE BEES.

Louis Le Roy Cliff Blankenship, Manager.

Ryan left third too soon after Harbour's sacrifice fly in the seventh. The ball was thrown over to third, but the umpires refused to allow the out. While McCredie kicked vociferously, the pilots as well have been talking to Lash Mountain.

Doane cut off a couple of runs by sending Callahan up against the fence only to fall by the wayside in the ninth on Ryan's wind-blown skied.

Murphy played shortstop the last few innings. Nearly 200 fans sat in the park in the eighth when Speas knocked his homer. The early birds will be a surprised bunch when they direct their morning newspaper.

Coltrin was shifted up to leadoff man. In the first inning he singled and scored on Derick's hit to right. He then whiffed Doane home in the second inning.

OAKS TAKE ANGELS' MEASURE

Jimmy Johnston Starts With Home Run and Team Keeps on Scoring.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 21.—A home run rapped out by left fielder Johnston in the first inning of the game played here today started the scoring for Oakland that ended with that team defeating Los Angeles 5 to 1.

Johnston's homer, his fourth scoring, was done until the seventh when the Angels made one. The Oaks pounded out four in the eighth, however, clinching the game.

ONCE MORE GIANTS ROSE TO PHILLIES

Chalmers, Cast Off by McGraw, Holds Former Team-mates to Two Hits.

REDS DEFEAT ST. LOUIS

Braves Lose to Brooklyn, James Being Only Effective Pitcher of Four Used by Stalling—Rain Prevents Cub-Pirate Game.

NEW YORK, April 21.—The Philadelphia Nationals made a clean sweep of their series with New York, winning the fourth game by a score of 6 to 4.

It was the sixth straight victory for Philadelphia, and the fifth consecutive defeat for McGraw's former champions.

George Chalmers, who went South with the New York team this Spring and was permitted to sign yesterday with Philadelphia, pitched against his training-camp associates and held them to two singles. Cravath broke up Perritt's game in the third inning when he doubled with the bases full.
