Ex-President Not to Oppose Ordinances were passed for the improvement of the south ends of First and Second streets. Republicans, Is Report.

BOURNE IS ACTIVE

Ex-Senator Believed Aspiring to can success was the information given me the day before I left Washington by one of the leading Republicans in the inner circles of the National party organization," said Edward D. Baldwin, Mecretary of the Republican State Central Committee, who was at the Imperial Hotel yesterday on his return from the National capital by way of the Panama Canal and San Franof the Panama Canal and San Fran

"This leader, who does not want his name brought into public print, also advanced the opinion that exceptions in the direction of a cabinet position—probably that of Postmaster General—in the event of Republican success in 1916. He pointed out that Bourne's present activity in organizing an elaborate campaign of Republican publicity for the education of the voters of the country doubtless is in furtherance of this ambition, rather than along the line of smoothing the way to re-enter Oregon politics as a Senatorial candidate.

Democrats Cause Restlessness.

The object of the half holiday, however, is merely to give a half day of recreation during the middle of the many persons on my 7000-mile trip, There is some talk of organizing department at the many persons on my 7000-mile trip,

"My observation, in talking with many persons on my 7000-mile trip, has been that the people of this country are restlessly waiting to vote for the Republican ticket; that most of noons them wish the election was next week them wish the election was next week instead of next year. The next campaign should, and I think will, be waged on the economic issue and on the general inadequacy and inefficiency of the Democratic party along the lines of constructive government.

"The Democratic donkey is a sick animal. Its only asset at present is a feeling, which really is widespread throughout the country, that President Wilson has kept the country out of a war. Yet any high-minded and reagonably cautious President of any party war. Yet any high-minded and reasonably cautious President of any party would have done the same thing. Much as they would like to do so, I doubt if the Democrats can make an issue out of this. The fight will swing around the 'prosperity and fuil dinner pail' issue, and next year will see a repetition of the McKinley victory.

"It is impossible to make a good guess as to who will be the Republican tendidate. The matter is still so befogged. fogged.

Borah Believed Promising.

"I believe if the West, from the Mis-sissippi River to the Pacific Coast, would unite on Senator Borah he could be nominated against the divided favorite-son strength in the East, and this in spite of the disadvantage of his this in spite of the disadvantage of his residence from the standpoint of political geography. Justice Hughes is quite a favorite everywhere and many think he would win by acclamation if he would allow the use of his name. Many other favorite sons are talked about, but none of them seems at present to tower above his rivals.

"I believe this is the year of years for the West to come into its own, take advantage of present conditions and elect a President."

Mr. Baldwin stopped on his way from San Francisco to Portland at Medford and at Roseburg to visit local Republican leaders. He reports that S. S. Smith, State Committeeman of Jackson county, and Bert Anderson, Chalrman of the County Committee, already have made plans for an active campaign next Fall. They have arranged for a Republican barbecue in August of this year and hope to have a Republican of National prominence as the principal speaker. They also have perfected their precinct organizations throughout the county. They predict that Jackson county will be brought into the Republican column next year.

500 PIANO CLUB

Did you ever consider the boundless influence of music? Ever think what it means to you personally? - there is nothing more refined-nothing which so appeals to the inner feelings or sympathies-to that which is best and truest in human nature. Everyone loves it but only those who can personally produce it understand its subtlest fascinations. For years no home has ever been considered complete without a piano. But, how comparatively few can play it even fairly well and how much less is the number who are really accomplished musicians. The player piano meets all requirements, for anyone can play it - the student can profit by the player piano with the new Rythmodik or Solostyle music rolls, which are reproductions by the world's greatest performers—just as the records are for talking machines.

'TIS SURELY Piano-Buying Time

Every Day Adds From Three to Six New Members to Our "500 Piano Club"

You owe it to yourself and family to investigate the "500 Piano Club" at once. Never again will pianos of such grade and character come as close to you as this. Just think of it-virtually 20c a day will bring the most cherished of all worldly possessions into your home immediately.

The low prices and easy terms are made possible by the collective or co-operative "500 Piano Club" plan of selling. You join with 499 others in wholesale buying. There are no dues, no "red tape" and no waiting. You don't even know the other club members. We state without fear of contradiction that prices and terms have never been as low anywhere east, west, north or south as obtained by joining the Eilers "500 Piano Club." These are bold statements, but easily proven by a little investigation. Our reputation is back of every claim and statement in this announcement. Please bear in mind, too, that our reputation is too dear to us to make any misstatement for the sake of selling a few pianos.

Remember, too, your purchase is protected in every way. Each and every instrument is guaranteed to be as represented or your money refunded.

There is no doubt that if every family in America knew the real, substantial good that the player piano is capable of bringing into the family life, the factories could not begin to meet the demand. Investigate

That Pain Is Useful

A pain is a very useful thing at times, for it points to something wrong inside. Backache may be taken as a warning of kidney trouble, if there are also aching joints, urinary disorders, dizzy head-aches and drowsy, despondent, tired feelings. Ridney weakness is danger-ous to neglect, for it is likely to lead to rheumatism, gravel, dropsy, or Bright's disease.
