kler system.

The first floor of the addition is to be utilized in connection with Albers Bros.' mill and the fourth floor is for office purposes. The company mains three docks there, No. 1 being south of the Broadway bridge and the others on the north side. In connection with the building plan the Commission discussed the erecting of concrete firewalls to protect the bridge, but with a sprinkling system and the fact that walls to protect the bridge, but with a sprinkling system and the fact that the exterior of the addition will be sided with corrugated fireproof material, the fire risk will be considerably lessened. Heavy mill construction will be used throughout, and while the foundation of the dock is on concrete cans the lower structure is to be caps the lower structure is to be caps, the lower structure is to be strengthened where required. The waterfront building ordinance provides for fireproof construction for 50 feet each side of bridges, but the Commission voted to amend the measure.

Plans are being drawn for the addition to the municipal boatlanding, at the foot of Stark street, where a sec-ond story is to be built for headquar-ters of the Commission. It is expected that bids can be asked for in three Another waterfront improve weeks. Another waterront improve-ment to be begun soon will be the ad-dition to the mill and dock of the Port-land Flouring Mills Company, at the lower end of the harbor on the East Side. A fill there is to be started next

The Commission received one bid yesterday for the construction of railroad connections at Municipal Dock No. 2, between East Washington and East to load lumber for the West Co Cak streets, A. Guthrie & Co. offering to lay the tracks for $4,845 with an alternate bid, which includes additional trackage, in the sum of $5,994. The tender of the public drydock yesterday. ders were taken under consideration, as the Commission plans entering into as the Commission plans entering into a lease with the Spokane, Portiand & Seattle Railroad for block 22, to be used in connection with the tracks. The intention is to have two tracks in the rear of the dock and across to the east line of East Water street, while the alternate bid includes the further construction of track on East Oak street and across block 22 to the west line of East First street to a connection with the Southern Pacific. Officials of the Portland Railway, Light & Power Company Informed the Commission that for the present they would not build a connection with the dock. not build a connection with the dock. though they can reach that siding from other tracks south of there. Crashing of Antonine Into Desdemona Light Laid to Negligence.

The libel against the French bark Pierre Antonine, brought by the United States Government for damage amount. ing to $541 because of the craft crashing into the United States light station on Desdemona Sands at the mouth of the Columbia River, formed the sub-ject of an admiralty case before Judge Bean in Federal Court yesterday. At the forenoon session of court Assistant Inited States Attorney Rankin established to the satisfaction of the court that negligence had caused the mishap, but whether this could be laid either to the vessel or the Port of Portland tug, which towed her into the river, is an issue between these two interests. A suit fied by the bark owners against the Port of Portland, and a counter suit, in which the Port of Portland makes a claim of $1790, were the bases of arguments and the introduction of testimony before the court yesterday, and the case will be continued today. It is expected the court will give his decision this afternoon.

BREAKWATER TO MOVE BERTH

North Section of Ainsworth Dock to Be Used by "Big Three."

Talk along the waterfront is that the steamer Breakwater, operated by the Southern Pacific between Portland and Coos Bay, will give up her berth at the north end of Ainsworth dock about the middle of next month and that the property will be occupied by the San Francisco & Portland Steamship Company.

It is said that no decision has been reached regarding the future of the main section of Alnsworth dock. Plans main section of Ainsworth dock. Plans for repairing the structure were submitted recently to the Commission of Public Docks and that body, while approving them generally, decided on certain conditions, including that one of its inspectors should pass on the work. The berth now used by the Breakwater is comparatively new and that may be occupied in sections. that may be occupied in con with a part of the main dock.
