Notes of the Game.

Milton Reed, who was to come to the Beavers in part payment for Dave Bancroft, and hopped to the Brooklyn Feds instead, inas been enjoined from playing with Lee Magee's squad. Word to this effect was received yesterday by the McCredier. It is unlikely that Reed will come to the Beavers now. A number of players have been chartered and as the team needs seasoned material rather than recruits there is small hope of Reed coming out West. Pitcher Earl Yingling, who was turned ever to Salt Lake by Cincinnati and refused to report to the Bees, has been signed by Minnespolls. This is the report sent out from that city and it also says that Minnespolls has taken over the contract Yingling had with the Reds, which has two years to run and calls for a stipend of $4000 a season.

Catcher Lynn, the third backstop of the Bees, has been farmed out to the Phoenix club: Rod Murphy, the infielder coming to the Beavers from New Orleans, is expected to arrive in Portland Sunday night. He will be in the lineup against the Angels next week.

Outfielder Hillyard, who yesterday was purchased from the Cleveland American Association club, clouted .280 last sesson with that team in 66 games. Two of the swats were homers, five triples and 15 doubles. He made 60 bingles in all. McCredie figures his stickwork will be a hig boon to the Beavers. He is a left-handed hitter.

JACK, 'BUSINESS' DOESN'T APPRECIATE YOUR BEING SO 'SWALLOWED UP' IN THAT YOU DON'T WEAR DECENT

Years ago, perhaps, it was easier to make a success by wearing a baggy suit six months or so to put a little extra money in the bank. But that sort of thing doesn't go now because t's so EASY TO HAVE STYLISH CLOTHES these days. "Not that industry isn't just as paying as it ever was; but, don't you see, Jack, a fellow can't put over anything worth while in business with his looks pulling against him.

"Run up to CHERRW'S CREDIT CLOTHING STORE tomorrow morning, Jack! CHERRY'S CAN FIT ANYONE, so it will be only a matter of minutes for you to choose a suit that will stand up and 'do you proud,' no matter where you wear it. "THE PRICE AND NEW MODELS OF THEIR ARROW BRAND CLOTHES WILL BE A CHEERFUL SURPRISE— so moderate — and on WEERLY OR MONTHLY INSTALLMENTS will settle up your bill after you pay CHER-RY'S a small 'good-faith' sum. Watch prospects 'chirk up' then! You'll understand how wearing the right clothes

Cherry's store is open Saturday even-ings till 10 P. M. and their address is 389-391 Washington st., Pittock block.
