PLEASANT HOME SELECTED AS SITE.

At the special election held Saturday in Victory, Orient, Lusted and Cottrell school districts to decide on the site of the proposed union high school, the new Pleasant Home, on the Mount Hood Railroad, was selected, the exact location to be made later when the union high school district is formed. The vote Saturday was the first step in the organization of the union district. County School Superintendent Harry A. Strong will prepare petitions asking for an election to decide on the organization. These will be circulated and placed in the hands of the county boundary board, if these petitions contain a sufficient number of signatures an election will be called in each of the school districts. The organization of the proposed union high school district.

SOUTH AFRICAN MINER'S SENTENCE SUSPENDED.

George Cramer, a South African miner, and Edsel J. Smith, 24, who were the principals in a shooting fray at 273 1/2 Columbia street Saturday night, received suspended sentences in Municipal Court yesterday. A handsome diamond, brought by Cramer from the Kimberly mines, was given the woman in San Francisco upon the sealing of a contract between the two. In a quarrel Saturday night the girl gave Cramer his diamond back and fired two shots after him as he fled. Detectives Royce, Tichenor and Cahill made the arrest.

BOY SCOUTS HAVE OUTING.

The Boy Scouts of Sixth avenue, at Lewis, passed two days last week at Oswego Lake, pitching their tents at the head of the lake. The boys kept strict guard at night, the sentinels taking turns standing guard and patrolling the camp. A sudden attack by the enemy or wild animals from the surrounding "jungle" was expected by the scouts. Orders were given on camp life. After a hearty breakfast the scouts formed in line and marched back to their homes in Lewis.

WASHINGTON STRAWBERRIES ARRIVE.

Rich, ripe, red strawberries from W. H. Galligan, of Coos Bay, Wash., have been received by the Oregonian. The berries were grown in a protected place and had nothing to encourage them except the warm sunshine, says Mr. Galligan. He will start the shipments of his fruit this week, which is expected to carry. The berries are large and sweet. They were grown in the Underwood district, only a short way from the home of the famous White Salmon Valley berry.

REED LECTURES ANNOUNCED.

In Reed College extension course 12, natural science, Dr. H. B. Torrey will give the 6th lecture, entitled "Charles Darwin and the Origin of Species," today at 2 o'clock, in the biological lecture room of the college. In course 21, Dr. W. C. Morgan will give the last of the lectures on world rides, entitled "How Long Will the Universe Last?" (Illustrated) tonight at 8 o'clock, in Library Hall, Central Library.

HYGIENE SOCIETY TO MEET.

The Oregon auxiliary to the National Mouth Hygiene Society will meet tonight in room 8 of the Library to complete its organization and outline work for the ensuing year. All interested parties, Teachers Circles and other welfare societies of the city will be expected to have representatives at the meeting. L. R. Alderman, superintendent of schools, is president of the society.

COMMISSION MERCHANT FINED.

John Mahis, a commission merchant, was fined $10 in Municipal Court yesterday on the charge of selling short weights of asparagus. R. Roselofs, who filed the complaint, declared that he had received only 25 pounds of asparagus when he paid for 32 pounds, and did not notice the discrepancy until he was prepared to sell the vegetable.

MRS. JOHN GWILT DIES IN ALAMEDA, CAL.

Word has been received here of the death of Mrs. John Gwilt, formerly of Portland, at Alameda, Cal. Mr. and Mrs. Gwilt were old-time residents of Portland and were prominent in G. A. R. circles. They moved to California several years ago. Mrs. Gwilt was about 70 years of age.

HOME INMATES INVITED TO MATINEE.

The federated clubs of Portland in charge of the club vaudeville to be given today and tonight in the Eleventh-street playhouse, have invited the residents of the Catholic Old People's Home, the Patton Home and the Mann Home to be their guests at the matinee performance and especially to more for the women of the Orient.

FRED LOCKLEY TO TALK AT Y. M. C. A.

Fred Lockley will speak at the Y. M. C. A. at 8 o'clock tonight on "Cashing Spare Time." The lecture is a new course in business methods and efficiency that has just been started in the association, which is open both to men and women.

GERMAN PLAY TO BE GIVEN.

A new German play "Mit Hinderberg in Polen" will be given in the German House May 16, at 8 o'clock, under the auspices of the German Drama League. The play will be presented under the direction of Mrs. Richard Adam.

$20,000 IN BONDS NOT REDEEMED.

City Treasurer Adams is wondering where $20,000 of city improvement bonds of an issue, which was called in some time ago, are now located as the owners have not called to have them redeemed. Where they have gone is a mystery that the official has, as yet, been unable to solve. The original purchasers were notified that the money is on hand for the redemption of the bonds and that interest on them had been stopped. Most of the bonds were purchased originally by bond brokers and then resold.

MRS. ZANINOVICH'S ESTATE $18,000.

An estate valued at more than $18,000 was left by Mrs. Jennie F. Zaninovich, who died April 3, according to the will filed in County Clerk Coffey's office yesterday. Of this amount, $12,500 is in 125 shares of stock in Zan Bros, and $5,000 is in 100 shares of the Anna Donovan estate. The entire property is divided between a son and a daughter, Dominick Augustus Zaninovich and Regina Veronica Zaninovich.

CANADIAN OFFICER, REPORTED KILLED, KNOWN IN PORTLAND.

Lieutenant-Colonel W. Hart McHarg.

Lieutenant-Colonel W. Hart McHarg, of the Sixth Regiment, Vancouver, B. C., who, according to yesterday's dispatches, was killed last week during the engagement of the Canadian division in the western theater of the war in Europe, was well known in Portland. He commanded the British Columbia rifle team which won the international championship of the Northwest in the shoot held at the Clackamas range October 4 and 5, 1912.

Mrs. Zaninovich also owned a house and lot at 463 Brockhurst street, Oakland, Cal.

St. Johns Annexation Discussed.—D. C. Lewis, of St. Johns, addressed the East Side Business Men's Club yesterday at the luncheon, calling attention to the vote on the annexation of St. Johns to Portland. A committee was appointed to take up the annexation question and urge citizens to vote on that subject. V. C. Cooper, candidate for City Commissioner, made a brief address. Steps were taken to get together 20 automobiles for the police parade next Thursday.

FIREMEN IN TEST TODAY.

Sixty-five firemen desirous of promotion will participate today in a civil service examination for fire lieutenants. The examination will be held in the Council chamber at the City Hall. Firemen have been looking forward to the examination for months inasmuch as it is the one chance they have for promotion. While being examined the men will be subject to fire call in case of a "second alarm" fire.

"MADE IN OREGON" FESTIVAL PARADE SLOGAN.

"Made in Oregon" will be the slogan exemplified by the employees of the Ford automobile factory in their participation in the Portland Rose Festival, June 9-11. Information has been sent to the Chamber of Commerce that the Ford factory will have 103 uniformed marchers in line, and every member of the body will be clad in garments woven from Oregon-grown wool and made up in Oregon shops.

Mrs. W. T. Elmore, Missionary, Speaks.

Mrs. W. T. Elmore, of Rumpelstiltskin, India, spoke yesterday at the White Temple under the auspices of the American Baptist Missionary Society. Her topic was "How the Hindu Lost God." Mrs. Elmore's lecture is devoted largely to the mode of conversion of the Hindu men and also was an appeal to the American missionaries to do more for the women of the Orient.

WATER FIGHT IS WAGED

MILWAUKEE CAMPAIGN PRECEDING SPECIAL ELECTION HEATED.

Companies Urge Voters to Decide for Purchase of Present Plants to End Present Litigation.

Milwaukee is in the throes of a heated water works campaign, which will culminate Saturday at a special election when two questions will be voted on: "Shall the charter be so amended as to compel Milwaukee to acquire the property of the Milwaukee Water Company and the Minthorne Springs Water Company by purchase, arbitration or condemnation?" and "Do you favor Milwaukee buying Minthorne Springs for a water supply, rather than buying Bull Run water from Portland at a fixed price per gallon?"

If the first amendment carries the Council may offer a sum for these water plants, but if the terms are not accepted the Council may condemn both properties. Minthorne Springs may be acquired in the same way if the voters declare in favor of Minthorne Springs as a water supply.

A pamphlet has been sent to registered voters setting forth the attitude of the water companies and the reply by the former Mayor and Councilmen, who made the contract for Bull Run water. The Milwaukee Water Company asserts that it holds an exclusive franchise under section 1 of ordinance No. 6, passed by the Council April 29, 1904, which reads: "An exclusive franchise and right of way for a period of 20 years is hereby granted to F. W. Berkeimer and B. M. Flech and their associates west of the common Pacific track, and their associates shall have exclusive right to all water flowing through said town for sale to private parties and for fire purposes during said period." The Minthorne Springs Company does not claim exclusive franchise. It operates east of the Southern Pacific track. The company urges the citizens of Milwaukee to vote for the acquisition amendment, as they declare it will end trouble and prevent further expensive litigation.

PANTAGES STAR IS JOY

TOM KELLY GETS OVATION BEFORE HE BEGINS FUN-MAKING.

Burglar Sketch, Clever Acrobats, Graceful Dancers and Good Singers Appear on Bill.

The audience at Pantages didn't wait for Tom Kelly to begin his song, "I'm on My Way to Dublin Bay," nor did it pause till he had rattled off some of his inimitable jokes and patter, but it applauded vigorously the minutely the fashion plate baritone appeared. It was a hearty greeting of a genuine favorite. Kelly has personality, loads of it, and he has, in addition, a strong voice and a fund of sparkling wit. Several enthusiastic encores rewarded his successful efforts to entertain. He sang "I Didn't Raise My Boy to Be a Soldier," "Dancing Underneath an Irish Moon" and several other songs. He also made a little curtain speech yesterday.

A Santa Claus pack full of laughs is found in the comedy sketch "A High-Toned Burglar's Christmas Tree," which is presented by Dolan and Lenhart. The adventures of the burglar, who is a He is a burglar of a brand-new variety, a most obliging fellow. The plot is screamingly funny and the lines are full of surprises.

The Dollie Sisters are two pretty brunettes who do some bright, delightful singing and graceful dancing. They have several costumes and many different songs.

A girl with a beautiful figure, who can sing well and dance artistically, is Gertrude Van Dyke, who has an original set in which she is ably assisted by her brother. The latter plays the piano skillfully with expertness. Gertrude sings a song arranged as a duet, taking the high and low voice alternately. She wears stunning costumes with X-ray skirts.

The roller skate wizard, Beeman and Anderson, have a lively act that goes with a zip and a hum and gets big shares of applause. They are eccentric fellows, regular "dare-devils" on wheels. They complete the all-round tip-top bill that will run all the week at the Pantages.

Joe Welch, Hebrew comedian, is a great student of human nature and few foibles in his fellow men have escaped his keen observation. He discloses this and the sense of comedy in his headline act at the Empress this week. Joe ambles slowly along, looking like an animal, and signs for David Warfield's clothing store.

Nothing fits Joe but his smile, his delightful dialect and his teeth. He tells stories and makes pertinent comment on his entire surroundings to the neighbors. Joe pokes fun at fashions and derides the efforts of women to reduce avoirdupois and make themselves beautiful. The audience called him back three times and didn't want to let him go even then.

An act that offers loads of entertainment is offered by Sallie Sherman, a stunning brunette, who wears a gorgeous red gown. Miss Sherman sings and gives impersonations of an old lady and later of a mother with a new baby sitting for their photographs. Her impersonations are distinctly realistic. She has another number that pleases immensely when she appears as an Italian woman and sings about her folk. Miss Sherman possesses that most elusive thing, personality, and it pervades her work.

A most diverting sketch is presented by Etta Bryan, a clever little actress, with Roy Sumner and Lawrence Williams. The sketch is called "A College Proposition" and tells entertainingly of how a giggling little bride outwits her brilliant father-in-law, who would annul her marriage to his son. Miss Bryan acts with ease. The lines of the play are snappy and bright, the work of Edgar Allan Woolf.

A duo of real entertainers are Cooke and his good-looking son, Rother, in an extraordinary and eccentric act combining acrobatics and rapid-fire dancing.

Johnson and Deen are colored singers and dancers. Miss Deen has a tuneful, big voice, the two are smart and smiling, and their presentation gets over in great style.

An act that stands out for sheer merit is the foot-juggling achievement of Von Cello, a slim and dapper

See that tent at left-hand side of picture? That's the LAURELHURST CO.'S new Tract Office at E. 41st and Burnside streets, where you can always get full particulars of all houses and lots for sale or rent in LAURELHURST.

What Is Laurelhurst?

Why, it's the Addition of Beautiful Homes, located in the center of the East Side residence district and, although only four years old, it is the home of some twelve hundred of the best people in Portland. It has a thirty-one-acre natural scenic park right in its heart.

LAURELHURST is first in so many things that to list them would be a reflection on the rest of the city. Thirty-five new homes are now being erected in LAURELHURST. It's simply burning up with activity. Sixteen new homes are going up in the vicinity of our new Bungalow Block and are selling before completion. That's why we had to put an office down there to handle the visiting crowds.

WHY THIS BUILDING BOOM IN LAURELHURST? Because LAURELHURST is the leader in everything that stands for progressiveness and it is recognized as THE LEADER in the new type of homes we are erecting, which on sight simply take the people right off their feet, and because IT'S A WONDERFUL TIME TO BUILD RIGHT NOW. You can save hundreds of dollars on the price of labor and materials.

BE PROUD OF YOUR HOME. Let us assist you into a home you WILL BE proud of. We'll finance it for you and you can pay it back in monthly installments. We'll welcome a visit from you. WHY NOT TODAY? PAUL C. MURPHY, Sales Agent, 270 1/2 Stark Street. Main 1503, A 1515.
