

GERMANS CONTINUE ATTACKS ON CANAL

Determined Fighting on Eastern Bank of Yser Without Result in 36 Hours.

REST GIVEN TO CANADIANS

Destruction of Ypres Complete, Famous Cloth Hall Succumbing at Last—Germans Say They Have Captured Sixty-Three Guns.

LONDON, April 29.—"During the last 36 hours," says the Times correspondent in Northern France, "the Germans have attacked our lines east of the Yser Canal with redoubled violence in a last desperate attempt to gain a footing on the western banks. They expended their force in vain. The allies still hold firm on the western side. "The British now hold a new line of trenches north and northeast of Ypres. The Canadians, worn out by four days and nights of unceasing struggle, have been relieved and retired to the rear of our line for a much-needed rest. They retired covered with glory, but their ranks were sadly thinned. "Battle fiercest of whole war. "The second battle of Flanders was fought over a front of less than five miles and endured only five days, but the fighting probably has been more furious than on any other occasion since the war began. The Germans threw shells and high explosives into Ypres and covered with a curtain of fire every avenue through which our reinforcements might pass. "In this bombardment the destruction of Ypres has been completed. The famous Cloth Hall is gone and scarcely a house in the town is left standing. "The official reports issued today at Paris were both brief. Tonight's report said: "The day has been calm. During the night of April 28-29 two German attacks—the one against the Belgian troops to the north of Ypres and the other at Les Eperages—were easily repulsed. "Earlier in the day the following was issued: "In Belgium we have continued to progress in conjunction with Belgian troops in a northerly direction. On the right bank of the Yser Canal we took 150 prisoners as well as two machine guns. "There is nothing new on the heights of the Meuse nor in the Vosges. "Zeppelin Damaged by Artillery. "The enemy has been bombed by means of flying machines, and using incendiary shells, the open town of Epernay, occupied exclusively at that time by hospital detachments. "Definite information which has come to hand sets forth that the Zeppelin airship which eight days ago threw bombs on Dinant, was seriously damaged by our artillery. Finding it impossible to navigate further, the machine was wrecked in the trees between Bruges and Ghent. "Belgian military headquarters also issued a short summary of the situation saying: "Several points on our front, such as Ranscapelle, Pervyse, Lampernisse and Ouveperen, have been repeatedly bombed. The Belgian artillery has vigorously co-operated with the French in their attack against Steenstraete. Our aviators have shown great activity."

GERMANS SAY THEY HOLD GROUND.

The report of the German war office, received from Berlin by wireless, dealt with operations of yesterday. It said: "Our positions on the west bank of the canal north of Ypres and on the Yperlee Brook, near Steenstraete, were attacked yesterday without interruption but without success. East of the canal an attack by French, Algerians and British troops failed, with heavy losses to the enemy. The number of guns captured north of Ypres has been brought up to 63. "The enemy unsuccessfully exploded mines on the La Base-Bethune Railway, north of Les Mesnil in Champagne. At Les Mesnil French night attacks against positions which we had taken were repulsed with heavy losses to the enemy. French soldiers taken prisoners by us here were in a lamentable condition. They trembled with fear, as the officers told them they would be killed if captured by the Germans. "On the heights of the Meuse, south of Verdun, we held our positions forward some 100 metres and entrenched them."

BRITISH ACCOUNTS DENIED

German Says He Traveled in Territory Claimed by Enemy.

BERLIN, by wireless to Sayville, N. Y., April 29.—Wilhelm Scheffmann, a well-known German war correspondent, has sent the following report to his paper: "When one compares the German general staff report with that of the British, there is an irreconcilable difference. In my trips along the front by Neuve Chapelle and Givenchy, I have travelled much of the time in territory, which, according to reports and maps published in English newspapers, is in possession of the British troops, but in reality I did not see a single Englishman on the road, not even a prisoner. "Since the preceding day had been quiet, I entered upon the field of battle at a spot which, according to British representations, was part of the gain in the battle of Neuve Chapelle. According to British reports and maps the next village must be in British hands, but it did not look so; every house was flying the Bavarian flag, made by tearing the superfluous red stripes from the French tri-color."

FRANCIS JOSEPH WELL

Austrian Ruler Is in Better Health Than for Years.

VIENNA, April 15.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—Notwithstanding the labor and ceaseless anxieties caused by the war, Emperor Francis Joseph is said to be in better health and physical condition than for years past. He has gone through a trying winter without the least trace of a cough or cold, and his activity and enormous capacity for work astonish his Ministers and others brought in contact with him.

Rising every morning soon after 4 o'clock, the monarch, now in his 85th year, devotes practically the entire day to the affairs of state; examining and signing papers, or receiving high military officers who bring him the latest and fullest news of the progress of war; and Cabinet Ministers coming for instructions on matters of foreign or domestic policy.

Intervals for rest during the day are short. Only meals and a walk in the private garden, adjoining his apartments in the castle of Schoenbrunn, will draw the Emperor from his desk. His appetite is excellent, and for the first time in some years he is showing an interest in the menu, and frequently orders special dishes. Much to his disappointment, the court physician has ordered him to stop his visits to the wounded soldiers in the Vienna hospitals. But there was always the danger of the venerable ruler getting into a draught, or being overtaken by shower, and so it was deemed best to confine his outdoor goings to walking in the Kammergarten.

REPORTS STILL CONFLICT

BRITISH AND TURKS ASSERT ADVANTAGES IN GALLIPOOLI

Constantinople Says Landing Forces Have Been Driven Into Sea

London Claims Victory.

LONDON, April 29.—Reports from the Dardanelles continue to conflict. The War Office is silent, but a dispatch from Athens dated today says that fierce fighting throughout Wednesday on the shores of Suvla Bay, on the western side of the Gallipoli peninsula, 18 miles north of the southern extremity, resulted in the success of the allies. The losses of the Turks were serious, according to this report. One entire battalion was captured by the allies. Another dispatch says that the British have landed 80,000 men on Gallipoli Peninsula, while the French force is taking care of the Asiatic side. A dispatch from Constantinople, dated Tuesday, however, says: "The enemy, who last night near Kaba Tepeh, endeavored to maintain their position under cover of their ships, but early in the morning our troops stormed three positions and forced the enemy back along the whole front, inflicting severe losses on them. Part of the enemy fled in the direction of the sea and taking their boats disappeared. Those unable to escape raised the white flag and surrendered in masses. "A transport of the enemy was sunk off Avburn. "Later reports say hostile forces, estimated at four brigades, have been driven into the sea on the coast at Kaba Tepeh."

BUDAPEST, via London, April 29.—The Pester Lloyd prints a Dardanelles dispatch which says that the Turkish batteries at Kaba Tepeh sank 12 sloops in which the allies were landing corps which were retreating.

IRISH RECORD PROTEST

O'Brienites Vote 'No,' Nationalists and Unionists Abstain From Voting—Split Is First Since Beginning of War.

LONDON, April 29.—The proposals introduced in the House of Commons today by David Lloyd George, Chancellor of the Exchequer, to double the duty on spirits, quadruple the duties on wines and to institute an increase by graduated tax on beer—to encourage the use of lighter beers—were strongly opposed, and it is generally believed that the new taxes will have to be modified before Parliament will accept them. The O'Brienites, as a protest against an additional taxation on Irish whiskies and beers, brought about the first division in the House since the outbreak of the war by taking the unusual course of voting against the provisional resolutions bringing the taxes into force at once to prevent withdrawals from bond while Parliament is dealing with the matter. The resolution relating to spirits was adopted by a vote of 89 to 5, the minority composed of O'Brienites.

BERLIN, April 15.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press)—The great loan just brought out by the German government called out the small capitalists in numbers never heretofore heard of in the flotation of a public loan. When more than 2,600,000 Germans offered subscriptions of 2000 marks ($476) and less for the September loan, this was regarded as especially eloquent testimony to the participation of the small capitalists. Not less than 2,112,220 subscribers to it are taking amounts of $476 and less, and 452,930 of these made subscriptions of $48 or under. "The total number of subscribers to the loan was 2,631,996; and as the total amount of money subscribed was $2,157,000,000, the average subscription was $801.

When the time came to drive the Germans out of Flanders and France, he said, the expenditure of ammunition and other war material must be on a greater scale and of a more sustained character than anything yet witnessed in any war. "The Chancellor laid particular emphasis upon this remark for the benefit of those who might object to his present proposals. "These are necessary," he declared, "to insure victory; not ultimate victory, but victory soon without unnecessary loss of life."

Dealing with excessive drinking among those who remained in the House of the Exchequer remarked: "Everybody agreed on the existence of this evil until the remedies were foreshadowed."

Mr. Lloyd-George said also that the slackness in some British shipyards was causing serious anxiety to those in command of the fleet. "The Chancellor estimated that the double duty on spirits would yield the same revenue as heretofore, allowing for decreased consumption. Beer, he believed, would contribute £1,600,000 and wine £1,000,000 extra.

KAISER'S KIN ARRESTED

Three Other Germans in Canada Are Accused of Ypres Celebration.

VANCOUVER, B. C., April 29.—Four prominent German residents of Vancouver were arrested today charged with taking part last Sunday night with other Germans in a celebration of the German victory over Canadian troops at Ypres. The men detained are Paul Koop, capitalist; Baron von Luttwitz, a relative and intimate friend of the Kaiser; Dr. Otto Grunert and Frederick Stritzel. A long list of Vancouver men killed and wounded reached here Sunday night, and news of the celebration caused popular indignation. The Germans arrested declare they were merely having a housewarming, the party having been arranged several days previously. It is reported that the four will be sent to a detention camp for alien enemies at Nanaimo.
