

CHAMPOEG DAY HERE

Crowds Leave for Grove, Site of First Government.

GOVERNOR TO BE SPEAKER

Pioneers and Friends to Meet on Historic Grounds Where Talks Recalling Early Days Are to Be Made by Several.

Seventy-two years ago tomorrow the settlers of the Willamette Valley gathered in a grove on the banks of the Willamette River...

Today 1000 or more persons will gather on the banks of the river in the same grove of trees...

Governor to Be Speaker. P. H. Percy, of Astoria, will be president of the day and Governor Withycombe will be the principal speaker.

One of the principal features of the affair will be five-minute talks by pioneers and others. Everybody will have an opportunity to speak...

The original meeting was held May 2, 1843. A short time before a committee had been appointed to prepare a report on what was needed...

APARTMENT OWNERS MEET

United States Senator Weeks, of Massachusetts, will arrive in Portland Monday and will speak at the Chamber of Commerce...

ART SEEN IN DANCES

Exhibition by Youngsters is Declared Excellent.

GORGEOUS BOUQUETS GIVEN

Miss Edith Varney's Pupils Produce Many Different Styles of Dances, All of Which Win Admiration of Spectators.

GIFTED DANCER TO TAKE PART IN PRISONERS' AID BENEFIT TOMORROW.

BY GERTRUDE P. CORBETT. Without any doubt the exhibition given yesterday by Miss Edith Varney's pupils at the Eleventh-street Playhouse was one of the most artistic events of a similar nature ever given in this city.

So finished in every detail was performance that a dance by Miss Maud Ainsworth and Miss Katherine Laidlaw, the St. Denis Mazurka, danced in white satin skating costumes...

Work Declared Marvelous. It is difficult to describe all the children; they are marvelous in their interpretations. Baby Jane Friedlander easily was the piece de resistance among the younger children...

Of course, Mildred Keats, who is not only a beautiful child but a wonderful actress and dancer, was as near perfection in her interpretations of "The Joy of the Rose," the cycle of dances styled "Summer" and the dashing and spirited "La Chasse." Gene's famous hunting dance, as a professional.

Poling, are the guests of Rev. Mr. Poling, at his home in Ladd's Addition, for a visit of several weeks here. CHICAGO, April 30.—(Special.)—A. E. Clark, of Portland, is registered at the Congress.

DIVERS TO WIE ON BILL

ORPHEUM PLANS SPECIAL "STUNTS" FOR CLOSING WEEK.

"Ideal" to Lecture to Women on Value of Aquatics for Physical Development. Two of the "stunts" that will attend the closing of the Orpheum Theater next week will be diving contests between Portland amateur girls and boys.

Monday afternoon, "Ideal" will lecture to women on the value of swimming for physical development and will explain how to learn to swim.

JITNEY PETITIONS SIGNED

Referendum on Regulatory Ordinance Is Sought. Through the medium of paid circulators the jitney interests declare they have procured a sufficient number of signatures to have the referendum on the ordinance passed by the City Council April 2 providing for limited jitney regulation.

"CLEANUP" WORK BEGINS First-Street Business Houses Do Not Wait for May 4. Unwilling to wait until the official start of the clean-up campaign on May 4, merchants of first street are painting their stores and buildings so that section of the city will present a much improved appearance within a short time.

MAZAMAS TO CLIMB PEAK

One Hundred Leave Tonight for Trip to Table Mountain. One hundred Mazamas are planning to make the trip to Table Mountain, across the river from Cascade Locks, tomorrow. There will also be a side trip to the north and one down Greenleaf Canyon.

MRS. TACKELS BOUND OVER Woman Who Used Gun in Court Likely to Be Examined for Sanity. Mrs. Hazel Tackels, alias "Dolly St. Demis," whose gunplay in an attempt to shoot her divorced husband in Municipal Court Thursday resulted in wounding Mrs. Willametta McCloy, and a narrow escape for Judge Stevenson, was bound over to the grand jury yesterday on the charge of assault with a deadly weapon.

ST. JOHNS REPORT MADE

Value of Property Owned by City is Fixed at $100,000. A complete report of the property owned by the City of St. Johns has been prepared by R. E. Kremera, chief of the Municipal Bureau of Highways and Bridges of Portland, for the information of the people of Portland who will vote at the June election on the question of annexing St. Johns. A financial report is being prepared by City Auditor Barber.
