Even Ruin in Wake of Raid Into East Prussia Does Not Disguise Difference.

PEOPLE, TOO, ARE CHANGED

German Peasants Self-Respecting, Neighbors Across Line Servile. Desperate Nature of Combat Plainly Shown.

LYCK, East Prussia, April 10 .- (Cor respondence of the Associated Press.) The devastation and destruction that have been visited upon all of Eastern East Prussla cannot be more strikingly appreciated than by a trip from this little town to Crajevo, a few miles across the border.

The trip supplies a remarkable series of contrasts that are fundamental and far-reaching. Black is no more like white than this part of Germany is like far Western Russia from the standpoint of population, customs and the general appearance of the country. From Lyck to the border every home, without exception it is said, has been rified and partly or entirely torn down.
The broad, well-paved road is practically lined with the remnants of substantial buildings that in some cases, particularly in the border town of Prosiken, were once attractive.

Sharp Contrast Instantly Seen. Along the road, as along virtually every road of its kind in Germany, are shade trees—except where they have been cut down to allow of arti'lery fire. They are so universal that one gets used to them quite unconsciously, and immediately feels the lack when

The peasants, largely of the Polish type, appear to be self-respecting and pleasant. They greet the casual passerby much as the farmer in America mays "How do you do?" to the stranger along the road, but with the same tinge of equality in the greeting.

The once pleasant and prosperous country-side from Lyck to the border has been turned into a desert waste. In village after village there stand only the firm, substantial chimneys that even fire will not level to the ground. Almost without exception the remnants of the houses are of brick. Then one comes to the line and al-most in the time it takes to close one's eyes and open them again the scene changes so materially that one might be a hundred miles away.

People and Honses Changed. a building damaged. In their the houses proclaim the marked contrast. The brick has given way to thatched huts, low, one-story affairs that fairly reck with filth and

In the doorways stood, as an Assoclated Press correspondent made the trip recently, smirking, groveling peasants, who bowed almost to the ground again and again, as long as the automobile was in sight. They showed the same servility to the military everywhere in command of the situation, and were quite oblivious of the secondaria. were quite oblivious of the scorpful re ception of their abject salutations. As quickly as the character of the houses had changed, so had the trees vanished, and for thousands of yards stretched a bare, black road over which the automobiles made their way with

Lyck, Maggrabova and other little towns on the German side of the border but near the Russian line, had left much to be desired in the way of much to be described to describe the cite and general attractiveness, but as compared to Grajevo, when it finally was reached, they were models of beauty and sanitation. Only Hovels Line Market Place, the town together. In place of the familiar brick buildings, often of handsome construction, there lined the market nothing more pretentious than dirty

The desperateness with which the Russians have combated the Germans for every foot of the territory was plainly evident in rows upon rows of trenches, always when possible built at the top of rising ground, covered over with evergreen or other branches and made with cunningly-constructed loopholes. Rarely one saw a trench facing the other way—one that the Germans had had time to build hastily in the wight. in the night. For the most part the advance had been possible only by storming each separate height and by the Russians out of their strongholds.

NOTED THIEVES SENTENCED

Charles Williams and Annie Fergu son Jailed in London.

LONDON, April 30. — Charles Will-fams, described by the authorities of Scotland Yard as "one of the most dan-gerous men in America," and Annie Ferguson, who is supposed to be the wife of a nortorious bank thief named Gresson, were recently sentenced in the old Bailey Police Court to impris-oument for 12 and 10 years respectiveonment for 12 and 10 years, respectively, for robbing a London jeweler of gems worth $1800 ($8000).

According to the London police, they have evidence that Williams was ser tenced in Illinois in 1871 to five years' imprisonment for largeny; subsequently he served a three-year sentence for breaking into the postoffice at Springfield. Ill., and later he broke out of Jali in New York.

The police declare that Annie Ferguson, known in her earlier days as Annie Grant, was one of the most successful American thieves in London.

WIRELESS BUSY IN COURT

Judge Hearing Patent Case Gets Messages From Ships.

NEW YORK, April 27.—Judge Julius M. Mayer, in the United States District Court, listened recently to wire-less messages passing between New York and Philadelphia, and also in-therespited messages between the Say-ville and Seagirt stations and ships

The apparatus was put up in the couriroom to demonstrate the alleged similarity between the Fossenden patents operated by the National Signaling Company and the Telefunken patents now used by the Atlantic Communication Company, The National Signaling Company is suing the Atlantic Communication Company for infringement of patent rights.

CHRONOLOGY OF CHIEF EVENTS OF WAR TO DATE. PROGRESS OF THE PAST WEEK.

April 25-Allies land armies on both sides of Dardanelles. April 28-French cruiser Leon Gambetta sunk in Adriatic by Aus-

April 29-Germans invade Russian Baltic provinces. EARLIER EVENTS OF THE WAR.

mans order mobilization.

June 28, 1914 — Grand Duke Francis Ferdinand, heir to Austrian throne, and his wife assassinated in Sarajevo, Bosnia, as result of Pan-Slavic propaganda.

July 22—Austria sends ultimatum to Serbia; 28, Austria declares war on Serbia. Russia mobilizes against Austria; 29, Austria bombards Belgrade; 31, Germany demands that Russia demobilize, Belgians and Germans order mobilization.

August 1-Germany declares war on Russia; 3, German troops enter Belgium; 4, Great Britain sends ultimatum to Germany demanding re-Belgium; 4, Great Britain sends ultimatum to Germany demanding respect for Belgian neutrality; Germany declares war on France and Belgium; Great Britain declares state of war exists with Germany; 6, Austria declares war on Russia; 7, French enter Alsace; 10, France declares war on Austria; 12, Montenegro declares war on Austria; Great Britain announces state of war exists with Austria; 15, Japan sends ultimatum to Germany demanding that she withdraw ships and exacuate Klau-Chau, China; 17, Belgian capital moved to Antwerp; 29, Germany army enters Brussels; 23, Japan declares war on Germany; 25, Austria declares war on Japan; 28, British fleet victor in sea fight in Heligoland Bight, Germany losing cruisers and torpedo - boat destroyers.

stroyers.

September 5—Great Britain, France and Russia sign agreement to make no peace save together; 21, German submarine U-9 sinks British cruisers Cressy, Hogue and Aboukir in North Sea.

October 9—Antwerp capitulates to German forces; 17, four German destroyers sunk by British cruiser in North Sea; 20, Japanese occupy Ladronne Islands, in Pacific Ocean; 27, British super-dreadnought Audacious, third in tonnage and armament in British navy, sunk by torpedo or mine off north coast of Ireland; 31, Turks annex and invade Egypt; German submarine sinks British cruiser Hermes. Egypt: German submarine sinks British cruiser Hermes.

November 1—British squadron defeated by German fleet off Chilean coast; 3, Great Britain and France formally announce state of war with Turkey; 7, Tsing-Tau, German stronghold in China, falls; 10, German cruiser Emden destroyed by Australian cruiser Sydney; 26, British battleship Bulwark blown up and sunk near mouth of Thames from explosion of own magnitude. plosion of own magazine,

December 8-German commerce destroyers Scharnhorst, Gneisenau, Leipsic and Nurnberg destroyed off Falkland Islands by British fleet, Cruiser Dresden escapes; 16, German fleet raids east coast of England, Hartlepool, Scarborough and Whitby bombarded. January 1, 1915 — British battleship Formidable sunk in English Channel by German submarine; 19, German fleet of airships raid Sandringham and other cities in England: 24. German cruiser Bluecher sunk ringham and other cities in England: 24, German cruiser Bluecher sunk and three sister ships damaged trying to raid English coast.

February 12—British fleet of 24 aeroplanes raids German bases in Helgium; 18, German submarine blockade of British waters begins; 19, Great Britain justifies use of United States flag by British merchant vessels: United States steamer Wilhelmina taken into British prize court; 23, Kaiser and all Germans go on limited bread allowance; 25, Anglo-French fleet begins bombardment of Dardanelles forts; 26, Boers invade German Southwest Africa. invade German Southwest Africa.

March I—Great Britain declares absolute blockade; 4, allies' fleet bombards coast of Smyrna; Germans offer to recede from "war zone" policy if permitted to import food; 10, arrival at Newport News of German raider Prinz Eitel Friederich discloses she sank United States ship William P. Frye in South Atlantic January 28; 15, German cruiser Dresden sunk after attack by British squadron in Chilean harbor, Britain declares blockade against all shipping to and from Germany; 16, British liner flies American flag; 17, German Consul arrested at Seat-tle on charge of trying to buy submarine information, German cruiser Karlsruhe unofficialy reported sunk by hitting reef in December; 18, two British battleships and one French battleship sunk by mines while bombarding Dardanelles; 21, Zeppelins raid Paris; 22, Russians capture Przemysl, Galicia, and 120,000 Austrians; 24, members of German cruiser Emden's crew raid Dutch colony port; 28, American and 117 other passengers die when German submarine sinks British liner Falaba.

April 2—Great Britain establishes blockade against cablegrams regarding business of enemy nation; 4, Gifford Pinchot, special representative of United States in Belgium, expelled by Germans; United States refuses to admit right of British embargo on foodstuffs for Germany; 9, German note declares United States is lax in regard to neutrality; 11, German commerce raider Kronprinz Withelm slips into Newport News, Va., later interning; 13, Italy agrees to support Serbia's claims to outlet to sea; 14, German alreraft make three-day raid on English towns; 19, two Turkish destroyers sunk by Russian mines at entrance to Bosporus; 22, United States replies that Germines at entrance to Bosporus; 22, United States replies that German charges of lax neutrality are groundless.

had been distributed among dealers are ized Germans in England who are sumption is therefore made that Le Quex' book is suppressed in accordance PRISONER TO OBTAIN SECRETS.

Paper Used for Invisible Ink Found in

Kuepferle's Baggage, Employed

In Letters to Germans.

cerning the movements of transports

Dublin, Liverpool and Belfast are sai to be centers where he was active. H

Exchange of Compliments. Louisville Courier-Journal, our streets are like cowpaths, the man from Cincinnati.

said the man from Cincinnain. "Yours seem more like cinder paths," opined the man from Boston trusted by the authorities.

of all, the devastation has Not a house has been leveled KURDS TAKE SLAVES

Assyrian Inhabitants Carried Away Into Bondage.

RUSSIAN RETURN AWAITED

Smiling Gardens on Shores of Lake Urumiah Deserted-American at Presbyterian Mission Gives Protection to 17,000.

TIFLIS, Transcaucasia, March 27.-(Correspondence of the Associate Press.)—Many thousands of the Assy inhabitants of the country we The nearest approach to similarity of Lake Urumiah have had to flee bewas the inevitable market square, almost as big in size as all the rest of the town together. In place of the familiar brick hullding gardens on the lake shores. Now 000 are refugees in Russia and some 17,000 took refuge under the protec-tion of Dr. Harry P. Packard, of the American Presbyterian mission at

His successful efforts in their be half already have been told by cable His name will survive in Assyrian traditions. The members of the central com-mittee of the Assyrian or Chaldean Christians are awaiting only one thing, the return of the Russians, to endeavor the return of the Russians, to endeavor to reconstruct into a safe community this remnant of the ancient empire of Nineveh. The committeemen fled with their families. They can only hope today that some of their relatives will be returned to them from Kurdish enslavement. Those who did Kurdish enslavement. Those who did concerning the workings of the Gerand Dicharge of Supplying Germany with headquarters in the American Dicharge of ordinary 10 centime stamp for which one pays 15 centimes; the profits, which have already amounted to 60.000 francs, go to the Red Cross.

Then there is the King Albert issue, which is used on French soil from the headquarters at Havre, and the new concerning the workings of the Geroncerning the workings of the Geroncernin not escape or were not made slaves perished.

Merchants Once Prosperous.

The committeemen speak English fluently and were at one time prosperous merchants. This was before their little tribe was gripped by the cogs of the great war.

Until American missions were established in the Urumiah country, the Assyrians maintained their religious traditions by semi-annual reading from half a dozen cherished parchment new testaments, taking the additional precaution of requiring the more gifted youth to memorize the whole of their sacred literature.

With mission schools and hospitals, enlightenment and prosperity increased.

The committeemen speak English (Kuepferle's arrest was kept a secret nearly two months. Meantime it is reported that Scotland Yard men were using the prisoner's name as a means of communicating with German officials in Holland. In Kuepferle's hages sheets of paper used for invisible ink were found. Imitating Kuepferle's handwriting, the detectives are said to have written letters to German spy chiefs, between the lines of which they traced in invisible ink all sorts of questions asking further instructions. A rapid-fire correspondence is reported to have continued until Kuepferle's hages were using the prisoner's name as a means of communicating with German officials in Holland. In Kuepferle's hages were using the prisoner's name as a means of communicating with German officials in Holland. In Kuepferle's hages were using the prisoner's name as a means of communicating with German officials in Holland. In Kuepferle's hages were using the prisoner's name as a means of communicating with German officials in Holland. In Kuepferle's hages were using the prisoner's name as a means of communicating with German officials in Holland. In Kuepferle's hages were using the prisoner's name as a means of communicating with German officials in Holland. In Kuepferle's hages were using the prisoner's name as a means of communicating with German officials in Holland. In Kuepferle's hages were used for invisible ink were found. In the detectives are said to have enlightenment and prosperity increased.

The Assyrian villages were as famous for neatness and comfort as their gardens were for fertility. Further emping and reporting to Germany comcouragement and protection were brought by the Russians, who came Assyrians Take Russian Sides.

The Assyrians took sides with the Russians in the war, while the Mohammedans turned to the Turks and Germany. Organized and drilled by Russian officers, the Assyrians rendered valuable services by fortifying some of their villages and guarding the caravan roads to Urumiah. About 250 were regularly enlisted, the central committee supply the funds. Later 2000 or 1000 miles the was endeavoring to make the trip from the supply the funds. Later 2000 or 1000 miles the was endeavoring to make the trip from the bank jumped into an auto and went out to view the battlefield of the Moham they had only sunk way down in the family stocking of France and Belgium—both of which countries have a passion for tucking away gold and species in a handy and comfortingly near hid. regularly enlisted, the central commit-tee supply the funds. Later 2000 or 2000 volunteers were under arms and had some training. Toward the end of December the Russians and Assy-rians defeated a large body of Kurds, inflicting a loss estimated at 500. Fleeing before impending massacre 2000 of the Assyrians gathered at a strong village. Geograps, and held strong village, Geograpa, and held their ground five days with a loss

SPY 'EXPOSE' SUPPRESSED

War Office Puts Ban on "Britain's Deadly Peril," by Le Quex.

LONDON, April 15.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—At the order fringement of patent rights.

Sunburn, Tan and Preckies.

Prevented by timely use of Santiseptic, Instantly relieves sunburn. Chois, southes and heals skin, sec. All druggism Take it on your outings. 18

ACTIVITY IN PARIS

Apaches Again Begin to Profit by War's Opportunity to Reap Harvest.

SHIRKERS ARE NUMEROUS

France Again Considers Sequestration of Money of Enemy Aliens Deposited in Banks for Investment in Bonds.

BY CAROLYN WILSON. (Copyright, 1915, by the Chicago Tribune Published by arrangement,) PARIS, April 10. - As long as the dally papers were only one sheet, and would have given them courage to wait it was with difficulty that one comit was with difficulty that one compressed the news of the day into those two pages, you would have thought that Paris had turned into a model spotless reform town. There was never a whisper of a robbery, a murder, an in which they had been and in which assault, nothing about street rows or they had undoubtedly left the little quarrels, for the simple reason that bag.

All the while the man sat with his what may not be printed about the to a beggar. war, crime again fills the pages, and anyone attending the sessions notices what a large percentage of the criminals are Apaches, who are profiting by the war to give free vent to their bad instincts.

Napoleon's System Recalled. If you go up Montmartre way you notice scores of these fellows on the sidewalks, and they are all between terror and madness in that man's eyes, 18 and 40. The question naturally nor his unseeing gaze, nor his unlistensidewalks, and they are all between arises, why aren't they at the war? Why is it that when honest men fight rogues should remain at home?

Napoleon had a simple system for insuring order. Whenever any young fellows were arrested for making racket in the streets, the cafes, or the theaters, they were enrolled immediately in the army.

Of course, many of these Apaches are excused on physical defects, but the consells de revision could be par ticularly lenient with these infirmities and doubtless the discipline of the front would inspire them with such d been distributed among dealers are the dup and the publisher is enjoined to printing any more copies. This done through the defense of the turbance as usual.

There is still the continued discus Le Quex told in his advance notices message. He then complains that he took this information to the War Office, which merely sent a printed acknowledgement and did nothing in the way of selves, nevertheless it is necessary in estigation, that the censorship has the scheme of things.

Clemenceau has abandoned his excautioned newspapers against publishing articles likely to inflame the Germans and cause retaliatory measures against English interned in Germany. Furthermore, there are many naturalhortations to Holland to enter the fray for nearly a week now and has devoted problem of favoritism.

Sequestration of Funds Debated. Another hotly debated subject is whether the state has the right to go into banks and demand the money de posited there by German and Austria posited there by German and Austrian subjects prior to the war. Already from the system of sequestration which the government has been undertaking since November it is estimated that the state has reaped the neat little harvest of a milliard francs or $200,000.000 If it takes over the right to ex-amine the books of the banks throughout France for deposits by enemies it is thought that another milliard and a half could be used to buy bonds of the national defense.

Over here one of the fads of life is collecting stamps which particular-LONDON, April 14.—(Correspondence of the Associated Press.)—Anton Kuepferle, the American citizen of German birth who is held for trial on a Kuepferle, the American citizen of concerning the workings of the Ger-man spy system with headquarters in Holland. But perhaps the most interesting are those indicating annexation or sovereignty. I have three of the German stamps with the black sign across them, "Belgien," And, beter yet, I was most awfully lucky in getting nearly a hundred which were taken from the German possifice. German postoffice in Togoland have been stamped across, "T Anglo-French occupation."

People Collecting Odd Coins.

The man who helped loot the post-offices—I use the word "loot" only be-cause he did, with much glee—had jusome back from there, and told me al come back from there, and told me all about the attack, in which there were ten Englishmen, 300 Germans, and native troops from both sides. Unfortunately the native troops, both ran away in great quantities, and the ter Englishmen prevailed evidently through force of argument.

Along with stamps, people are col-lecting odd coins—coins which one thought had long disappeared. But they had only sunk way down in the family stocking of France and Belgium —both of which countries have a passion for tucking away gold and species and went out to view the battlefield of the Marne. He forgot to change his large bills, and when he wished to purchase a battlefield souvenir from a peasant who had returned to his nearly destroyed home he had nothing but a thousand franc note. "O. I can change it for you, mor

New England Mutual Life Insurance Co.

First in Strength, First in Liberality, First in Protecting the Widow.

First-for Three Decades. Horace Mecklem, General Agent

sieur," said the man simply, and withdrew to an inner foom, whence he emerged with a handful of bills and quite a little gold.

One of the odd pieces almost extinct that now circulates about Paris Is the little 20 centime piece of silver. It has not been seen around Paris for years, and it is the Belgians who have brought it with them, although there, too, it has not been generally in use for several years. Refugee's Loss Pitiful.

I suppose some of the poor people who fled in such a hurry had been collecting their little store of money decades. I remember such a pitiful—more such a horrible—experience I had when I was going to Marseilles in the Fall. The train was filled with refugees, who had but just come in from the north, and were being packed off as quickly to the hospitable south. There was a man—perhaps 60—with his daughter, a settled, sensible woman of 30, whose husband was fighting in the Belgian army. They had come from Tongres, fleeing by night, hiding by day, bringing with them only two small values with clothes and one with valises with clothes and one with money.

And when we had left Parls only about an hour it was discovered that the little bag which held the money and was supposed to be in one of the larger valises had been left in the train from which they had changed.

I have never seen such absolute despair in my life as was on that man's face. He was too old to earn any more, it was the desuit of saving for years. The 5000 francs—it was about 20 francs short of that sum, his daughter said—would have given them courage to wait

Man Goes Mad on Spot. There before our eyes that man went lowly mad. We did everything we slowly mad. We did everything we could. We telegraphed back to Paris, there was no space to print the police court news in,

Now that the papers have come back to their former size and that the censor is so industriously busy regulating give him for thus reducing his daughter

She must needs tell him calmly that it was all right, that they would certainly find it, that he was not to worry, that she could find work for both of them, and all the while the tears stood in her eyes and a line of worry that all her will power could not smooth out, wrinkled her forehead; for before many weeks were out she expected a child, and there would be one more to provide for vide for.

I shall never forget the increasing

We never saw them again ing air.

AUSTRIABUSYON BORDER

HEAVY ARTILLERY IS MOVING BY NIGHT TOWARD ITALY.

Regiments of Hungarians, Bosnians and Croats Command Passes and All Italiana Are Watched.

VENICE, Italy, via London, May 2,-A dispatch from Udine, Italy, reports active military preparations on the Le Quex told in his advance notices of alleged personal experiences to support his theory that the islands are honeycombed by German spies. In one case he tells of seeing a mysterious light in a lonely house on the east coast of England, where a German lived. He writes that he rigged up a flash light some distance away and, employing it one night when a light appeared in the German house, received in reply what was obviously a code message. He then complains that he light work seems pleasant appeared to the frontier consist of the frontier consist of the frontier and the probably will be until the end of the auxilian side of the frontier. Trains of heavy artillery, proceeding by night, are said to occupy commanding positions. Night traffic in the districts of Goritz, Gradisca, Monfalcone and Tolmelin, all in Austria, is prohibited without the bisiness side of the war, and, are consist chiefly of Hungarian, Bosnian and Croatian troops. These troops are Regiments proceeding to the frontier captain of the trawier was wounded consist chiefly of Hungarian, Bosnian in the foot, but the rest of the crew and Croatian troops, These troops are proceeding through all passes leading. The Barbados reports that the

The police are reported to be ported that in Goritz there is suitcled to provide the Barbados wheelihouse and funnel of the Barbados were riddled with shot.

BRITISH DESTROYER SUNK

(Continued From First Page.) Meanwhile the skipper of the steam drifter Rosevine, attracted by the noise of the gun of the submarine made an investigation, whereupon the submarine started to chase the Rose-vine.

The Rosevine sent up distress rockets and was proceeding toward the Scilly Islands when a patrol-boat, which previously had not been seen, owing to the foggy weather, appeared. Together the patrol-boat and the drifter went back toward the Europe, at which the submarine was still firing with her guns.

Shells Full Near Rescuers. Half a mile off from the Europe the Resevine picked up a boat loaded with members of the crew of the steamer. The work of rescue was interrupted by three shells from the submarine, which fell within 30 ards of the drifter Then, apparently alarmed at the ap

Clifford Carney, Organist. 10c - ANY SEAT - 10c

OPEN DAILY NOON TO 11 P. M.

TODAY — TUESDAY — WEDNESDAY

DOUBLE BILL

The Programme Which Attracted Greater Houses Yesterday Than

Olga Petrova

The Heart of a Painted Woman

PANTOMINE

Finished artists presenting in the flesh a sensational scene from the drama, "The Heart of a Painted Woman," which Immediately follows on the screen. Magnificent scenic effect. Special music

CHARLIE CHAPLIN

BY THE SEA

Latest comedy and equal to all the rest.

THE SORT OF GIRL FROM HEAVEN

Neat, clever drams, presenting the two best-loved stars in the moving picture world-Anita Stewart and Earl Williams.

Ever Seen in Portland in History of Moving Pictures.

pearance of the patrol-boat, the sub- to use a number of bricklayers and dispatch to Lloyds from Kilrush, Ire

Joe Roberts, Banjoist,

A boat containing nine survivors and the body of the captain of the steamer, who had been shot and killed, was rescued by a trawler and landed at rush. The trawler was unable to find the second boat of the Fulgent contain-ing the remainder of the crew.

TRAWLER DEFENDS HERSELF

The Barbados reports that the trawier Colombia was torpedoed and sunk with 17 hands. One survivor and one German bluejacket, who had fallen overboard ing for war by watching all Italians one German bluejacket, who had fallen living in the Trentino district, to be overboard, were brought to Yarmouth in readiness to place them in detention, by the Barbados, should hostilities begin. The population is becoming extremely nervous, against the torpedo-boat with two food is getting scarcer. It being resmall guns, and the captain says the Augustu

WOMAN ROUTS BURGLAR

Thief Hurled From Window and Water Poured on Him.

STAMFORD, Conn., April 27.—J burgiar climbed up to the window o the guest chamber in Judge John E Keeler's home on Strawberry Hill. New York woman, whose name was withheld, occupied the room, She awoke when the robber had half his body inside the open window, shoved him out of the window and hurled a water pitcher after him. Then she became hysterical. The burglar es-Chehalis Cannery Work On.

CHEHALIS, Wash., May 2.—(Special.)—Construction work on the new fruit and vegetable cannery at Chehalis will be in full swing tomorrow. the foundation work and other prelim being practically completed William Nelson, who is foreman of the bricklaying, says that he will be able marine torpedeed the Europe, which disappeared in a cloud of steam and coal dust.

The British steamer Fulgent was sunk by a German submarine northwest of the Skellig Rocks in the dark of Saturday morning, according to a dispatch to Lioude for the struction of the plant this week has been most satisfactory to the management.

Judge Does Not Blame Husband for Wrecking Furniture.

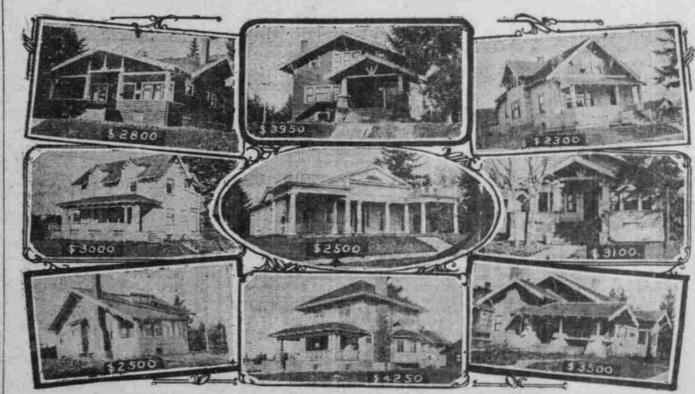

WILMINGTON, Del., April 27. - T e Briton After Escape Reports Submarine Evidently Was Hit.

YARMOUTH, England, May 3.—The trawler Barbados arrived here in a damaged condition as the result of an encounter with a German torpedo-boat off the Belgian coast on Saturday. The captain of the trawler was wounded in the foot, but the rest of the craw escaped unbust. fact his wife put salt in his coffee saved Jacenty Blystack, a native of "They did what?" asked Judge Churchman in surprise.

When the testimony was repeated the judge settled back in his chair in a way that showed his sympathy for the husband. He adjourned the case with a statement that if the police surgeon pronounces Blystack same he will be

ROSE CITY PARK BARGAINS

NOTE THE PRICES!

Corner 4th and Stark.

Easy Terms

Let Us Take You Out

Main 268 and A 2086. Evenings, Tabor 3105.