Where the Teams Play Today.

Portland at San Francisco, Oakland at Salt Lake, Venice at Los Angeles.

BY ROSCOE FAWCETT.

Early form and early spirit considered, Los Angeles at last appears to have a ball club that will stand the pace down the long grind pennantward. Year after year the Angels have been rising up in April and May with the championship aspect, only to pull up like a world-weary man selling tripe when exposed to the mid-season blows of old Doc Adversity.

But this year the Angels appear to be right for a high-pressure campaign even down into September and October. Indeed, it will surprise a lot of the supposedly wise ones if Dillon's crew is not up around the first or second notch at the showdown.

Only those clubs, as a general rule, can hold out through the qualifying rounds that get strong pitching. With the addition of Southpaw Scoggins, of Lincoln, Dillon has a first-class flinging corps. At least five of his squad are topnotchers—Southpaws Love and Scoggins and Right-handers Ryan, Hughes and Perritt. Lefty Burns has kicked in with a few goods games and he may surprise somebody, although we cannot figure him in the role of a Summer's sensation.

Ehmke Gives Setback in 1914.

Ehmke's midseason fizzling was a serious setback to the Angels last year, so, if Scoggins holds up as he has started, the Seraphs ought to be stronger in the box than in 1914. Add to this the superfine work of Terry at short and McMullen at second, and it is easy to figure the Cafeterians somewhere near the top of the heap in October.

Buemiller at third base is also an improvement over Metzger, if results of the recent series on the home lot are worth anything. Buemiller hit .333 in the six games, and ranks second only to Terry in the matter of driving in runs. Terry belted five over the plate, Buemiller four and Harry Wolter three. McMullen's bat average for the week was .400, Terry's .286 and Buemiller's .333. Ernie Johnson was a nifty little shortpatcher, but "Buemiller-Terry-McMullen" looks a lot better to us around on the far side of the infield than the "Metzger-Johnson-Page" arrangement of one year ago.

Beavers Show Improvement.

Last week's performing in the Coast League brought forth little of the elements of surprise. Portland showed some slight improvement by breaking even with the Angels three games apiece. San Francisco demonstrated its avowed class by beating the Salt Lake sluggers four out of six, one going to a tie, and Venice trimmed Oakland three out of five.

That San Francisco and Salt Lake could each use another 18-karat twirler is the belief in ball circles. Fanning's great exhibition Sunday morning proves that he has a few good games in his right wing yet. If Hub Pernoll will only follow suit, the Seals will look a little better.

Portland's twirling crew is not yet right and unless Bobby Keefe comes through and absorbs considerable of the burden on his spare frame it is barely possible that Walter McCredie will have to bolster, along with the Bees and Seals and Tigers. The new recruits, Leonard and Coveleskie, have shown flashes of real pelting, but it takes more than flashes to win pennants.

Leonard May Be World-Beater.

If Leonard could only keep that underhand ball of his below the belt line all the time, he would be a world-beater in this or any other league. Perhaps he will be able to do so later on in the year, for he has always been noted as being a late starter. Coveleskie has as much natural stuff as any pitcher in the league. Give the young Pole a change of pace and he need not wander around in the brush west of the Rockies.

No man can look at any young ball pitcher and tell you what he's going to do, so we will turn the drop of these two youngsters for the time being and let the future speak for them. Leonard was not taken South with the Beavers, Murphy being given his berth at the last moment; so we'll have to wait for a few weeks before passing final verdict on the big auburn-thatched heaver.

So far as Portland's usual cellar-start is concerned, the whole kit and caboodle of fans have settled upon the reasons for the fall-down. As near as we gather, the pitching staff is decrepit and senile, the infield is weak and the outfield needs four shots of turpentine.

All Agree About Catchers.

For a wonder, everybody seems agreed that Mack has two remarkable catchers in Fisher and Carisch.

The standing of the clubs gives the lugubrious ones an edge on any kind of an argument at this stage of the race, but the Beavers really aren't a bad ball club. If Portland had boasted a hard-hitting third baseman in the lineup, just one new man, we venture to say the club would be in the first division today. Unfortunately Doane, Lober, Coltrin and Davis all nursed their slumps at the same time and the result could hardly be other than disastrous.

Lober drove in only one run in the entire three weeks at home this last trip. Last week, however, he began belting the ball for fair, with an average or .385. Bobby Davis whacked in four runs for an average of .353. Doane hit only .231 in the week, but he boosted four runs across the pan, giving him eight for the fortnight.

Derrick and Stumpf Valuable.

The two most valuable men to the club so far have been Fred Derrick at first base and Bill Stumpf at second. As pinch-hitters these two stand head and shoulders above anything on McCredie's payroll. Here are the three weeks' figures showing the number of runs driven home by each Beaver: Derrick 14, Stumpf 11, Doane 8, Fisher 6, Speas 5, Davis 5, Carisch 2, Lush 2, Lober 1, Kircher 1, Krause 1, Coltrin 1, Higginbotham 1, Evans 1.

Speas is not among the leaders as a run-maker, but Bill is making up for it in other departments of play. He is showing more pep and hustle than any man on the club. Two weeks ago, against lame-armed Salt Lake outfielders, Bill stretched six singles into doubles in the series.

If Mack had nine Speases he wouldn't have to sit up nights worrying himself out of hair and home.

FISHERMEN'S LUCK CHANGES

Parties Find Few Bite on Last Day of Visit to Streams.

VANCOUVER, Wash., May 3.—(Special.)—Fishermen from Vancouver, who went out Friday night and Saturday, returning today, say that fishing was good Saturday, but was not good Sunday. George B. Simpson, City Attorney, got the limit of 50 on the Big Washougal yesterday. Frank M. Troeh, the expert trap shooter of this city, landed 34 on Burnt Bridge Creek Saturday, but Sunday he got but eight on Salmon Creek. Arthur J. Dorland, Dr. R. J. Mercer and O. M. Hidden, who went on the Little Washougal, got 71 yesterday. Many automobiles from Portland also brought fishing parties to streams in Clarke County.

Kelso Track Team Victorious.

KELSO, Wash., May 3.—(Special.)—The Kelso High School track team downed Kalama High School Saturday in a dual meet by a score of 88 to 33, winning every event except the shotput and the discus-throw. Bozarth, Oyster and Leichhardt were high point-winners for Kelso. The Cowlitz County track meet will take place next Saturday at Woodland.

Herzog and Rigler Fined.

ST. LOUIS, May 3.—Manager Herzog, of the Cincinnati Nationals, and Umpire Rigler, of the National League, were each fined $5 and costs in police court here today for fighting at the St. Louis-Cincinnati game Saturday. The fines were remitted on payment of costs. Neither Herzog nor Rigler appeared in court.

Wilsonville to Have Team.

WILSONVILLE, Or., May 3.—Wilsonville is to have a fast baseball team this season. The opening game is to be next Sunday. Several players who tried out with professional teams but were turned back for more seasoning have been signed to play for Wilsonville.

CUBS BEAT PIRATES

Stormy Game Is Sixth One in Row Won by Chicago.

UMPIRE BANISHES CLARKE

Pitcher Pierce Expelled for Throwing Bat at Cooper—Pittsburg Accused of Delaying Play Hoping for Rain.

CHICAGO, May 3.—Chicago won its sixth straight victory today, defeating Pittsburg, 5 to 1, in a game shortened to five innings by rain and punctuated by arguments between players and umpires. Home runs by Hinchman and Saier produced the first scores, and fast base running, a few hits and Cooper's wild pitch gave Chicago four in the third.

Thereafter the visitors, Manager Bresnahan charged, strove to delay the game so that the threatening rain would fall before the legal four and one-half innings could be played. Manager Clarke, of the visitors, was expelled following Umpire Byron's demand that his team cease dilatory tactics, and Pitcher Pierce, of the Cubs, was ousted for throwing his bat at Cooper, who, he thought, tried to hit him with the ball. Boston tied the score in the seventh on Daubert's wild throw and Maranville's single. Successive triples by Cutshaw and Myers and an out gave Brooklyn the winning runs in its half of the seventh. City League Notes.

The shakeup in City League circles is just about due. The three weeks' play on the sand lots didn't help the league any and lost it a number of good players. When the teams get back to Vaughn street next Sunday most of them will look considerably different than they did at their last appearance. The Piedmont Maroons is the only club that has not made numerous changes in the lineup. Ed Kennedy in the outfield will be the only new face in the lineup. The big ex-Coast Leaguer is having a great time with the Maroons. He is the Germany Schafer of the squad.

Persistent reports that Bill Healis is to resign the management of the Sellwood club are being heard.

* * *

A good deal of horseplay was pulled on the Sellwood diamond Sunday that no doubt will evoke the ire of President Maurice Whitehead when called to his attention.

* * *

The diamond at Piedmont across from Peninsula Park will be fenced and equipped with a grandstand before the teams finish their three weeks' setto at Recreation Park.

A goodly number of fans are not familiar with the price charged by the City League. An admission fee of 25 cents admitting to the grandstand is charged for the Sunday double-headers. This is cut-rate prices if the teams put up the brand of ball they did the last time at Recreation Park.

Hank Aiken was out of the Sellwood lineup Sunday with an injured digit. Hank works in a machine shop and had the misfortune to have the end of his forefinger on his right hand clipped off Saturday.

Claude Schmeer, manager of the East Side club, intends to have a petition circulated asking that the grounds at East Twelfth and Davis streets be inclosed. He declares that he can get all the signers necessary.

A Thoroughbred

THE Stork has visited the Chalmers dealer. He left a real, live, little beauty.

It is full of "pep" and personality.

It is more than "a chip off the old block."

Although it shows a marked family resemblance, it has a different type of texture and a finer physical frame.

It has a full high forehead, a long rangy body and a running gear that is bound to set a new world's record in the cross country class.

You can see it without charge or take it home for $1400.

This is the lowest price ever fixed on Chalmers Quality.

REGULARS LOSE PLACES AFTER WALLOPING BY AGGIES.

Bezdek Recruits Players From Inter-Fraternity League and Shifts All Men in Efforts to Win.

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, Eugene, May 3.—(Special.)—There is a mighty shift taking place in the baseball world at the Oregon campus this week. Coach Hugo Bezdek is about as changeable with the personnel of his varsity ball team as is Spring weather on the Pacific Coast. Not one "regular" has a place cinched from now on, and, to use the phrase of the lemon-yellow mentor, "They have got to show some class before a reinstatement takes place."

Never in the history of athletics has the Oregon team been so severely walloped by Agricultural College. Saturday's defeat was a climax to Friday's disaster, 20 to 7. The Eugene fans are gasping yet.

From the ranks of the Interfraternity League, Coach Bezdek is recruiting players. Dave Philbin has jumped the Sigma Nus and is working nicely behind the bat. The big boy looks good, bats well and might possibly serve in a regular capacity the remainder of the season.

Lyle Bigbee will take a fling at first. Cornell will migrate to shortstop, a "Skeeter" Bigbee is stationed at third and Morris Bigbee still remains at second. This is the juggle by which Bezdek hopes to win ball games.

A piker frequently saves money by it.
