MRS. LOUIS JAMES ACCORDED HON-ORS FOR CLEVER SKETCH.

Among Other Good Numbers, Portland Boy's Performance Wins Applause of Andlence.

The Empress management was more The Empress management was more than generous when it arranged this week's bill. Every number is good and there's plenty of variety.

Topping the list is a delightful little comedy in which Mrs. Louis James, the gifted young widow of the celebrated Shakespearean actor, is the star. The plot cleverly unwound reveals the eternal triangle and one woman's way of plot cleverly unwould remain's way of nai triangle and one woman's way of solving the problem. an act that is so designified the addi-ence didn't want it ever to end is of-fered by Josie McIntyre, a laughing, pretty maid, and Bob Harty, who is pretty maid, and Bob Harty, who is well and hearty. He is fat and wears queer clothes. She is pretty and wears a smart frock. Both sing beautifully. Best of all, they are natural comedians. Their act is a dandy. Rose Garden looks like her name and sings pleasingly. She is a joyous creature, too, and fetches laughs. Opening the bill is a corking good number, an athletic, acrobatic, balancing, tumbling diversion that for sheer novelty cantures the cake Dalty. elty captures the cake. Delton, Mareena and Delton present it and it is one of the fine, fresh acts of the bill.
