Mrs. Taft's Sister Is Bride of Rich Widower of Rhode Island.

WASHINGTON, April 30.—The marriage of United States Senator Henry F. Lippit, of Rhode Island, and Mrs. Thomas K. Laughlin, of Pittsburg, a Winter resident of Washington, took place recently in the home of the bride, 1622 N street. Rev Roland Cotton Smith, rector of St. John's Church, performed the ceremony, in the presence of a few members of the two families. The guests included the bride's two sons, William and Tommy, Jr., 5 and 11 years old; her brother, William C, Herron, of the Department of Justice, and

Mrs. Herron; Miss Marie Herron, of Cincinnati, sister of the bride; Miss Helen Taft, niece of the bride; Henry F. Lippitt and Miss Frances Lippitt, son and daughter of the bridegroom, and Mrs. George R. Sennickson, of ST. LOUIS, May 2.-Mrs. Nellie Redmon, a widow, of 4490 Laclede avenue lost confidence in banks when she lost several hundred dollars in a failure.

Also she became dubious of real estate investments as a result of a deal in Kansas City which cost her a con-siderable sum of money.

So she kept her savings in a tobacco sack, which she wore pinned inside of her dress. Then

She sold the dress to a second-hand dealer for $1.50, forgetting that the sack containing $140 was pinned to it.

After the second-hand man had departed Mrs. Redmon recalled the money and reported the matter to the police, who have been unable to find him. Mrs. Redmon said that the sack con tained all the money that she had saved up during the last five years from the allowance which her married daughter gives her.

What Our Reputation

Means to You

Remember, first, last and always, this organization builds better homes for less money than can be acquired by any other means. Its homes are fully guaranteed.

WHY IS THAT STATEMENT ABSOLUTELY LIVED

UP TO? Because it is to our interest, from a selfish standpoint, to build the best homes for the money possible.

This is a Portland enterprise. Its investments and interests are here. Future success depends upon present fulfillment of contract, just as the many calls we are receiving today for homes is a direct result of the complete satisfaction of the more than 50 home-owners for whom

We sell on terms—yes, like rent—though many of our homes have been built for cash. Either method is exactly the same. The man who pays cash gets no better home than he who pays like rent. A $2000 or any other priced

The manager of this school is R. J. Prowell, who is recognized for his ability in this line of work. Mr. Prowell has become one of the many boosters found in Portland for Akoz, the wonderful California medicinal mineral. He says in the following letter that the remedy corrected a bad case of stomach trouble: "I have spent hundreds of dollars."

writes Mr. Prowell, "In the past five years, on remedies of all kinds, trying to get rid of stomach trouble. I got no relief until I began using Akoz, and now I am feeling fine, and heartily recommend the remedy for stomac trouble. I have taken Akoz but a little over a month at this writing."

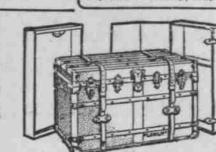

Akoz is not a patent medicine nor a manufactured article. It is a natural mineral product free from any poisonous or harmful ingredients. The internal treatment is pleasant to take. Thousands in the Northwest have found Akoz effective in treating rheumatism, stomach, liver, kidney and bladder trouble, piles, catarrh, ulcers, cusema, skin disease and other ail-ments.
