Schaller Distinguishes Himself by Making Brace of Homers in 8-1 Game.

SEALS BUSY FROM START

Portland's Scoring Is Confined to Opener When Speas Tallies on Boot by Corhan-Krause Is Reached in 5 Frames.

Yesterday's Results.

Los Angeles Los Angeles 6, Venice Salt Lake Sale Lake 6, Oakland I. SAN FRANCISCO, May 7 .- (Special.)

Spider Baum pitched himself into a 8-to-1 victory today, a sort of come-back after two wretched starts. He inning, when he was somewhat up in the air, the enemy couldn't begin to touch his service.

Somebody said it was Biff Schaller's birthday. It must have been something of the sort, for the Chicago lad started off with a single to right, then put the ball over the fence on two occasions, waiked on his fourth trip to the plate, and finally, in the ninth, forced a runner at second, the only fly in his ointment.

Portland scoring was somewhat up in the first of Portland. Del Baker, an Oregon boy, caught the game for Detroit. Buker broke in with Spokane a couple of years ago and after drifting over to the Union Association and Western League landed last season with Detroit. He appears to have made good with a vengeance.

VANCOUVER BEATS SPOKANE of the plate, and finally in the ninth. Game Goes 11 Innings and Coltrin in his ointment.

Portland's scoring was confined to the first inning. With Derrick out, Speas singled to center and reached second on a wild pitch. Bates doubled to center and Speas was finally tallied as Corhan booted Stumpt's grounder. Bates Caught; Stumpf Nipped.

Bates, rounding third, was caught off honors the cushion and Stumpf was nipped twirler, trying to steal. The Seals got busy in the opener and stayed right with Krause for five satisfying chapters. Mitze grounded out to Devrick, but Schaller hit to left and took another base on Speas' bad throw. Schmidt's single to center drove in Schaller and the catcher was assisted around the bags as Heilmann crashed one against the right field fence.

Lewis was chased out of the grounded for disputing decisions. Score:

Schaller Puts Ball Over Fence. In the fourth, with two down, Fitz-gerald hit safely while Schaller put the ball over the fence for his second time of the afternoon.

The fifth inning saw the last of the scoring. Heilmann started off with a drive through the box to center. Jones scratched into a hit. Trying to get away from a ball, his bat struck the sphere and it bounced over the pitcher's head, just out of reach. Meloan's smash to first that Derrick came close to turning into a double play was merely an out that sent the two runners ahead.

Leard scored one man with a clout past Bates at third, while Corhan's sacrifice fly to left gave Jones a tally. Thereafter all was peaceful. The score:

four trips for the New York Yanks yesterday. Boston beat the Yanks 5-3. In this same game Chet Thomas, former Sacramento backstop, secured three hits for Boston. Thomas went up to the majors about three years ago. Ham Hyatt, of Northwestern League fame, did not connect as pinch hitter for Pittsburg yesterday against St. Louis, but the Pirates won, anyway.

Bobby Keefe appears to possess the real stuff. Twice Walter McCredio has sent him out as relief twirler and both times he has stopped the batting instantly, and it is a tough job checking the hits when they begin coming in droves.
