"THE HEART OF MARYLAND" IS ELABORATE PRODUCTION

SCENE FROM FILM THAT WILL BE SHOWN AT NATIONAL THE-ATER NEXT SUNDAY.

The Hippodrome, the largest theater in America, located in New York, was converted into a motion-picture house by the Tiffany Motion Picture Corporation to produce the film production of "The Heart of Maryland," which is to be shown at the National Theater in Portland, beginning Sunday, May 16. This film is in many ways the most remarkable ever produced in the United States. Mrs. Leslie Carter and other prominent actors appear in the east, making the production from the standpoint of acting one of the finest films lately released. More than 5000 people participate in the piny.

Seven tons of gunpowder, 2500 explosive shells, 1000 infantrymen, 400 cavalrymen, 28 cannon, 15 mortars, and innumerable other war material, much of which was destroyed in the action, was called into service in staging the play.

The total expense of producing "The Heart of Maryland" is estimated at something more than $100,000.
