SAN FRANCISCO, May 11.—Although the addition of Bill Rodgers to the Portland squad threatened to bring the Sortland squad inreatened to brig the Seavers above the 18-man limit fixed y Fresident Baum of the Pacific Coast .cague, Walter McCredic tonight made way for Rodgers by releasing Rodney furphy, infielder, recently obtained rom New Orleans, to the Aberdeen,

Wash, club, Rodgers is sure of his berth at sec-and base, just as soon as he can don a Portland uniform. McCredie declares that Stumpf will be shifted to shortetop and that Bates will hold his job at third. This gives the club two util-ity infleiders, but from present indicais both Reed and Davis will be re-

Reed Good For Utility. "Reed can play the outfield as well as the infield," said the Portland manager today. "It may happen we will have six infielders right through the season. I am still at a loss to understand why Rodgers was turned back. He's a great ballplayer and, of course, will strengthen our club a lot. I don't know just when he can be expected." Speas will lose the captaincy with he return of Rodgers. McCredie makes o bones of his high opinion of Rodgers a leader and said the appointment would be shifted. Club Satisfies McCredie.

Incidentally, McCredie let it be isfied with his club as it stands now.

"I knew in the Spring we had a weak club," he said. "I knew that kircher wouldn't do, just as I realized that Coltrin wouldn't hit enough for this league.
