Bert. Jr., delegate.

Conferences with educational leaders have been held all along the route from the East to the West and the distinguished women have been entertained by leaders in child welfare work, which is the distinctive aim of the National Congress of Mothers. The slogan of the organization is "Save the bables. Safeguard the boys and girls. Give to youth higher ideals of marriage and home making. Educate the father. Train the mother and ennoble the home."

Big Programme Ready Today.

Meetings of the National and Portland hoards, luncheon at the Benson and an auto ride will occupy today. The convention will be called to order promptly at 8 o'clock tonight. The general topic of the convention will be "Child Welfare in Home, Church, School and State."

Mrs. Schoff has been connected with the National organization since it was founded. For five years she was vice-president and since that time has been National president. Contrary to a theory found among those not informed on Congress of Mothers work, the leaders in the movement are nearly all mothers and many of them have large families, so have a right to be termed "mothers."

Mrs. Schoff has seven children and 11 grandchildren. Mrs. Robert Tate, the honorary president of the Oregon Congress of Mothers and one of the National vice-presidents; Mrs. Aristene Felts, president of the state organization, and others who are leaders in the work are devoted mothers.

DEFENDANT CHARGES PLOT

Albert Grossneck Avers Mrs. Ogan Used Charms So Husband Could Sue; Crowd Misses Court's Joke About Horse.

A crowd that packed the courtroom resterday listened to testimony in the $29,000 suit brought by Wyman Ogan against Albert Grossneck for alleged alienation of Mrs. Ogan's affections. The case is being tried before Circuit Judge Gantenbein. The hearing was the first in the suit, and in its course charges and counter-charges were

Mr. Ogan charges that between January 1, 1914, and the present date Mr. Grossneck has gradually won his wife away from him, and that he does not away from him, and that he does not dare to go home.

Mr. Grossneck and his attorney. Charles J. Schnabel, in their defense, aver that Mr. and Mrs. Ogan have "framed up" on Grossneck, who is reputed to have some money. They charge that Mrs. Ogan used her feminine charms deliberately to win Mr. Grossneck's affections in order that Mr. Ogan might sue. Ogan might sue.

Defendant is Milkman.

Mr. Grossneck is a milkman and delivered milk to the Ogan home. He used to come while Mr. Ogan was away, it is charged, and in that way he became acquainted with Mrs. Ogan.

Mrs. Cecilia Marshall. who has watched the Ogan home to get evidence, testified that she saw Mr. Grossneck stop his wagon in front of the Ogan house and go inside. He stayed a long time, said Mrs. Marshall, so long that his horse got tired of waiting, and walked away.

"Are-you sure his herse walked away because it was tired?" asked Attorney Boon Cason, representing Ogan. "Yes; he'd been standing still a long time" was the answer.

"How did he act that you knew he must be tired?" persisted the attorey. "Oh, he walked like it." Call Horse, Court Suggests.

This line of questioning with the horse as a subject continued so long that Judge Gantenbein got tired.

"Why don't you call the horse as a witness if you have to know so much about him," said the court.

Somebody snickered a little. Then the courtroom resumed its customary quietude. The Judge still had the floor.

"If you asked the horse a question

"If you asked the horse a question his answer would probably be 'neigh." continued the Judge without a smile.
His honor dodged, but it was unnecessary. Jurors, lawyers, spectators and clerks wore only an expression of pain on their faces.

Sick Women

Reliable evidence is abundant that women are constantly being restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

The many testimonial letters that we are continually publishing in the newspapers-hundreds of them-are all genuine, true and unsolicited expressions of heartfelt gratitude for the freedom from suffering that has come to these women solely through the use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Money could not buy nor any kind of influence obtain such recommendations; you may depend upon it that any testimonial we publish is honest and true—if you have any doubt of this write to the women whose true names and addresses are always given, and learn for yourself.

Read this one from Mrs. Waters:

CAMDEN, N.J.—"I was sick for two years with nervous spells, and my kidneys were affected. I had a doctor all the time and used a galvanic battery, but nothing did me any good. I was not able to go to bed, but spent my time on a couch or in a sleeping-chair, and soon became almost a skeleton. Finally my doctor went away for his health, and my husband heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and got me some. In two months I got relief and now I am like a new woman and am at my usual weight. I recommend your medicine to every one and so does my husband."—Mrs. Tillie Waters, 530 Mechanic Street, Camden, N.J.

From Hanover, Penn.

HANOVER, PA.—"I was a very weak woman and suffered from bearing down pains and backache. I had been married over four years and had no children, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. proved an excellent remedy for it made me a well woman. After taking a few bottles my pains disappeared, and we now have one of the finest boy babies you ever saw."—Mrs. C. A. RICKRODE, R.F.D., No. 5, Hanover, Pa.

Now answer this question if you can. Why should a woman continue to suffer without first giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial? You know that it has saved many others-why should it fail in your case?

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for fe-male ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this fa-mous medicine made from roots and herbs, it has restored so many suffering women to health.
