HERZIG'S LITTLE RIGLER
Rigler, who is one of the huskiest of the National League umpires, and who keeps himself in condition in the winter by playing baseball and football, said Herzog stepped on his toes and cut him with his spikes. "Cherlie is naturally active with his hands and feet when arguing and he may have hopped on the umpire's 'dogs'."

Harvard Boys Fight Slang.
They do say that the Harvard boys are trying to eliminate slang from their conversation on the diamond, cutting out the "B" words and "C" words. "Keep a workin'!" is the reform slogan in organized baseball. All of the boys are going to be practically tongue-tied.

Donovan Holds Onto Spikes.
One day, shortly after "Bill" Donovan had arrived in New York to manage the Yankees, I met him in his clubhouse at the Metropolitan Hotel. He was putting on a pair of baseball shoes that were decorated with a pitching plate.

STOCK MARKET
Uncertainty Over Diplomatic Conditions Is Factor.
OPERATORS ARE CAUTIOUS
Undertone of Market Is Heavy and Speculation Is in Hands of Professional Element—War Speculations Make Best Showing.

NEW YORK, May 12.—Heaviness, resulting almost wholly from latest aspects in international affairs, attended today's unusually dull stock market. Prices moved up and down according to the caprices of the market, but the financial district was once again the scene of a number of losses. The undertone of the market was heavy and speculation in hands of professional element—war speculations made best showing.
