Five Hundred Lives Lost When Goliath Is Destroyed in Dardanelles.

SULTAN LOSES 3 VESSELS

Submarine Penetrates Straits to Sea of Marmora and Sinks Two Gunboats and Large Transport to Bottom.

LONDON, May 13.—Another British battleship, the Goliath, has been sunk by Turkish destroyers in the Dardanelles, probably losing their lives, the Admiralty announced in the House of Commons today.

Winston Spencer Churchill added that two Turkish gunboats and a large transport had been sunk in the Sea of Marmora by a British submarine, which succeeded in penetrating the Dardanelles. The Admiralty report says:

"The Goliath was torpedoed last night in a torpedo attack by destroyers, while protecting the French flank just inside the straits.

"Twenty officers and 160 men were saved, which, I fear, means that more than 500 were lost.

"The Admiral commanding at the Dardanelles also telegraphs that the submarine E-14, which with so much daring penetrated through the Dardanelles to the Sea of Marmora, has reported that she sank two Turkish gunboats and a large Turkish transport."

"The Goliath, completed in 1900, was one of the older British battleships of the pre-dreadnought type, and of 12,550 tons. She was armed with four 12-inch rifles and 12 six-inch, and besides her secondary armament, had ten torpedo tubes. She had a speed of 18.25 knots, was 400 feet long on the waterline and of 74 feet beam.

"The Goliath cost $2,364,054 to build. Her ordinary complement of men was 750.

FLEET ENTERS DARDANELLES

Turks Threaten to Send Subjects of Allies into Battle Zone.

PARIS, May 13.—A Havas dispatch from Athens says:

"An allied fleet re-entered the Dardanelles last night and bombarded the forts at Kilit Bahr, Chanak Kalesi and Nagara. The bombardment was interrupted at 8 o'clock, but was resumed three hours later and is being continued.

"Although the Turks have been strongly reinforced, the bombardment from allied warships is causing them heavy losses, and they are steadily losing ground. Turkish trenches are filled with bodies."

males of this class should, for their own safety and that of the country, be segregated and interned. If over the military age they should be repatriated.

"The government realizes there may be cases calling for exceptional treatment. Women and children in suitable cases should be repatriated, but there no doubt will be many cases in which justice and humanity will require that they be allowed to remain.

Judicial Body Provided For.

"An official body, judicial in character, will be set up to deal with claims for exemption, and as soon as the military and naval authorities have provided the necessary accommodations, those who have not secured exemption will be interned.

"In the case of naturalized aliens, who in law are British subjects, numbering about 8000, the prima facie presumption should be the other way, but exceptional cases of the advising body will be specially dealt with. There must be powers of internment in cases of proved necessity or danger."

Premier Deplores Outbursts.

What was going on over the country, the Premier said, was not the method of a sane and sober people. The people had great provocation, he said, but he deplored the outbursts of vindictiveness which he told his hearers were a dishonor to the name of the country.

Commoner Thorne interposing that some newspapers had incited the people, Mr. Asquith replied:

"More shame to those papers."

Richmond Circle Meeting Postponed.

The regular monthly meeting of the Richmond Parent-Teacher Circle will be postponed one week to May 21 on account of the national convention of the Mothers' Congress and Parent-Teacher Association, now being held in the city. The election of officers will be held at the May 21 meeting.

FIRM STAND TAKEN BY WILSON IN DEMANDS MADE ON GERMANY

lieve—it cannot now bring itself to believe—that these acts, so absolutely contrary to the rules, the practices and the spirit of modern warfare, could have the countenance or sanction of that great government.

Frank Purpose Avowed.

"It feels it to be its duty, therefore, to address the imperial German government concerning them with the utmost frankness and in the earnest hope that it is not mistaken in expecting action on the part of the imperial German government which will correct the unfortunate impressions which have been created and vindicate once more the position of that government with regard to the sacred freedom of the seas.

"The Government of the United States has been apprised that the imperial German government considered themselves to be obliged by the extraordinary circumstances of the present war, and the measures adopted by their adversaries in seeking to cut Germany off from all commerce, to adopt methods of retaliation which go much beyond the ordinary methods of warfare at sea, in the proclamation of a war zone from which they have warned neutral ships to keep away.

This Government has already taken occasion to inform the imperial government that it cannot admit the adoption of such measures or such a warning of danger to operate as in any degree an abbreviation of the rights of American shipmasters or of American citizens bound on lawful errands as passengers on merchant ships of belligerent nationality, and that it must hold the imperial German government to a strict accountability for any infringement of those rights, intentional or incidental.

Right Believed Unquestioned.

"It does not understand the imperial German government to question those rights. It assumes, on the contrary, that the imperial German government accept, as of course, the rule that the lives of non-combatants, whether they be of neutral citizenship or citizens of any of the nations at war, cannot lawfully or rightfully be put in jeopardy by the capture or destruction of an unarmed merchantman, and recognizes also, as all other nations do, the obligation to take the usual precautions of visit and search to ascertain whether a suspected merchantman is in fact of belligerent nationality or is in fact carrying contraband of war under a neutral flag.

Time for Minimum Safety Refused.

"These facts, it is understood, the imperial German government frankly admit. We are informed that in the instances of which we have spoken time enough for even that poor measure of safety was not given, and in at least two of the cases cited not so much as a warning was received. Manifestly submarines cannot be used against merchantmen, as the last few weeks have shown, without an inevitable violation of many sacred principles of justice and humanity.

"American citizens act within their indisputable rights in taking their ships and in traveling wherever their legitimate business calls them upon the high seas, and exercise those rights in what should be the well-justified confidence that their lives will not be endangered by acts done in clear violation of universally acknowledged international obligation, and certainly in the confidence that their own Government will sustain them in the exercise of their rights.

"There was recently published in the newspapers of the United States, I regret to inform the imperial government, a formal warning purporting to come from the imperial German Embassy at Washington, addressed to the people of the United States, and stating in effect that any citizen of the United States who exercised his right of free travel upon the seas would do so at his peril if his journey should take him within the zone of waters within which the imperial German navy was using submarines against the commerce of Great Britain and France, notwithstanding the respectful but very earnest protest of his Government, the Government of the United States.

"I do not refer to this for the purpose of calling the attention of the imperial German government at this time to the surprising irregularity of a communication from the Imperial German Embassy at Washington addressed to the people of the United States through the newspapers, but only for the purpose of pointing out that no warning that an unlawful and inhuman act would be committed can possibly be accepted as an excuse or palliation for that act or as an abatement of the responsibility for its commission.

"Long acquainted as this Government has been with the character of the imperial German government and with the high principles of equity by which they have in the past been actuated and guided, the Government of the United States cannot believe that the commanders of the vessels which committed these acts of lawlessness did so except under a misapprehension of the orders issued by the German naval authorities. It takes it for granted that, at least within the practical possibilities of every such case, the commanders even of submarines were expected to do nothing that would involve the lives of non-combatants or the safety of neutral ships, even at the cost of failing of their object of capture or destruction. It confidently expects, therefore, that the imperial German government will disavow the acts of which the Government of the United States complains, that they will make reparation so far as reparation is possible for injuries which are without measure and that they will take immediate steps to prevent the recurrence of anything so obviously subversive of the principles of warfare for which the imperial German government has in the past so wisely and so firmly contended.

Prompt, Enlightened Action Expected.

"The Government and people of the United States look to the imperial German government for just and prompt and enlightened action in this vital matter with the greater confidence because the United States and Germany are bound together not only by special ties of friendship but also by the explicit stipulations of the treaty of 1828 between the United States and the Kingdom of Prussia.

"Expressions of regret and offers of reparation in case of the destruction of neutral ships sunk by mistake, while they may satisfy international obligations, if no loss of life results, cannot justify or excuse a practice the natural and necessary effect of which is to subject neutral nations and neutral persons to new and immeasurable risks.

"The imperial German government will not expect the Government of the United States to omit any word or any act necessary to the performance of its sacred duty of maintaining the rights of the United States and its citizens and of safeguarding their free exercise and enjoyment."

"BRYAN."

PARIS, May 13.—The Temps, discussing a cable forecast of the American note to Germany, says that it is firm in tone and leaves no doubt of the position of the United States.

"The President, without mental reservation, has responded to the appeal of his conscience and the voice of his people," the Temps continues. "The President of the American Republic is an eminent jurist, with firm views as to justice and humanity. The United States has at heart the justification of its position as a great country and also wishes to count among the great contemporary naval powers. These are sentiments which inspired the President, who at the same time proclaims that the United States should give an example of peace for a sublime influence in the world. Condolences and explanations have not influenced the President's high idea of justice."
