SEARCH for a real live goat for use on unsuspecting candidates who have volunteered to join the Elks at Salem tonight led Arthur Buchman, a member of the Portland lodge, through a series of stuporous and exciting performances yesterday, and ended in nothing but disappointment and dismay.

THE PORTLAND ELKS will leave on a special train over the Southern Pacific at 6 o'clock tonight, and some of the boys at the clubrooms thought it would be a good idea to corral a good, hard-hitting, fence-busting he-goat somewhere and take him along for use in the business and the initiation ceremonies, which the Portland officers are going to stage for the benefit of the Salem unit.

So they delegated Arthur Buchman to hunt up the goat. He hunted around all the livery stables and the back alleys and in all the other places where goats proverbially and habitually dwell, but his hunt was in vain. So he took to advertising in the papers. That is where his friends got in their trencherous work. They began answering the
