SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., May 16 .-(Special.)-The Oaks nosed across the wire an 8 to 7 winner this morning, after one of the most exciting finishes seen this season. Oakland won in the afternoon 4 to 2 and made a clean sweep for the series. At the start of the minth inning in the morning the score was 6 to 4 in favor of the Christianites and the trans-bay fans were beginling to file toward the exits. Hillyard brought them back to their seats by singling to center on the first ball pitched and Prough was trotted out to relieve Boxo. Fisher the first ball pitched and Prough was trotted out to relieve Bove. Fisher followed Hillyard's lead, but Lober forced the centerfielder at third and Stumpf popped out to Marcan.

Just to show that the game was not over yet. Davis singled to right to score Fisher. Doane, batting for Coveleskie, banged a hard one at Litschi, who threw wild to first and before the ball was recovered Lober and Davis had spiked the plate.

Oaks Finish Strong. Luck rather broke against Portland in the afternoon, when Oakland won again 4 to 2.

The session was tied for the first The session was teed for the tirst time in the third. Mundorf whistled a liner through in the infield to center and was sacrificed by Middleton, who put the ball to Krause. Johnston's out to short advanced his teammate to third and Mundy came along home as Ness singled into right.

Johnston's Hit Ties Score. The last of the seventh saw the Oaks out in front for the first time. Johnston laced a two-bagger into left field and was baosted along by Ness' infield out. Elliot worked the squeeze not only to taily Johnston, but to get a hit for himself.

hit for himself. In the eighth Speas poked a ball at Marcan, who juggled. Bates rapped over short field into left and the pair advanced on a passed ball for Rowdy. Then Klawitter cut loose with a wild pitch and Speas was home. Hillyard was walked, while Carisch filed to Middleton in center. Middleton in center.

Middleton in center.

The windup came in the last of the same session. Krause hit Litschi and Klawitter sacrificed to the pitcher. Marcan rapped against the right-field fence and secred Litschi. The Oaks' second baseman took second on the play and when Mundorf grounded out the hit and running Mar.
