Miss Ethelyn Miller, candidate for Festival Queen, nominated by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Grand Army of the Republic, withdrew from the race yesterday, cutting the lead down to a trial of actively competitors.

Sybil Baker, the candidate of the Woodmen of the World and Women of Woodcraft, still maintains her big lead over all other candidates, and at the final count last night had a total of 323,560 votes, as against 275,990 for Miss Marian Rose Spoori, candidate for the Ad and Rotary Clubs, who was second in the race.

FUN RULES AT EMPRESS

TRAVESTY ON WOMAN SUFFRAGE IS ROLICKING COMEDY.

Maude Tiffany Scores With Soldier Songs, Music, Repertee and Aerobatics Adding Success.

For entertaining purposes only is the Empress bill this week, built for laughs and getting them unreservedly. Franklyn Ardell, late of the Orpheum circuit, outlines the bill under the travesty on woman suffrage that has seen the light of vaudeville.

Ardell is a rollicking comedian with a telling personality and odd little touches of taking his audience into the "janitor's" child. Earl Taylor plays Ethel's accompaniments and together they have a dandy little act.

A quick change of costumes is made by Bert von Klein, who, with Grace Gibson, "Hollywood's" famous and biggest hits as dancers. The opening act is by Nolan and Nolan, who have been in the line of their line and whose work is meritorious.

MRS. CODY IS WITH CIRCUS

Wife of Indian Fighter Laughs at Perils Experienced.

"A not on the programme" is coming with Buffalo Bill when the plainsman arrives in Portland with the Seils-Floto circus and Buffalo Bill's Original Wild West, Monday and Tuesday. Mrs. L. M. Cody and her husband, William Frederick Cody, the wife of Buffalo Bill, and she is taking the trip with her husband this year "just for the fun of the thing."

Many a fight with Indians has Mrs. Cody seen. Many an adventure has she known in the days when she was young. Dancers have been here—but she laughs at those things.

"Why shouldn't I?" she asks. "Here I am, strong and healthy and still whole. Why should a person worry about a few little things that happened years ago?"

The King of Yellowhead was one of Buffalo Bill's biggest achievements, and so that his wife might know that he had performed the deed, plainsmanlike, he sent her the Indian scalp. It reached her on her birthday, and according to Mrs. Cody, she didn't eat an enjoyable meal for a week.

Most men wouldn't do a thing if they didn't need the coin.

In the Name of Humanity Will You Help These Little Children?

There are millions of little ones of tender years in Poland, Serbia, Belgium and Montenegro who are innocent victims of the ravages of war. There are thousands of little children to whom fresh air, proper food and medicine would mean actual life itself, and whilst there are many charitable institutions created to provide these wants, they are yet inadequate to cope with the situation.

The "KHAKI" Magazine of Imperial House, Kingsway, London, has been requested to make an appeal on behalf of these little ones, so it is now asking you to help in whatever way you can, as this Fund will be under the supervision of trained and scientific people, and will co-operate with various organizations throughout the fighting countries in order to afford immediate relief to the little sufferers. This appeal is made to you irrespective of what your personal feelings are about this War, because it is made on behalf of those who are in no way responsible for it, and, consequently, they deserve to be helped.

All subscriptions, unless otherwise requested, will be duly acknowledged in this paper on June 15th, 1915. When "Khaki" was founded, amongst those who gave their warmest support to the work "Khaki" had undertaken were the following:

- The Duke of Wellington, K. G. Viscount Bryce

Rheumatic Fever. Surrenders to Anti-Kamnia Tablets. In the treatment of Rheumatic Fever, many physicians employ purgatives, but Dr. M. P. Creed thinks that a mild laxative is best. When the patient is bilious he gives calomel in small doses, one-fifth of a grain every hour until a grain has been taken. Then after four hours he gives the patient a half ounce of citrate of magnesia, with syrup of lemon to disguise the taste, or he gives the bowels open with the mild laxative "Actoal." The diet should be light, and all starchy food should be excluded as far as possible from the diet.
