THE MORNING OREGONIAN. THURSDAY. MAY 20, 1915.

to speak on "War Brides."

HARMING individuality character- POPULAR MATRON WHO RECENTLY ENTERTAINED COTERIE CLUB.

L ised the marriage of Miss Jean-nette Bell Thomas and Leigh Hackley Smith last night. The ceremony was solemnized in St. Mark's Episcopal Church at 8:30 o'clock, Father J. E. H. Simpson officiating. The service at St. Mark's is more elab-The service at St. Mark's is more elab-orate and solemn than the regular Episcopal marriage service and the bridal party was unusually attractive. The chancel of the church was decked artistically with long, graceful spikes of white snapdragon, huge white peonies and feathery ferns. Archibald Wright, organist of St. Mark's, played the wedding march. The church was the wedding march. The church was thronged with a fashionable assem-blage, many of whom wore handsome biage, many of whom wore handsome evening tollettes. The bride, who is a beautiful and graceful girl, was most attractive in a filmy, silvery frock. It was made an-kle length, the foundation being cloth of silver, with plaitings of fine net over it and embelite ments of exquisite sil-ver laces. Her wall size had a con-

10

it and embellishments of exquisite sil-ver laces. Her vall also had a con-ventional 'design of silver thread around the edges and was arranged simply on her colffure, fastened with a tiny wreath of orange blossoms. Her bouquet was an exquisite shower of mardenias and illies of the valley. Miss Helen Smith, sister of the bride-groom, was maid of honor and was also charming in an adorable frock of lav-ender and pink tulle over pale pink satin. It suggested the 1830 period, with its ruffied skirt of plaited tulle and quaint tight bodice, and was worn with a large hat of the pink maline, trimmed with a flat wreath of pastel pink flowers. Her bouquet was also a shower of Killarney roses and or-chids.

chids. Little Priscilla House, in a fluffy white net frock with pink bows, a gar-land of pink rosebuds in her hair and carrying a basket of Cecil Bruner

George P. Stanley acted as best man and the ushers were Howard Charlton, Richard Christle, J. Ross Fargo, How-ard Ross, Hughes Barnard and Warren Noble

At the conclusion of the impressive ceremony a small reception followed at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Ellsworth Thomas, to and Mrs. Warren Ellsworth Thomas, to which only close friends and relatives were asked. The house was a bower of beautiful blossoms. Mr. and Mrs. Thymas received with the bridal party, the latter being ad-mired in a handsome gown of cham-pagne-colored satin, covered with an Armenian drape of black net with iri-descent sequins of brown, green and blue tones. The skirt was fashioned in the three-tier model, the flounces being of the black net. Her bouquet was of orchids and ferms.

Mrs. William V. Dolph and Mrs. William H. Earton, Jr., were stationed at the bunchbow! It was a source of much regret to Mr, and Mrs. Smith that the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Barbour Smith, were unable to attend the cere-mony, owing to Mrs. Smith will visit parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leigh Later Smith, were unable to attend the cere-mony, owing to Mrs. Smith's Illness, However, Mr. and Mrs. Smith will visit them in Muskegon en route to New York. They will first pass a few weeks in San Francisco and other points in California and probably will go East via Portland after a brief visit with Mr. and Mrs. Thomas. The engagement of the much-feted young couple was announced early in the most popular and charming of the younger girls and, although she has from Portland, she is in demand at all social functions in the smart set. Since

For the benefit of a scholarship fund, and unappetizing flavor of all "over-of past officers of the California State Federation of Women's Clubs, will give a dinner tonight in the Bellevue Hotel, San Francisco, with Mrz. E. G. Dennis-tin as toastmistress. Among the speak-ers will be: Mrs. Percy V. Penny-backer, Mrs. Lillian Pray Paimer, Mrs. Robert J. Burdette, Mrs. Kate Waller Barrett, Mrs. Andrew W. Francisco, Mrs. C. F. Edson, Mrs. James W. Orr, Mrs. Emily Hoppin, Mrs. A. F. Jones Mrs. William E. Coby, Mrs. George F. Rheinhardt, Mrs. A. A. Goddard and Miss Jeasica Lee Briggs. Mrs. Pennybacker is attending the

Mrs. Pennybacker is attending the convention of the California Clubs. She will be in Portland next wek.

Mrs. Frank Rodman will entertain the Autumn Leaf 500 Club this after-noon at her home on West Park street. Last week Mrs. Dan W. Morehouse en-tertained the club, Mrs. Harry Bennet winning highest honors.

The Psychology Club, Circle 21, of which Dr. Lora H. Diamond is presi-

Johnnie Quackles Goes Hunting.

"W HERE are you going, Johnnie?" Gresham Woman, Formerly Resident morning as Johnnie Quackies was waddling slyly away from the pond toward a hole under the fence at the back of the barn.

began to shoot again and then she

CALENDAR FOR TODAY

Society.

Tea for Miss Maude Bateman this afternoon by Mrs. Medford

Dinner for Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Wagner tonight, at Waverly Country Club.

Pythian Sisters' card party this

Jewish Endeavor Society bene-

Card party at St. Clair's parish

evening at Knights of Pythias fit dance this evening. Hote! Ben-this evening, Parish Hall. G. N. C. E. Girls' shirtwalst party this evening Cotillion Hall.

Redd.

Johnnie did not answer. He slid under the fence and was soon out of wife of Eugene L. Thorpe, is ill at and election; 2 o'clock, psycholocy lec-ture; 3 o'clock, literature; Mrs. J. D. Spencer, unanimously re-elected chair-man, presiding, and Dr. C. H. Chapman Ver Budger", War Budger", then she heard it When Mamie heard the faint quack groan she stopped; then she heard it again, and this time she was sure it was Johnnie; he was in trouble and

But Mamie was cautious; she did not run out from cover; instead she kept under the bushes, but went in the di-rection from where the quack groan After having served the Hawthorn After naving served the fished have a served and a served and fished as a served and a served and a served and a served and a served a served and a served a

Then she called very softly, "Johnnie, Johnnie Quackles," and a faint "Here were: Secretary, Mrs. E. J. Hadley; treasurer, Miss Hamilton, of the fac-ulty; social service chairman, Mrs. E. Johnson, L. M. Lepper gave a talk after the election and essays were read by Francis Wilson, Charles Meyers, Howard Oswald, James Steward, Helen over behind the rock," came back the Mamie looked around, and seeing none of the Bear family in sight, waddied over to the rock as fast as she could, and there, tied by one leg and

Howard Oswald, James Steward, Heinh McCausland, Pearl Marr, Walter Wild-ing, Ruth Clelland, Lloyd Davis, Gladys Cattleman, Edward Durham, Alice Abbott, Mabel Meyers, Mabel Parish, Cecll McKercher, Donald Ben-nett and Lloyd Bass. Prizes will be awarded for the best hanging from a bush, was poor Johnnie Quackles, hardly able to quack. Mamie tried to reach with her hill the string that held him, but it was too high. Then she rolled a stone over to the bush and stood on that and began

picking with her bill at the string and in a minute Johnnie fell all in a heap on the ground. Mamie began fanning him with a big essay at the next meeting, June 2, when the new officers will be installed. At a suffrage convention held re-

leaf and in a few minutes Johnnie opened one eys and after a while the other, and looked about in a dazed At a suffrage convention held te-cently in Nashville, Tenn., Professor Josephine Hammond's morality play, "Everywoman's Road," was given as a pageant and was witnessed by about 16,000 persons, who gave it the highest manner. "Can you walk?" asked Mamle. "We better get away from here or Johnnie

19,000 persons, who gave it the highest praise. The play will be produced here June 2 for the General Federation Council at the Heilig Theater. In Bos-ton, where "Everywoman's Road" was presented, the press notices spoke of it in the highest terms. The students of Reed are to appear in the morality, assisted by professionals and singers. Miss Hammond is superintending the costuming. The richest silks will be used in many of the costumes to give a mellowness of coloring. The Down-and-Out Club, composed of past officers of the California State Federation of Women's Clubs, will give

MARYLAND GOVERNOR DUE

Mayo Methot, Guest on Trip East, to Greet Executive Sunday.

Mayo Methot will return the com- The folds with a lower of beauting bioscome.
Mr. and Mrs. Thomas received with an analysic covered with analysic covered with analysic covered with analysic covered with analysic covered to be setting and and there black net. Here bounded there are analysic covered with and ferms.
Fragmant pink and with gives a situer test is collar covered with and there are analysic covered to be setter nonghit in the analysic covered to be setter nonghit in the analysic covered to be setter nonghit in the analysic covered to analysic covered to be analysic covered to be analysic covered to be analysic covered to the setter covered to be analysic covered to the se liments of Governor Goldsborough, of Buckman Parent - Teacher Associa-tion will meet at 2:45 o'clock today for the election of officers and to discuss plans for the participation of the Buckman pupils in the Rose Festival parade. A special meeting of the Thompson Parent-Teacher Circle will be held this afternoon at 2:38 to complete the pro-gramme of the last meeting. A round table will be conducted by Mrs. Blanchard.

The visitors will leave Portland a 11 o'clock Monday. Governor Withycombe will be on th

aception committee here

MRS. IDA M. THORPE ILL of Portland, Is Near Death.

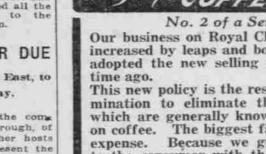

Royal Club Food Prod-

MONEY BACK IF NOT

SATISFIED

LANGACO.

the announcement of her engagement both she and Mr. Smith have been ex-tensively feled.

On Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. M. Eby, 192 East Twentieth street, a surprise shower was given for her daughter, Miss M. Eby, and L. M. Robinson, whose wedding is to be an event of the near future. Refreshments were served and the bride-to-be was show-ered with many attractive gifts. Forty-eight guests were present.

St. Clare's parish, Capitol Hill, will hold its regular card party this even-ing. Friends are invited. Playing commces at 8:15 o'clock.

Miss Myrtle Miller left Saturday on the Northern Pacific for San Francisco to be the guest of her cousin, Mra, dough may be put back into the lard George W. Forsythe, and friends of pail and then the original amount of that city for several months.

Gamma Phi Beta will hold its regular monthly meeting on Friday at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Mar-guerite Sheehy, 413 East Tenth street.

The Pythian Sisters will give a 500 arty Thursday evening at the Knights f. Pythias Hall, Eleventh and Alder streets. Everybody is welcome.

Miss Gwendolen Smith arrived from Stanford University to pass the Sum-mer with her parents, Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Smith, of Irvington. Miss Smith will spend a part of her vacation at Yellowstone Park.

Miss Mary Starkweather and Miss Bestrice Doty have returned from the University of California to spend the Summer at their homes. Gamma Phi Beta alumnae will hold its resultar mostble meeting to be the its regular monthly meeting tomorrow afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Marguerite Sheehy, 413 East Tenth street North.

Mrs. C. C. Shay is planning an enter-tainment for the old people of the Mann Home, on Sandy boulevard, for Saturday night. The programme will consist of dances by the pupils of Miss Laura Shay, assisted by Miss Corinne Buck in readings and Miss Zenarian Blue planist.

Several solo dances will be given by Several solo dances will be given by the Misses Phyllis Walker, Margaret McCulloch, Willetha Ritter, Helen Rit-ter, Corinne Buck, Nellie Hubbard, Marion Buechel, Winona Flanders, Zenarian Blue, Helen Zigler, Winnie Crowthers, Edith Bader. Winnie Crowthers and Frances Drake will be the sullor's hornpipe, as-sisted by 14 other children. Dorothy Lyons, Willetha Ritter, Elmi Rasmussen, Roger Shay, the colo-nial minuet.

nini minuet.

Miss Laura Shay will dance a beau tiful creation of her own, "Night," and Mrs. James Roberte and Miss Frieda Evans will give Spanish and scarf

The modern society steps will be shown by Clyde Beals and Miss Laura

The girls participating in the Indian dances are the Misses Lenore Blassing, Jean Donald, Phyllis Walker, Margaret Scott, Florence Huntress, Marcella Scott, Plorence Huntress, Ma Whitaker and Josephine Torrey.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd S. Lawson (Mary T. Catlin) are being showered with congratulations upon the arrival of a son, who has been named Catlin Lloyd

The regular monthly meeting of the Wisconson Society will be held Thurs-day night at Cotillion Hall for the an-bread, I am sending you my recipe, will thanks for much help received from you i the past. MRS. H. H. C. MANY thanks for the recipe. Sour Dough Biscuit-Mix a large pailful of medium batter of flour and water, adding one tablespoon of sugar.

solt, one teaspoonful lard and enough flour to make soft dough. Grease the pan, drop the dough into the pan with spoon and turn over in the grease (greasing on both sides). Allow to raise until about double in bulk and bake. The reserved half cup of sour double may have not back into the lard the latter may be used over again in a few hours.

The exact amount of soda depends on at the sourness of the dough.

PORTIAND, Or .- Can you tell me what h wrong with the following recipe, which used because it was the only one I could

 "WATCH-YOUR-STEP" GOWN IS INTRODUCED HERE

Ethel Arnold.

Portland modistes are interestweek in the "Watchthis Your-Step" gown, the first one seen in the city and which was brought by Ethel Arnold who is appearing at Pantages this week with Earl Taylor. Miss Arnold consented to pose for one of the exclusive dress designers here, as the dress was the creation of Mrs. Vernon Castle The dress has a girdle at the bust, ao waist line, and the skirt flares out with a mass of that soft.

shimmery stuff so dear to the feminine heart. The design is one that is becoming popular in the East, where Mrs. Castle has brought it to the front. Not only was the gown created by Mrs. Castle but the noted dancer also bestowed the name. ---------------------- cream is very sour. Sift the soda and cream of tartar with the flour. Use alf the above quantities for a small cake. If a less sweet cake is liked use only one and one-quarter cups sugar. All measures level. You will find Miss Farmer's Boston cook book a helpful and practical one mented and become sour. Pour out about one-half cup of sour dough and add one teaspoonful of soda to the dough in pail, one-half teaspoonful of Library. You can look it over and then huy a copy for yourself if it meets your needs. Mrs. Hill's "Practical Cooking and Serving" is also good and is ob-tainable in the Public Library.

THE May issue of the General Federation Magazine contains an outline of the programme for the council meeting to be held here May 31 to June 3. Nation-wide information regarding Portland is given to the club-women of the country through the ef-forts that have been made to adver-tise the coming gathering. A cordial welcome to clubwomen from Oregon's federated club president, Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, occupies a conspicuous place in the moregine the magazine.

ne magazine. New York City is already busy with gun, "He isn't hurt after all," thought "He isn't hurt after all," thought again.

with its officers pictured. North Yakima, Wash, has an article in which it is termed the cleanest city in the United States. Six pages in me," she thought, and crept up under all tell of our neighboring state's en- the bushes as she thought of it. When she was quite near, as she terprise. An interesting account is given of the campaign started in New York for a new hotel for working girls. This is the way the original hotel was started by the clubwomen: In 1909 the City Federation Hotel Company, made up of dity clubwomen, rented a large private house at 452

Mamie's breath almost stopped, for she felt sure Johnnie Quackles had fallen into the hands of Johnnie Bear rented a large private house at 462 West Twenty-second street. The build-ing was remodeled and many convenand that had been the end of him. Mamie kept very still until Bear iences added. Friends donated differ-ent pieces of furinture and household linens. Different clubs furnished sep-arate rooms, one furnishing the parlor, another the library and another the dining-room. Others furnished separate bedrooms. One large-hearted woman gave a plano, another a Vic-trola, others gave several sewing ma-There is a well-equipped laundry in the basement, where the girls do their own washing and ironing. There is a well-stocked library, containing stand-ard works as well as modern fiction, magazines and newspapers. There is always plenty of hot water, and the well cooked. Best of all, the girls can enjoy all these conveniences for a very small sum-$3.50, $4 and $4.50 per week. The hotel has outgrown its quarters. It can take care of only 50 girls, and there are many more who wish to com-

this, they are raising a fund. Important events indicated on. Fri-day's club calendar will be the department meetings of the Portland Woman's Club-art, 1:45 o'clock, business

PORTLAND, Or., May 5.—Seeing in your gether instead of creaming the butter of the and sugar, and adding the liquid. Scant sight and Mamie went down to the her home near Gressham, with no hope berad. I am sending you my recipe, with the measure of cream of tartar if the thanks for much help received from you in MRS H E. C. Marks for much help received from you in the very sour. Slift the sods and adding the sods and the measure of cream of tartar if the cream is very sour. Slift the sods and adding the sode and sugar and adding the sode and the sode and the sode and the time the sole and the time the sole and the time the sole and the sole and the time the sole and the sole pond and salied about with her mother and Johnnie's, wishing all the time Johnnie had asked her to go with him. She ate her dinner with the others and then sat under a current bush,

She ale her dinner with the bush, and then sat under a current bush, where it was cold, but Johnnie did not where it was cold, but Johnnie did not with the county fairs and the granger connected time his mother began looking for him. She asked everybody in the barnyard if they had seen Johnnie. That is, everybody but Mamle; she could not be found everybody but Mamie; she could not be found. When Mamie saw Mme. Quackles go-ing about asking for Johnnie she ran down to the pond and sailed out as fast as she could, which took her to the upper end of the pond, which It was far away from Mrs. Squirrel's home and Mamie was afraid at that in the pond, but she know that that home and Mamie was afraid at that end of the pond, but she knew that Johnnie had gone there, because she Johnnie had gone there, because she watched him after he went under the fence, and she felt sure he had met with an accident or something terrible had happened to keep him away from his dinner and supper, too. Mamle waddled up the bank when sho reached the end of the pond and anything but the leaves rustling and the birds chirping in the trees. Then she called to Johnnie, but no answer came, and she waddled a short distance into the woods and listened again.

again. "Pop, pop," came through the woods, and Mamime knew it must be Johnnie's of postoffice embezzlement. There are a strong campaign of advertising for the biennial which will be held there in 1916. They are planning to receive 25,000 clubwomen. The Washington State Federation has a whole page With its officers plctured.

The body of Archy N. Page, an att torney, of Carson, Wash., whose death

IT RUINS HAIR TO WASH IT WITH SOAP

Soap should be used very sparing-ly, if at all, if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos con-tain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it ruins It.

The best thing for steady use is Just ordinary mulsified cocoanut oli (which is pure and greaseless), is cheaper and better than soap or anything else you can use moved very softly away and waddled towards the pond with a heavy heart. But what was that she heard when she had nearly reached the pond? She listened; yes, she was sure it was a groan or at least a faint quack. Mamie had gone by another way in returning to the pond. for she wanted to keep under the bushes all she could, One or two teaspoonfuls will deanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abund-auce of rich, creamy lather, which ringes out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and sliky. bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulsified cocoanut oll at any pharmacy, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.

Any Toric Lens, ground to your prescription, and your choice of any Tortoise frame in the store-a genuine $8.00 value-special for this week only, $5 Any Lens in Sixty Minutes Columbian Optical Co. 145 Sixth St., between Alder and Morrison Streets.

curred in Philadelphia last Saturday Page had been practicing law in Ska-Federal Investigations to Begin as the result of an operation, will mania County since 1908. He is after 92 her Selected reach Portland today, and funeral serv- prominent Mason. He leaves a Fin was rather Sed After 23 Are Selected. The new Federal grand jury will be in Rose City Park Cemetery. Mr. ter, Mrs. C. F. Palmborg, of Portland.

in, so the clubwomen have decided to build a larger hotel, one which can ac-commodate 150 girls. In order to do