

not forget that there are some things which cannot buy peace. If we sacri-fice them in order to secure peace, the peace thus sought becomes for us the veriest torment of a living hell. We dare not trade honor for peace."

Call Never Equaled.

Never in the 21 years of its existence had the Lake Mohonk Conference heard such a call to arms. The Princeton president's appeal aroused intense interest and discussion among more than 200 delegates here from all parts PARCEL POST IS SCORED VALOR EXCEEDS ALL WARS of the country. The conference was opened by Daniel -Smiley, who, as usual, was host to all the members of the conference and their wives. The president's address was delivered by John Bassett Moore. professor of international law and di domacy at Columbia University and x-counselor of the State Department. Other speakers at the opening ses-sion were Theodore Marburg, of Balti-more, ex-Minister to Belgium, and John Barrett, director-general of the Dan Amarican University of the Pan-American Union "The war has done more than any other political influence, since the dec-laration of the Monroe Doctrine in 1823, munities and the small business men to promote Pan-American solidarity

Increase of Postage Rates and Limit of 40 Pounds on Packages Are Suggested as Remedies.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 19 .- The par peace. fighting quality, have proved about as degenerate as Bombardier Wells or Jess Willard. by officers of the National Wholesale

(Continued From First Page.) ever even approached battle in these Otherwise, France been peaceful and committed to the did it. cult of peace. Her prejudiced enemy to the North, who caricatures the French

soldier with lace odgings on his uniform, has made this a count in his indictment of "degeneracy"-the French have grown "degenerate through

Desperate Deeds Are Common. The war broke, and the French, in little

X-ray. His hands were in bags; they had been shot through. His leg was in a splint; the hone was shattered. He was going to be "X-rayed," how-ever, that the surgeons might find exactly what had happened to a splin-tered skull. He managed to tell the attendants that he had received his "crack on the head" last of all, and that machine gun fire at close range TIRS did it. What a story underlies that statement! Shot in one hand—he kept on. Shot in the other—he kept on. His leg shattered—he kept on, until he fell unconscious from the "crack on the head"! Then there were the five men in a Britain Alive to Serious Situation, certain Canadian company-and the unrecorded rest of that company. They had charged, they had won, they demand LONDON, May 19 .- Replying to a emand from several members that

$7.95 Round Trip Portland to Roseburg

Roseburg Strawberry Carnival

"Ex-President, ex-Governor, the peo-ple's true representative. Jurors, will you let him be broken down and de-stroyed? Stand for him; staud for the people. Give no vote to accomplish the purpose sought by this action. Meet the responsibility that rests upon you with a clear conscience, and Theodore Roosevelt will remain a power for good."

common interests of the Western Re-public," said Mr. Barreti, Pan-Americans May Ald Peace.

"In this growth of Pan-Americanism ere looms high the possibilities of a there looms high the possion and a subject. with the fact that all of the republics of the new world are at peace with one another and are doing everyhing in their power to preserve that condition. When one group of men is engaged in white guarrel in contrast to another a bitter quarrel in contrast to man the size of the lift is small to the life of the lift is business man. In the small towns by

The product of the made from the old world world the doom of the parcel post. The parcel post is so remote as many persons might think, because Europe of late years has been recognizing, as never before, the importance of the Latin-American governments in international affairs, and might feel a surer confidence of abso-lute impartiality of treatment if the jute impartiality of treatment if the great statesmen of the leading Latin-American governments were to join with those of the United States Gov-erument in responding to an European or old-world appeal for adjustment of its difficulties, or in placing themselves a receptive mood to hold the 'oliv

CHINA CAPABLE OF POWER

Senator Stone Tells Pekin Commission of Nation's Strength.

ST. LOUIS, May 19.—"Why should China stand in need of help?" declared United States Senator Stone here to-night in an address to a banquet in honor of a party of Chinese trade com-missioners, who are touring the coun-

Try. "China needs only to become fully conscious of her stupendous strength and power to enable her to shake off every grip of unjust restraint, to di-vest herself of every encumbering en-tanglement and to assert and uphold her independence with her own hands," her continued

he continued. Before referring to China's latent strength, Senator Stone said:

"The American people would aid and encourage the people of China in every way possible to build their new gov-ernment on a sound foundation." He continued:

continued: "Axide from its purely business aspect, I can see a means through commerce whereby Republican Amer-ica might add impetus and strength to those who struggle for freedom and popular government in China."

EDITORS FACE EARLY TRIAL

Deposition From Pope. KANSAS CITY, May 19.—A motion to continue the trial of the Govern-ment's case against the publishers of the Menace, an anti-Catholic weaking was overruled by Judge Van Valken-burgh in the Federal Court here today session of the ninth annual conven-tion. Increased postal rates and lim-Americans, Irishmen and students of tion. Increased postal rates and lim-ited weight were offered as remedies. President Oscar B. McGlasson, of Chicago, and Fifth Vice-Fresident O, J. Moore, of Sioux City, Ja., discussed the subject.

was dead or wounded when the guns stopped, but not a man ran away. Now, what if the comrades of the Irish Brigade, having seen this work, had fol-lowed- with another charge, equally desperate and equally fatal, and still another charge, until the last despes-ate thrust of all carried them over the redouts and among the guns? Now, their power to preserve that condition. When one group of men is engaged in a bitter quarrel in contrast to another group which is characterized by most peaceful and friendly relations, it is perincicousness. It is an enor-mous octopus slowly but surely drain-ing the life of the little business man, it is threatening the small towns by centralization of business in big cities." As remedies for some of the evils charged to the parcel post, Mr. Moore suggested an increase of 20 per cent in postal rates and a 40-pound limit on parcel post packages. He said "Trait tainted the postal service for years in second-class, and now it is creeping into the parcel post. The parcel post the area in second-class, and now it is created to the parcel post. The suggested an any peal that such a feat as this the French have bee formed again and again. These deeds are not recorded in journalism, as were the deeds of Meagher's men at Fred-ericksburg. They lie hidden under brief summaries in official reports: "We gained a height near thin-village-or-that yesterday"--"We gained yes-British Win New Laurels.

Britain has virtually known peace in all this generation. The South Afri-can war called out, in all, about a quarter of a million men. But the real fight-ing was done, mainly by the profes-sional army, which is a class a little apart from the currents of British na Storal army, which is a class a little apart from the currents of British national life. It affected the fibre of the people but little. It affected the fibre of the people but little. It affect the whole people but little. It affect the war, in order to "regenerate" a people. to "harden" them, fo create the "manly virtues." must affect the whole people but little. It affect the whole people but little this war, the honors of war go how only to men who have done superhu-man things, or to men whose bravery has had exceptional results—as when Lieutenant Dimmer, wounded, kept to his machine gun and saved a bri-gade. The old professional army has no monopoly on such deeds.

BRITISH PERMIT EXTENDED The naval brigade went into Ant-

Americans May Receive German werp in late September unseasoned Goods via Neutrals Until June 15. nen. Most of them had, up to August sat at city desks. They held against all the improved and cruei devices of WASHINGTON, May 19 .- The British government today gave notice to the whelming odds until their superiors State Department that it had extended ordered the hopeless position aban-State Department that it had extended to June 15 the time within which Ger-man goods may be shipped to America from neutral ports, provided they were bought before March 1 last. The for-mer limit was June 1. Soon after the issue of the order-in-council the British government under-

State Department that it had extended to June 15 the time within which Ger-man goods may be shipped to America from neutral ports, provided they were bought before March 1 last. The for-mer limit was June 1. Soon after the issue of the order-in-council the British government under-took to allow the export of German and Austrian goods which had been bought by Americans through neutral ports on the issue of a special permit in each case. by such a trial as British valor never knew before. We may dismiss the Germans. Since 1870 they have known less of war than Redmen Offer 20,000 for War. 1870 they have known less of war than any other of the Continental nations. But they have kept ever in mind the thought of war, have cultivated the re-ligion of valor, have encouraged the little children to play war games in the streets. This state of mind makes them quite exceptional to all rules; they will not do for an exemplar to prove the case. But, of course, they have been as they are the have been as brave as the rest-if any-

Raw Recruits Save England.

Money! Money!

But it isn't everything-

CONSCRIPT TALK RENEWED

Says War Department Official.

There's far more satisfaction in bounding health and the ability to be comfortable.

When health has slipped away through wrong habits of diet, the only way to get it back is to change food.

Grape-Nuts

is scientifically prepared food, and contains all the rich nutriment of wheat and barley-including their invaluable mineral content-necessary for sound nourishment of one's mental and physical forces.

With a clear head to steer a strong body you can do things and win. Both can be built by proper food, and turned to money and comfort.

Grape-Nuts food is delicious, richly nourishing, and easily digestible-undisputedly the most scientific food in the world.

"There's a Reason"

-think it over!

account

May 21 and 22

Tickets on sale from all stations in Oregon, main line and branches, May 21-22, final return limit May 24th

Full particulars at City Ticket Office, 80 Sixth St., čor. Oak, Union Depot or E. Morrison St., or from any agent of the

SOUTHERN PACIFIC

John M. Scott, Gen. Pass. Agent, Portland, Oregon.

