CHILDREN'S PARADE INDORSE.—The Hawthorne School Parent-Teacher Association yesterday voted to endorse the children's parade and gave consent to the children of the Hawthorne school to enter the parade. Heretofore the association has been opposed to permitting the children of the school taking part, but L. M. Lepper, of the East Side Business Men's Club, addressed the association yesterday, and urged that the children of the school be permitted to enter the parade, and a resolution covering the matter was adopted.

RECREATIONAL JAIL.—After L. M. McKee, former assistant Postmaster at Ashland, Or., had pleaded guilty before Federal Judge Bean yesterday to embezzlement of $380 from postal savings funds, United States Attorney Reames asked that the court be lenient. Judge Bean sentenced McKee to 60 days in the Hawthorne County Jail. He began serving his sentence in the afternoon. McKee's case had mitigating circumstances. It appeared that there was a shortage of $380 in his funds when he learned that a postal inspector was in town. He immediately made good the shortage and it had been made good when the books were examined. Nevertheless, the official recommended his prosecution.

J. V. COSTA SUES FOR DIVORCE.—J. V. Costa alleged that his wife ran away with a young man who she intended to adopt. The charge is made in a complaint for divorce filed in County Clerk Coffey's office. Costa and his wife were married in 1899. They have two daughters. The oldest of whom is 16. Costa avers in his complaint that his wife has been unfaithful to him and that she has run away with the young man. He asks for a divorce and for custody of the children. The case is set for trial on Friday.

PAUL FRANK ALLEGED.—Deputy Constable McCutcheon last night arrested James H. Van Zandt on a warrant charging him with defrauding Charles Anderson by leaving him a folk county farm which already had been sold. According to the story told by Anderson when he swore to the complaint, Van Zandt had owned the property and sold it to an independence man. Then, desirous of leaving the state, he leased it to Anderson. When Anderson went to take possession, he was promptly ejected by the occupant, Van Zandt, in the County Jail.

WOODSTOCK AVENUE MEETING TODAY.

Property owners of Woodstock Avenue are anxious to have a street laid out in connection with Eastmoreland, the Rock College district, and through the settled portion of Woodstock, and will meet at conference today at the City Hall to discuss ways and means. During former proceedings for this improvement it was found that the assessments on many cases would exceed the value of the property and that the property could not be sold. A hard-surface improvement is wanted. Woodstock Avenue is 80 feet wide and extends from Eastmoreland through the entire South East Side to Lewis. At the meeting today the matter of bonding the entire property will be considered in the hope that some way may be found to have the improvement made.

QUEEN LEAD GROWS

Three at Top Run Away From Field and One Another.

MISS BAKER 71,650 AHEAD

Miss Spoeri in Second Place Has 67,980 Votes More Than Miss Nolan, Who Has Put 50,150 Between Her and Miss Lash.

STANDING OF CANDIDATES FOR FESTIVAL QUEEN. Sybil Baker 488,260. Marian Rose Spoeri 596,610. Alice Nolan 332,550. Beatrice Lash 282,950. Ruth Angel 223,670. Susie Scholes 202,500. Mary Lawler 181,330. Myrtle Van Sickle 162,640. Alice Hester 159,950. Tura James 131,000. Elizabeth Fragemier 80,210. Ella Litterer 71,000. Martha Schultze 35,110. Martha Hoffmiller 18,720. The final coupon will be published Sunday, May 23. Voting will close at 3 o'clock P. M., May 25. Ballots must be cast at the headquarters at 238 Northwestern Bank building before the expiration date indicated upon them.

The three leading candidates in the contest for queen of the Rose Festival are running away from one another and from the rest of the field at a rate that increases daily. Tura James, Sybil Baker, candidate of the Woodmen of the World, was 63,030 ahead of Miss Marian Rose Spoeri, candidate of the Ad and Rotary Club. At the close of the count last night she was 71,650 ahead of Miss Spoeri.

Miss Spoeri in turn has increased her lead over Miss Alice Nolan, candidate of the Northwestern Electric Company, from $9,750 on Tuesday to 64,980 last night, and Miss Nolan was more than 21,710 ahead of Miss Lash Tuesday. Now she is 50,150 ahead.

The remaining candidates who are in the first section of seven whose names seem best to be noticed are Ruth Angel, candidate of the Modern Woodmen of America, Susie Scholes, candidate of the Moose and Mary Lawler, candidate of the Hibernian. Miss Myrtle Van Sickle, of the Trades Schools, Miss Alice Hester, of Lincoln High School, and Tura James, candidate of the Tribe of Ben Hur, are highest in the second section and have an excellent chance of crowding some of the leading section out of the race before the campaign is ended. The remaining four candidates have less than 100,000 ballots each.

Indications are that the balloting will be exceedingly heavy during the next five days, as the last coupon is to be published Sunday and the campaign will close next Tuesday. All of the organizations in the leading section are expected to have a heavy turnout. It is predicted that 1,000,000 votes will be cast for the ultimate winner.

ART EXHIBIT IS OPEN IN LIBRARY COLLECTION. Works by Masters of National and World-Wide Repute Contributed. Flower Pictures Daluz.

Grand opening of the second annual exhibition of original paintings took place last night at the Central Library. The officers and committee of the Mutual Art Association received the guests and discussed the pictures at the Art Club luncheon yesterday. Remarkably interesting and picturesque is the collection of mountain, pastoral and marine scenery, to which masters of National and world-wide fame have contributed. The Mutual Art Association is displaying an array of more than 100 productions.

An interesting assembly of small Indian figures and statuary by Mrs. Mary Wood will be worthy of observation. The colored photography department, the work of E. Gifford, Francis Morgan, George Weister, C. Elmore Grove and Charles Post, will be found attractive and instructive. Strongly suggestive of the impressionistic school of Paris is Lucile Dodd Hamberg's exquisite picture of an incident in the garden at Florence. Mrs. Hamberg, daughter of Charles H. Dodd, of this city, after studying in Paris and Munich, was married to a prominent German artist, who was killed recently while an officer in the German army. A portrait collection by Hugh Newman carries from a delicate and beautiful that of a serious-faced artist. Several pictures of homely subjects, such as eggs and vegetables, have been executed skilfully, and the more decorative fruit productions are likewise realistic.

Flower pictures of both dainty and wild coloring occupy a prominent place in the exhibition. The ceramic display and the collection of antiquities are by no means small, but fairly large and fine. The extensive loan collection embodies works of note and beauty, and all in all, the exhibition promises to be one of the best ever shown in Portland.

Carmen Absolved of Death. A. D. Shane, who was killed Tuesday night while trying to board a Mount Scott car, came to his death as a result of his own carelessness, according to the verdict of a coroner's jury last night. Five witnesses testified that Shane was moving before Mr. Scott tried to get aboard. The members of the crew on the car were exonerated explicitly by the verdict.

Commissioner Daluz to Speak. At Alberta public market on Saturday morning Commissioner Daluz will speak on "Water Meters." Other Commissioners and candidates for office have been invited to attend and make short addresses between 8 and 12 o'clock.

Underwood Official in City. Charles W. Hand, of New York City, vice-president of the Underwood Typewriter Company, reached Portland yesterday on a tour of the Coast. He will leave today for Puget Sound. Mr. Hand is accompanied on his trip by Miss Laura P. Waller, Washington City; Miss Charlotte S. Hand, Miss Julie E. Hand and Miss Elizabeth Walker, of Brooklyn. Mr. Hand says that President Underwood, of the company, will visit Portland on a tour of the West next month. Mr. Hand was delighted with the Pacific Coast country and amazed at the growth of Portland since he visited here in 1902 at the time of the Lewis and Clark Fair.

"QUAKE" IS ROCK BLAST Quivering of Earth on East Side Due to Dynamite Charge.

Portland's most recent earthquake didn't live to be more than 12 hours old. It was rudely shattered into a prosaic dynamite explosion early yesterday morning when officials of the Oregon Independent Faving Company explained that just about the time the supposed earthquake occurred—7 o'clock Tuesday evening—they were setting off a 2500-lb. blast at Rocky Point, where they are tearing out the rocks for the Columbia River Jetty.

Tuesday night's blast was one of unusual volume, and, due, it is said, to the humidity in the air, it caused a stronger vibration than ordinarily. For that reason it was felt by persons at the eastern edge of Portland, many of whom believed at the time that it was an earthquake. H. O. Canfield, Ryan avenue, Park Rose, among others, declares the tremor was due to a blast.

Irish Threaten Germans in Court and Are Fined. Insistent to Fight Since Lusitania Incident, One of Fighters Informs Municipal Judge.

DOWN went McGinty; O'Brien was on top. This was yesterday morning at a hotel at First and Couch streets. The Municipal Clerk Crawford, who presided in mystery, but Gottlieb Fredericshausen, clerk of the hotel, was a complaining witness, and accompanied Patrolmen Young and Klingenstein to the Municipal Court yesterday.

Charges of disorderly conduct were placed against Thomas McGinty and John O'Brien, the two Irishmen. "Were you fighting?" he asked. "As well as I could," was the illuminating answer. "How about you?" said the clerk to O'Brien. "Were you fighting?" "No, your honor," replied the Irishman. Looking up at Municipal Judge Stevenson, he continued, "I'll take all the blame for this fight, because, y' see, McGinty got beat."

Federicshausen then spoke up, telling the version of the fight. He was eyed with sympathy by the Triflemen. McGinty, when he appeared in the prisoner's box. "Were you fighting?" he asked. "As well as I could," was the illuminating answer. "How about you?" said the clerk to O'Brien. "Were you fighting?" "No, your honor," replied the Irishman. Looking up at Municipal Judge Stevenson, he continued, "I'll take all the blame for this fight, because, y' see, McGinty got beat."

Press Club to Be Host Designer of Rose Festival Poster and Slogan Author to Be Guests.

Fred G. Cooper, designer of the Rose Festival poster, and his father, J. C. Cooper, will be guests at luncheon at the Press Club at noon today, with Lloyd McDowell, publicity manager of the Festival.

Mr. Cooper and his father, who composed the slogan for the coming fiesta, were guests of honor and speakers at the Ad Club luncheon yesterday. Fred Cooper made a talk on the practical side of advertising work, and his father gave some reminiscences of his own's early efforts to develop his talent as an artist.
