

SOCIETY NEWS

BY GERTRUDE P. CORBETT

ONE of the most delightful affairs of the week was the dinner-dance given last night at Waverly Country Club to honor Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Wagner, popular young people who are returning from their wedding trip in California to their home in Seattle. The guests were seated at one large table, which was decked prettily with garden flowers. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hawley Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. David T. Honeyman, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Shevlin, Mr. and Mrs. Dugald W. L. MacGregor, Mr. and Mrs. E. Edgar Grellie, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund King, Mr. and Mrs. Erskine Wood and the six hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Webster Talbot, Mr. and Mrs. Antoine G. Labbe and Mr. and Mrs. Kurt Koehler.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wagner are well known in this city socially and are very popular here. They will return tomorrow to their home on Puget Sound.

The annual entertainment of the school of the Portland Art Association which is to be given in the Museum of Art May 29 is arousing keen interest in social circles and the artistic circles. Friends of students, members of the association and all the smart set of Portland will turn out for the affair. Miss Dorothy Gilberth, assisted by a group of competent committees, is working to perfect every detail of the various acts which comprise the "Festive vaudeville," as the entertainment is called. Tickets may be had at the office of the Art Museum, Fifth and Taylor.

The pretty suburban home of Mrs. Madford Reed (Rosalia Kingsley) near Linnton was the scene of a merry gathering of Portland belles yesterday to attend a charming luncheon given by Miss Maude Bateham as guest of honor. Tea was served by Mrs. Macleod. Entertainment and Mrs. Ralph Hurlburt, assisted by Miss Katherine Graham, from a prettily decorated table, the feature of which was a mound of fragrant and colorful white anemone and maidenhair fern. In the living-room an artistic arrangement of wild roses and other wild flowers was admired.

Mrs. M. E. Crumpacker will be a luncheon hostess tomorrow in honor of Miss Bateham, and the next few days will be filled with social engagements for the attractive bride-elect.

The Junior Assembly Club will give their closing party for this season tonight at Christensen's Hall. The series, which has been run through the winter months on the last Friday of every month, has been thoroughly enjoyable and the members are regretting the fact that the festivities close tonight. Patronesses for the series are: Mrs. C. W. King, Mrs. J. C. English, Mrs. J. Shemanak, Mrs. Theodore Nicolai, Mrs. Robert Gillan, Mrs. J. A. Strowbridge.

The women of St. Francis' parish will give a card party at the parochial residence Friday evening, May 21.

The high jinks party this evening at Cottillon Hall will be full of originality and surprises. Among them will be the playing of the selections from high jinks musical comedy. Dancing will take place in the lower hall and refreshments will be served there. As this is the last party for the season, a large attendance is anticipated. Committee members are: Roland Manary, Marian Hoban, Harry Brubaker, Helen Brock, Maudie Monouche, Mrs. J. A. Sandemeyer, Lee Waldron, Neomi Marcellus, Lucille Brown, Gill Shea, Bob Hamaker, Aaron Whitmer and Max Schatz.

Charming in detail and delightful in every way was the informal luncheon for which Mrs. John N. Costigan, hostess yesterday honoring her house-guest, Mrs. William E. Guerin, of Cleveland, O. Covers were laid for a prettily-decked table for 10, including Mrs. Guerin, Mrs. Louis H. Tarpley, Mrs. Frederick A. Jacobs, Mrs. J. D. Farrell, Mrs. Herbert S. Nichols, Mrs. John K. Kolloch, Mrs. J. P. O'Brien, Mrs. J. T. Guerin, of Vancouver, Wash., Mrs. John F. Dickson, and the charming hostess.

Mrs. Thomas James and daughter, Miss Katherine James, left Wednesday on the Northern Railway for San Francisco where they will visit the Panama Exposition.

Mrs. R. S. Dunlap left yesterday for a fortnight's visit with her brother, W. H. Klepper, of 2028 Mount St. Helens Place, Seattle. Mrs. Dunlap later will go to Pasadena to make her home with her mother, Mrs. G. A. Klepper who, with her other daughter, Miss Natalie Klepper, has been visiting Mrs. Dunlap in this city for a few weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Leonard are being felicitated upon the arrival of a son, born Friday, May 14. He has been named William J. Leonard, Jr.

Mrs. Archibald R. Wright will give a "Rose Tea" at her home 541 East Sixth street, Saturday afternoon from 2 to 6 o'clock. A programme for the benefit of the domestic science department will be given by Miss Irene Campbell, pianist; Miss Roxanna Wommelsdorf, violinist; and Miss Edna Bertsch, reader.

A delightful affair of last night was the dinner for which Mrs. Helen Ladd Corbett was hostess, honoring Miss Eleanor Anderson, house guest of Miss Claire Wilcox.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Huber, of Harrisburg, Pa., are in the city on their wedding tour. The guests of Mrs. Huber's brother, G. G. Rober, and Mrs. Hehrer.

PROMINENT CLUB WOMAN WHO WILL FIGURE IN NATIONAL GATHERING NEXT WEEK.

Mrs. J. A. Pettit, Chairman Credentials Committee of General Federation Council.

She advocated the introduction of domestic science into the schools and stated that a practical application of knowledge of the art will work wonders in solving the problem of the girl "who doesn't know what to do with herself." Several pretty little children of Beaverton gave special numbers and the women of the association served refreshments.

The state grand chapter convention of the P. E. O. Sisterhood will be held in Forest Grove, Or., May 25, 26 and 27. Miss Beatrice Kirkup, state corresponding secretary, announced to all members of the sisterhood that those desiring to attend should purchase one-way tickets and take receipt. Those who wish to return to Portland after the reception on the evening of May 26 should get their tickets for the Southern Pacific route. It is anticipated that a large delegation from Portland will go to the attractive neighboring town for this state gathering.

Circle No. 6, Portland Psychology Club, met on Wednesday in the home of Mrs. Thomas G. Greene. "Social Uplift Work" was the subject of discussion by Mrs. Greene, Mrs. Lee Davenport, Mrs. E. A. Skelton, Mrs. Emma Miller, Mrs. Parkhurst, Mrs. F. L. McKenzie and others. Several of the members promised roses for the float that will represent the Congressional Union at the Rose Festival parade.

"Making Over One's Self" will be the topic of the day at the psychology department meeting of the Portland Woman's Club, which will convene at 2 o'clock today. Members are urged to note the change of time. The art department will hold a 15-minute session for election prior to the meeting of the psychology division. Mrs. Florence Crawford will give the address at the latter meeting and Mrs. Edith Haines Kiester will sing a group of songs of her own composition. Mrs. C. B. Simmons is chairman of the psychology department. This will be an open meeting.

"War Brides" will be the subject that will attract the attention of the members of the literature department today. This section will be given by order by the chairman, Mrs. J. D. Spencer, promptly at 3 o'clock. Dr. C. H. Chapman will give the address.

The regular meeting of the Richmond Parent-Teacher Association will be held today in the school assembly at 2:30. The annual election of officers will take place. Reports from the National convention will be given by Mrs. W. B. Bell, followed by other musical selections. After the meeting will be the usual social hour and refreshments will be served. Everybody welcome.

The South Mount Tabor Parent-Teacher Association of Hoffman School will hold a postponed meeting at 3 o'clock today. Delegates to the National convention will make their reports. The annual election of officers will be held. A special meeting of the programme committee will be held.

The West Portland Parent-Teacher Association will meet in the clubrooms tonight at 8:30 o'clock. Officers will be elected and reports from the National Congress of Mothers' Convention will be given. A social hour will conclude the evening. All patrons of the school and their friends are invited.

Peninsula Parent-Teacher Association will give a play tonight in the school. The title is "Mrs. Lester's Soiree." The cast includes: Mrs. Lester, Mrs. E. Montgomery; Mrs. Cranston, Mrs. Baldwin; Miss Carolyn Warren, Miss Skelton; Peggy, Miss Scott; Mrs. Gray, Miss Parry; Mrs. Campbell; Miss Mary Emily Read, Miss Hilton; Biddy, Miss Fordyce; Mrs. Gregg, Mrs. Bristow; Mrs. Lovel, Miss Bristow; The Misses Black.
