

2000 FARMERS HEAR GOVERNOR AT PICNIC

More Co-operation and Better Community Spirit Urged by Mr. Withycombe.

PROSPERITY ERA FORECAST

Party of 200 Attends From Medford and Brings Mr. Withycombe Back From Applegate River Fete for Informal Reception.

MEDFORD, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—Urging co-operation and increased community spirit in rural life and pledging his assistance toward bettering the condition of the farmers in the state, Governor Withycombe was the guest of honor at the fourth annual picnic of the Valley Pride Creamery on the Applegate River today. More than 2000 residents of the county gathered about the natural amphitheater, where the Governor spoke, and gave him what he termed one of the most enthusiastic welcomes he had ever received.

The Governor carefully avoided any reference to politics or the war, confining his remarks to an informal talk on the importance of organization in country life and his interest in promoting the welfare of the country people in the state. When he concluded the entire assemblage broke into a cheer.

Mr. Allen, editor of the Grants Pass Courier, gave an address of welcome from the people of Josephine county. He was followed by C. E. Gates, president of the Medford Commercial Club, who spoke for the people of this city. Fifty automobiles, loaded with 200 Medford business men, headed by the Medford band, started early today for the gathering. They brought the Governor back with them and an informal reception was held during the late afternoon and evening, when the Governor greeted hundreds of the men and women of the valley.

Asked regarding general conditions in the state, the Governor said Oregon was suffering from the common ailment throughout the country of lack of confidence, but that conditions fundamentally were healthy. As soon as the war is over he declared, the state would experience an era of prosperity that never had been equaled in the history of the state. The Governor was escorted to the train for Salem by a large committee of Medford Republicans, who gave him a rousing send-off.

GRANTS PASS HAILS GOVERNOR

Thousand School Children Shower Mr. Withycombe With Roses.

GRANTS PASS, Or., May 20.—(Special.)—Governor Withycombe received an ovation this morning as he stepped from the train on his first official visit to Southern Oregon. Escorted by a reception committee to the bandstand, the Governor passed between double rows of 1000 school children to be showered with roses. After the Governor had shaken hands with a number of the little tots he addressed the vast crowd of people who had gathered. The Governor's first words were complimentary to the children. "This is the thing I love to see," he said. "This is the best crop Oregon produces and so long as she continues to produce such as these and we keep up our schools, so long will we have a united and enlightened Oregon."

The Governor complimented Josephine County on its remarkable progress. His words were short and to the point. The Governor then spoke of the Valley Pride Creamery and its 29 miles on the Applegate river. C. E. Gates, president of the Medford Commercial Club, and Wilford Allen, of the Grants Pass Commercial Club, each gave short talks at the picnic.

Fine Is Assessed Only on Attorney, However.

LOS ANGELES, May 20.—Charles E. Sebastian, Chief of Police and nominee for Mayor, and his counsel, Earl Rogers, were adjudged guilty tonight of contempt of court for sending the county grand jury a 32-page letter charging that the accusations of moral misconduct against Sebastian, then under consideration by the grand jury, were part of a plot to ruin his chances for Mayor at the approaching municipal primary election. Rogers took upon himself the blame for the letter, which contained editorials from Los Angeles newspapers denouncing Sebastian's accusers.

Judge Wood, of Amador County, presiding at the trial, held these editorials to be improper matter to submit to a grand jury and fined Rogers $200. Judge Wood said the situation did not call for the imposition of a fine on Sebastian, as he acted on the advice of counsel.

BANK'S SIDE IS GIVEN

Ex-Senator Bailey Argues His Client Is Persecuted.

WHOLE RECORD DEMANDED

Treasury Officials Accused of Suppressing Part of Facts—Council and Court Engage in Bitter Controversy.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Argument became contentious and bitter today in the case of the Riggs National Bank against the Secretary of the Treasury, the Controller of the Currency and the Treasurer, as ex-senator Bailey presented to Justice McCoy the bank's opposition to the motion to dismiss the temporary injunction granted against the Treasury officials.

Mr. Bailey's argument began with a clash between himself and Justice McCoy, which led to the lawyer's threatening to withdraw from the case after a rebuke from the bench. Later, as Mr. Bailey continued, he was interrupted time after time by Samuel Undermyer, of counsel for the defendants, who disputed his interpretation of the facts. The interruption on several occasions precipitated heated exchanges.

Mr. Bailey, after declaring that Mr. Undermyer yesterday had "misstated practically every fact involved in the case," proceeded to reply in detail to Mr. Undermyer's argument. He occupied the entire day in his discussion, and will conclude his argument on the law of the case tomorrow.

Trouble was precipitated when Justice McCoy interrupted Mr. Bailey to say that he did not care to hear arguments on a certain point and Mr. Bailey retorted: "Your honor has taken more time than I intended to take for what I intended to say," replied Mr. Bailey. "Another remark of that kind," retorted the court, "and some other counsel will argue this case." Bailey tossed his papers on the table and started away. Lawyers for the bank persuaded him to return and as he did so he said: "I feel that I owe to my clients a duty higher than I owe to myself. Therefore, I will remain and continue the argument."

"I also feel that I owe a duty to your clients," replied Justice McCoy, "and that will lead me to dissent what you have said from my mind." Mr. Bailey declared the withdrawal of Government funds from the Riggs bank on the ground that it was not "a commercial bank" was without legal excuse. Commercial paper, he said, was not better than stocks and bonds in the assets of a bank.

Attorneys for the Treasury officials, he declared, had distorted the showing of loans by the bank to the Treasury officials. "That we lent money to officials in the Treasury Department is true," he said. "But these gentlemen did not supply the whole record. If they had looked further they would have seen that we lend money to men not only in the Treasury, but in all Government departments. If they had looked further again they would have found that we lend money to members of the House and Senate, without regard to political faith, section or power. If the facts were being as follows," the Treasury officials, there might be some claim that the loans were made to influence them."

The charge that officers, directors or employees of the bank held excessive loans was flatly contradicted by Mr. Bailey. Justice McCoy let it be known during the day that he probably would take the case under advisement for some time.

Here's real Paint economy

Paint economy does not lie in the cost per gallon, but in what the gallon will accomplish. Cheap paint covers only 900 to 250 square feet per gallon, two coats. "High Standard" covers 350 to 400 square feet, two coats. Your painting will require fewer gallons of "High Standard" than of cheaper paint—so many less, in fact, that your painting cost will be lower.

Low Brothers LIQUID PAINT works easier, covers better, assures permanency of color and more years of wear. Ask your nearest Low Brothers "High Standard" dealer for color cards.

ACHED ALL OVER, HAD PAINS IN CHEST

Jackson, Miss., Minister Tells How He Suffered After the Grippe and How He Was Restored to Health by Vinol.

Jackson, Miss.—"I am a minister of the gospel and I had the grippe so badly that I ached all over. I had sore, I had pains in my chest and back, no appetite, was nervous and had a stubborn cough. I tried different medicines without benefit. Finally a friend recommended Vinol. I tried it and soon noticed an improvement and continuing its use I am entirely relieved of my troubles. I have also used Vinol in my family for chronic coughs and cold with the best results.—O. W. Childs, Jackson, Miss. Grippe leaves the blood in a thin, de-vitalized condition. It takes away the appetite and leaves one weak, without energy and often in a dangerous condition. In order to restore the blood to a healthy condition, iron must be supplied in an easily assimilated form. We guarantee this may be done by Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, which contains no oil. If you try it and it does not help you we will return your money.
