FIVE HYDRANTS WANTED

LENTS PEOPLE DEMAND THAT PROTECTION BE GIVEN.

Delegation of About 30 Protest to Council Against Mr. Daly's Plan to Save by Slighting Them.

Commissioner Daly's new policy of economizing in water bureau expenditures by failing to put in fire hydrants on new water mains has brought him into disfavor with the Lents district, where $10,000 has been spent for new mains without a single fire hydrant having been installed.

A delegation of Lents residents, headed by F. R. Peterson and H. A. Garnett, appeared before the City Council yesterday to protest against the plan of building mains without hydrants, and to ask that the fire hydrants be installed and that the Lents volunteer fire department be given some fire protection and equipment. The Council promised to investigate.

For the first time the construction of fire hydrants is being omitted when water mains are laid. This is to enable Commissioner Daly to save financial costs, with his water bureau. It costs $75 to establish each fire hydrant. By leaving off 500 of them in a year the water bureau will show a "saving" of $3,750.

The water bureau recently finished building an eight-inch main for a distance of about a mile and a half through Lents," said F. R. Peterson before the Council yesterday. "The cost of the main was about $50,000. It extends the water system into the Lents district, where a single fire hydrant was installed. We want fire protection and we urgently request the Council to take steps to have these hydrants installed."

The Lents delegation complained about 20 business men of the district. They asserted that since their district was taken into the city two years ago they have been slighted. The anti-fire hydrant policy is being

NEW MOVIES INVITING

THE MOTH AND THE FLAME IS UNUSUAL FEATURE AT STAR.

Sunset Bill Varied, With "The Come-back" Leading, While Majestic Has Submarine Film.

Thrilling and with a happy ending is "The Moth and the Flame," presented by the Famous Players Film Company under the direction of Douglas Fairbanks, at the Star this week until Sunday. Stewart Blairst plays the lead, with Irene Howley as the ill-wedded man and Adele Ray as the girl he almost marries.

With in England Edward Fletcher, disregarding his promise to wed pretty Jeanette Graham, flees to America. Five years later he is ardently wooing Marion Walton, the pretty daughter of an unscrupulous financier.

The world首破 took place when Jeanette breaks up upon the scene. The audience is left to guess that Fletcher and Jeanette later are married.

A clever Universal film, "They Were Heroes," full of ridiculous arrests and amusingisodes.

The travel pictures this week show flying near Key West. By Mayer, of Puck, has, as usual, his funny turns.

MISS FLYNN SPEAKS ON LABOR.

Elizabeth Gurley Flynn, L. W. W. lecturer, spoke on "Solidarity, Labor's Road to Freedom," Thursday night in Arion Hall, at Second and Oak streets. The inefficiency of the trade union as a means of improving the working class was the feature of the lecture. Last night Miss Flynn spoke on "The Eight-Hour Day" at Second and Yamhill streets. Miss Flynn has been a picturesque figure in the labor troubles of the past two years. She played a prominent part in the textile strike at Lawrence, Mass., and in New Jersey, as well as in the demonstrations at Spokane and in Montana.

"Shorty's Troubles Sleep," also in two acts, is not only amusing but full of the liveliest action. A wagonful of gold, a girl in trouble, a robber band and a good "bad man" enact important roles in the plot, which is well sustained.

"Fatty" Alexander, the Portland boy, appeared in his first big comedy part in the two-act Keystone comedy, "Gusle Rivals." He convinced his audience that he ought to be a star. He was too funny and withdrew the play. Another Keystone, and a comedy drama, "The Broken Window," replaced it.

UNDER-SEA SCENES UNIQUE

Majestic Submarine Films Show Caverns on Ocean Bed.

Few films are as instructive and fascinating as the deep-sea pictures which, in spite of the large audiences that have seen them this week, are still being viewed by numerous eager Majestic patrons. The supposedly impossible was accomplished when, with the help of the Williamson submarine tube invention, the vast sea meadows and the wonders thereon were photographed.

The coral caves and abundant sea life, more than 100 feet below the surface are like revelations in a dream.

Ruins of a blockade-runner and an ancient Spanish vessel with unique markings are shown in the film, and divers are shown at work far below the ocean surface.

A well-attended meeting of the Massachusetts Society was held Thursday night in the Central Library. Board of directors appointed to take charge of the picnic in June.
