"NEW CHAPEL" TO OPEN.—The "New Chapel" of Bethel African Methodist Episcopal Church at Larrabee and Millon streets will be opened for worship for the first time Sunday. The following order of services will be conducted: Sunday school at 9:30, opening by the pastor, Rev. Logan Crow, at 11 A. M., subject, "The Gratitude of a Delivered People." At 2 o'clock a jubilee mass meeting will be held at which the older members will deliver ten-minute addresses upon various subjects pertaining to the growth, struggle and progress of the church in Portland. The Christian Endeavor Society will hold its meeting at 7 o'clock and elect officers for the ensuing conference year. At 8:15 o'clock the pastor will preach from the subject, "The Result of Effort." The surprised choir will sing at the morning and evening services. This is also Rally day in the church.

EAST SIDE MARKET OPENS TODAY.—The East Side Market, at 23rd and Commercial streets, will open this morning for the first time this season, and be open Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday each week. A team of oxen will be on hand at 7 A. M. and at 3 A. M. the Washington High School band of 20 pieces will give a concert. Thirty-six stalls have been set up on Commercial street, between Grand avenue and East Sixth street. A committee from the East Side Business Men's Club has invited consumers of Central East Portland to come to the East Washington-Street Public Market this morning. Joseph B. Moser will be in charge.

BOR OF 8 STABS ANOTHER, 5.—As the result of an altercation Wednesday between Luigi Roberti, aged 8, of 419 East Forty-fifth street, and Joe Caputo, aged 9, of 404 East Forty-sixth street, in which the former stabbed his companion with a pocket knife, Roberti was turned over to the juvenile court by the municipal authorities. Both of the boys are Italians and are students at the Richmond school. Roberti had been in the habit of kicking Caputo and was in turn stabbed. The wound is not of a serious character unless complications ensue. The pair were tracked by Detectives Hellyer and Tackaberry.

MANY THOUSAND BEAUTIFUL RHODODENDRONS, peonies, azaleas and other shrubs are in full bloom in the Clatsop nurseries at Durham, and are well worth seeing, especially by those desiring to make personal selections. Colors, as many plants selected will be reserved for delivery during Fall planting season. Visitors are welcome at all times. The nurseries are on Boone's Ferry road, or take Oregon Electric train leaving Jefferson-street depot at 1 and 3:30 P. M. City office, Second and Main sts. Phone: Main 4219, A 1482.—Adv.

"EVENING IN JAPAN" TO BE GIVEN.—An evening in Japan is to be given by an entertainment given by the children of the Rose City Park School, East Fifty-seventh and Laramie streets, last night. The decorations were Oriental in character and a featured attraction was staged by the little people. This was followed by a series of unique songs, musical cantatas and other special numbers. The entertainment was given under the auspices of the Parent-Teacher Association.

STREETS SIXES.—Commissioner Dieck receives the backing of the City Council in a policy he has adopted no more permits will be given for electric signs to be placed on city streets. Application has been made by a furniture store to erect a large electric sign over the entire street in front of its place of business. Mr. Dieck recommends that the application be denied. It is said the "cross-street" signs are dangerous and unattractive.

DAMAGES FOR DEATH DENIED.—A jury in Judge Davis' court Thursday brought in a verdict for the defendant in the case of the administrators of the estate of Freddie Schroeder, a young boy who was killed last November, against John George. The lad was run down by a scavenger wagon driven by the defendant past the Albina Home-stead school. Playmates of the boy testified that the driver was reckless in passing the school. Damages of $7500 were asked in the suit.

CITY TO PAY PART OF PAVING COST.—Because the city owns a circular parking strip in the center of the avenue the City Council yesterday decided to pay a portion of the cost of repaving Ladd avenue, which crosses the parking place. The city will pay $750 of the cost, this being the amount which would otherwise have charged for engineering at the rate of 5 per cent of the total cost of the paving.

RATIONALIST LECTURE TO SPEAK.—Sam Atkinson, National lecturer for the Rationalist Association will lecture in the Public Library Hall, Tenth and Yamhill streets, on Sunday evening next at 8 o'clock. The subject will be "Briens' plays" and "Damaged Goods." Questions will be answered at the close.

PRAYER MEETINGS ARRANGED.—Prayer meetings are to be held every Tuesday from 2:30 to 3:30 o'clock at the Cottage Hospital, East Morrison and East Forty-second street. The services will be in charge of Mrs. J. L. Minor.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES SET.—Clatsop School of Expression will hold its annual commencement exercises in the Lincoln High School auditorium, Saturday night, June 5 at 8:15.

DOMINICAN MISSION STARTS.—Rev. Fathers Barrett and Olsen are at the prior of the Holy Rosary Dominican Church, East Third street and Union avenue, and will begin a mission there tomorrow morning with solemn high mass at 11 o'clock. During the week the masses will begin at 5 A. M. There will be evening services at 7:30 o'clock. The Holy Rosary Church choir will sing. It is composed of J. Traubner, leader; tenors, J. Bell, A. Wurst, K. Herbring, Albert Savie, H. Cass, D. Morris, John Darby, Tim Sullivan, J. E. Malley, basses, Frank Fitzgerald, Frank Dorey, A. J. Schrub, A. King, E. J. Alstock, Dr. Walker. Special instrumental music will be provided by the Misses Marcella, Carline, Nettie Duffy and Edna Beck. The organist will be Miss Antonia Neppach. The Mass of St. Ignace will be sung Sunday morning for the first time in Portland. The Very Rev. A. A. McMahon, provincial of the Dominicans, is in charge of the present. Rev. Father Olsen, of San Francisco, new pastor of Holy Rosary Church, will formally take charge of the parish at the morning mass.

MAZAMAS TO CLIMB MOUNT CHINIDER.—For the coming week-end the Mazamas will have a double outing. One party will start at 10 o'clock, Chinider reached from near Cascade Locks and having an elevation more than 600 feet greater than that of Larch Mountain. This party will leave Portland on the 7 o'clock train on the O.-W. R. & N. today and go to Herman's Sliding (about 100 miles beyond Chinider) and will tramp about three miles towards the mountain before camping for the night. The climb of the mountain will be made on Sunday. The second party will take the train to Cascades tomorrow morning and will tramp from there over the Pacific Highway as far as Warrendale, visiting the several beautiful falls and other features found within a mile of the highway.

JUDGMENT FOR $15,500 GIVEN.—A verdict for $15,500, the full amount sued for, was found for the Corvallis Lumber Co. by a jury in Judge Gantenbein's court Thursday at the termination of the suit that concerned the contract for the construction of a branch line prior to the transfer of the plaintiff's rail line to the defendant, under a contract of sale, had been made in damage to the plaintiff corporation to the amount asked in the suit.

$8000 VERDICT AWARDED.—After being a little more than two weeks, a jury in Judge Bean's department of the Federal Court yesterday returned a verdict awarding $8000 damages to the plaintiff, the Portland Engine & Lumber Company. Naugle, who lost one arm and alleged that he was partially disabled in the other arm because of an accident at the company's plant, sued for $50,000. Malarkey Seabrook & Dibble represented Naugle. The Peninsula Lumber Company was represented by Wilbur, Spencer & Beckett.

STOLEN LOCKS RECOVERED.—A long black switch, purchased for the adornment of Mrs. Lulu Anderson, of 404 East Forty-sixth street, was stolen by a police search Thursday night. Mrs. Anderson stated that the switch had been stolen by Miss Ella Jones, a student at the Anderson home. Acting Detective Captain Day sent Detectives Hill and Howell to trace the thief. The officers found Miss Jones at the Union depot. Miss Jones was released, the police report after she had restored the switch and a pair of shoes which had been stolen from Mrs. Anderson.

BAKER'S FRIENDS ORGANIZE.—"Baker Boosters," composed of friends of the candidate for mayor, the City Commissioner, announced yesterday that headquarters have been opened at the Northwest Bank building. Mr. Baker is managing the campaign, but his friends felt there should be a downtown headquarters, where candidates, information and literature can be given out. C. Smith, well-known newspaperman, is in charge. Mr. Smith announced that a Baker Boosters Club will be organized at once.

TEACHERS TO VISIT NURSERY.—On Saturday, the members of the Portland Teachers' Association, and all other teachers of the public schools, have been invited to visit the home of E. A. Weed at Beaverton. Mr. Weed has an extensive nursery of ornamental plants, including 30,000 peonies, the largest collection west of Omaha. A. K. Draper is president of the Portland Education Association.

LAW WOULD BLOCK HAMBUR SALAD.—An ordinance prohibiting the sale of hashish, an opiate said to have found its way into the city, is to be presented to the City Council next week by Mayor Albee. The measure has been prepared by City Health Officer M. Blum. It prohibits any person, firm or corporation from selling any of the stuff. Its proper name is given as cannabis indica.

REV. A. J. MONTGOMERY, superintendent of the church extension of the Portland Presbyterian, will lecture Sunday night at the Smith Memorial Presbyterian Church on a missionary subject. He will use a number of stereoscopic slides and show pictures of the missions under the charge of the Presbyterian board of missions.

GRANGE ASSOCIATION MEETS TODAY.—The Masters and Lecturers' Association of the ten granges in Multnomah County, will meet today at Orient with Multnomah Grange. Plans for Grange field day will be considered at this meeting. The association is expected to take some action relative to road construction.

SALSMAN IS ARRESTED.—Alleging that in addition to owing a hotel bill of $24.35, F. C. Cary, salesman, had let his wife stay in a room at the Imperial Hotel in actual want of food while he was "joy-riding" with friends until 4 o'clock yesterday morning. City Detectives Swennes and Moloney arrested Mr. Cary yesterday.

PASTOR INCREASED SALARY.—The salary of Rev. H. R. Gell, who was returned to the Milwaukie Evangelical Church, was voted an increase of $250 a year on his salary at the meeting of the official board Wednesday night. A special committee was appointed to get estimates of the cost of improvements to the church.

METHODISTS ENTERTAIN AT SELLWOOD.—The women of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society entertained their friends yesterday in the Sellwood Y. M. C. rooms. "How the Other Half Travels—Personal Experiences," was the subject of the address by Mrs. A. R. McLean. Curious of the Orient were shown.

RANCHER LOSES SIGHT OF EYE.—J. L. Davidson, rancher living near Bend, Or., lost the sight in his left eye and may lose the sight of the other as the result of a premature explosion of dynamite which he was using to blow up stumps on his ranch. He was brought to St. Vincent's Hospital in this city yesterday for treatment.

PEACE MEETING TONIGHT.—The city's weekly peace meeting in room A, Central Library, at 8 o'clock, Dr. Perry Joseph Green, Frank T. Collier and others will speak. Congregational singing and peace songs is a popular feature of the meetings.

HEBREW PICNIC POSTPONED.—On account of unsettled weather, the picnic of the Portland Free Hebrew school will be postponed until Sunday, May 23.

ARCHIE S. NICOL IS DEAD
Engineer Who Worked on State Projects Victim of Appendicitis.
Archie S. Nicol, an engineer, who was in charge of the construction of the Tumalo dam on the Tumalo project, which was built by the State of Oregon during 1913 and 1914, died Thursday morning at St. Vincent's Hospital as the result of an operation for appendicitis. Previously to the Tumalo project he had been employed on the Umatilla project by the United States Reclamation Service. Mr. Nicol was about 30 years old and was graduated from the University of Washington in 1907. He was married and had one child, a son, who is now in the army. He was a member of Bend Lodge of Masons. The funeral arrangements are in the hands of local Masons, who will conduct the services from the Holman parlors this afternoon. Mr. Nicol leaves a widow, one son 7 years old and a mother in Pennsylvania.

WARRING NATIONS BARRED
Beneficiaries of British Estates Must Be Country's Friends.
English probate documents bear a stipulation that none of the assets shall be paid to any citizen of any country with which England is at war. This was disclosed Wednesday when a copy of the probated estate of Mrs. Margaret Turner was received from Dublin, Ireland, by County Clerk Coffey.
Mrs. Turner inherited $1000 from the estate of Mrs. Sarah J. Simpson. After Mrs. Simpson's death it was learned that Mrs. Turner was dead, her daughter was dead, and the only heir was an infant grandchild in Dublin. To pay
