

THOUSANDS OF FOLK TO BE CITY GUESTS

Hundreds of Shriners to Stop Over Either on Way To or From Seattle Convention.

FAIRS DRAW MORE PARTIES

Greater New York Teachers, New Jersey Sons of Revolution, Church Delegates and Florists Among Those to Be Entertained.

Scores of special trains bearing thousands of tourists are due to visit Portland within the next few months, and Portland railroads, hotels and the Chamber of Commerce are making active preparations to entertain them all.

Preceding the Shriners, however, will be many other parties, many of whom will travel through this city on their way to or from the California exposition.

Following are some of the special parties other than Shriners, traveling via the O-W. R. & N. lines, that already have arrangements for stops in Portland:

American Library Association, June 11, with special train of about 100 people. National Association of Credit Men, June 19, in special train, with 125 people.

Knights of Columbus, July 1, returning from National convention in Seattle, about 125 members in special train. Indiana Teachers, July 5, with 125 people, due from San Francisco July 5.

Principal and friends of Greater New York, families and friends, about 100 in special train on July 11 for one day. New York State Society Sons of the American Revolution, 125 persons in special train, to arrive July 16, to attend National convention.

New Jersey Delegation to convention of Sons of the American Revolution is due July 17 with about 50 persons. Cleveland, Ohio, party of 50 persons, due here on July 18 from California and will travel via Huntington.

Special train party of about 100 church delegates is due July 21. Sons of the American Revolution, party of 50 persons will be here July 27, from San Francisco.

The White Star Touring Club of 25 members will arrive from Seattle August 6. A "Service" train of 125 persons will arrive here from the East on the morning of August 17.

A special party of New York Eagles, 20 strong, will come here, August 8, from the convention of their order at the Hotel Multnomah. A party of 20 of the Society of American Florists and Ornamental Horticulturists will arrive August 14.

A special train bearing 125 members of the Lutheran Church, to attend their convention, will arrive August 22. Another special train consisting of 125 officers and agents of the Frost Woven Wire Fence Company will be here on August 23.

A party of 25 girls, from Stamford, Conn., will be here August 25. The following is a list of special trains already booked to stop in Portland on account of the Shriners' convalescence in Seattle:

El Jebel Temple of Denver, with 150 persons, due on July 11, from Huntington. The party has chartered the Dalles to Portland for the down-river trip from The Dalles to Portland.

The Los Angeles Temple, 125 strong, will visit Portland on both the northbound and the southbound parties. Medinah Temple of Chicago will arrive in five separate trains with about 1000 persons on July 15.

The Omaha Shriners will visit Portland on the westbound journey, stopping here for a few hours on Sunday, July 13. The Seattle Temple will be here on the same date, about 200 strong.

The Atlanta Temple, in a special train, will visit here July 10. Lalala Temple, of Philadelphia, will arrive July 16 and remain here all day. The Philadelphia Temple is carrying a band of 50 pieces, a patrol and will have about 250 members. They are carrying their own coal-black horses.

The Boston Temple also is due July 16 with about 150 persons. The Baltimore and Washington (D. C.) Shriners will arrive here on Friday morning, July 16, via the coast route, and leave the same afternoon for the south. The Wichita Shriners also will arrive on that Friday. They will have about 150 members in their party.

programme this afternoon between 2:30 and 5 o'clock, and this evening between 7:30 and 10 o'clock, in the Sellwood Y. M. C. A. building, East Fifteenth street and Spokane avenue.

Roses grown in the gardens of Sellwood will be placed on exhibition in the east parlors of the building, and all residents, whether members of the auxiliary or not, will be welcome to place roses on exhibition.

The programme this afternoon, which opens at 2:30 o'clock, will include an address by E. B. McFarland, president, and Alfred Tucker, secretary of the Portland Rose Society, and W. E. Sherbrooke, a rose grower of Cornelius.

Mrs. Pauline Miller Chapman will sing "A Spray of Roses" and "The Mission of a Rose," accompanied by Miss Adele Dyott. The evening programme will consist of vocal numbers by Miss Effie Penick, Mrs. Otto Peter, Mrs. Lillian Ward, and piano solos by Mrs. E. R. Eisert, Mrs. F. H. Hayes and Mrs. Ernest Charters.

Mrs. W. D. Palmer, president of the Portland Rose Society, will be in charge. In the afternoon hostesses will be Mrs. E. H. Frederickson, Mrs. L. E. Dutcher, Mrs. M. E. Crider, Mrs. Harry Black, Mrs. H. M. Hill, Mrs. L. H. Allen, Mrs. W. H. Beard and Mrs. C. M. Thompson.

The reception committee is composed of Mrs. Deane P. Atkins, Mrs. Fred Meindl, Mrs. S. Dean and Mrs. C. E. Snell, and the decoration committee is headed by Mrs. J. W. Caldwell, Mrs. Carl Mordhorst and Mrs. Oscar D. Stanley.

For the meeting of the mid-biennial council of the General Federation of Women's Clubs which will be held here from next Monday to June 4, Portland will be the mecca of the most prominent clubwomen of the United States.

Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, president of the Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs, and her assistants in the many well-managed committees among the Portland clubs have planned details for the entertainment of the visiting delegates, and the programme committee has arranged for many splendid features, among which will be addressed by some of the foremost men and women of the country.

All meetings will be held in the White Temple, at Twelfth and Taylor streets. Portland women are urged to register on Saturday, Mrs. J. A. Pettit, chairman of the credentials committee, will be in the committee room of the White Temple to accommodate Portland women who register early and avoid a crush when the out-of-town delegates present their credentials.

The board of the Oregon Federation has planned an elaborate dinner party to be held at the Hotel Benson on Saturday night complimentary to the National board. Mrs. Pennybacker, the National president, will be honored at a luncheon on May 30 by Mrs. Solomon Hirsch. The formal opening of the convention will be the reception which will be held in the Hotel Multnomah on Monday night.

The programme for the various sessions includes: Monday Night, Reception at Hotel Multnomah. Tuesday Morning, Federation song; welcome, James Withcombe, Governor of Oregon; Report, Mayor of Portland; Mrs. Sarah A. Evans, president, Oregon Federation of Women's Clubs; "The Spirit of the Northwest," Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker; "My Best Wish for the Oregon Federation," members of the board; discussion.

Tuesday Afternoon, Congregational singing; "The Art of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition," Mrs. M. F. Johnston, Indiana, chairman of department; "Art in the States," chairman of the Federation art committee; "The Speaking Voice," Mrs. F. S. Wardwell, Connecticut, chairman music department; discussion; "The Bureau of Information," Mrs. Mary I. Wood, New Hampshire; discussion. Conferences, 4:15-5:30. State Federation presidents, Mrs. Pennybacker, presiding; chairmen of departments and of committees, Mrs. Sneath, presiding; General Federation state secretaries, Mrs. Frank White, presiding.

Tuesday Evening, Music messages from the General Federation state secretaries; "The General Federation Message," Mrs. Harry B. Bishop, Wales; "The Spirit of the Northwest," Dr. William T. Foster, president of Reed College, Portland.

Wednesday Morning, Congregational singing; civics department, Mrs. George Zimmerman, Ohio, chairman; in charge, "A General View," Mrs. James C. Wilson, Wisconsin; "What is a Citizen?" Mrs. E. Carter, Iowa; "The Problem of the Alienate," Mrs. D. L. Murray, Cincinnati; "Conservation," in charge of Mrs. John Dickinson Sherman, Chicago, chairman conservation department; "Home, Economics and the United States Department of Agriculture," Mrs. Elizabeth Claypool Earl, Indiana; "Home Economics in Oregon," Mrs. William M. Fear, Portland; question box, in charge, Miss Lillie E. Stearns, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Thursday Morning, "Every Woman's Road," a morality play by Professor Josephine Hammond, Reed College, Portland, a courtesy tendered to the officers and delegates by the club of Portland.

Congregational singing; "The Ideal Biennial," a discussion, led by Mrs. W. B. Young, Jacksonville, Florida; plans for the New York biennial, Mrs. Francis D. Everett, Illinois, chairman; programme committee, Miss Mary G. Hay, chairman biennial committee; "The Problem of the Alienate," Mrs. D. L. Murray, Cincinnati; "Conservation," in charge of Mrs. John Dickinson Sherman, Chicago, chairman conservation department; "Home, Economics and the United States Department of Agriculture," Mrs. Elizabeth Claypool Earl, Indiana; "Home Economics in Oregon," Mrs. William M. Fear, Portland; question box, in charge, Miss Lillie E. Stearns, Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Music recited by Portland music committee; "Women and the Peace Movement," Dr. David Starr Jordan, president Leland Stanford Junior University; song, "America"; adjournment.

Wages Commission; Dr. M. H. Marvin, Washington, Dr. Lillian C. Irwin, Seattle; "Prison Reform in the State of Washington," Governor Lister, Olympia; "How Can Women's Clubs Co-operate With Boards of Health in Disease Prevention?" Dr. Calvin S. White, secretary Oregon State Board of Health; discussion, led by Mrs. Elmer Blair, chairman public health department; General Federation Women's Clubs; "From the Field Chairman of the Endowment Fund," Mrs. W. K. James, St. Joseph, Missouri; "Reorganization and Revision," a discussion, led by Miss Mary G. Hay, New York; "From the Credentials Committee," Mrs. D. L. Murray, chairman courtesy resolutions.

Thursday Night, Music recited by Portland music committee; "Women and the Peace Movement," Dr. David Starr Jordan, president Leland Stanford Junior University; song, "America"; adjournment.

Wages Commission; Dr. M. H. Marvin, Washington, Dr. Lillian C. Irwin, Seattle; "Prison Reform in the State of Washington," Governor Lister, Olympia; "How Can Women's Clubs Co-operate With Boards of Health in Disease Prevention?" Dr. Calvin S. White, secretary Oregon State Board of Health; discussion, led by Mrs. Elmer Blair, chairman public health department; General Federation Women's Clubs; "From the Field Chairman of the Endowment Fund," Mrs. W. K. James, St. Joseph, Missouri; "Reorganization and Revision," a discussion, led by Miss Mary G. Hay, New York; "From the Credentials Committee," Mrs. D. L. Murray, chairman courtesy resolutions.

CLUBWOMEN BEGIN SESSIONS MONDAY

Souvenir Card Designed to Advertise Oregon Is Reproduction of Badge.

BIG PROGRAMME ARRANGED

Mrs. Percy Pennybacker Will Arrive on Saturday to Preside at Meeting of National Board—Dinner Arranged for Same Day.

For the meeting of the mid-biennial council of the General Federation of Women's Clubs which will be held here from next Monday to June 4, Portland will be the mecca of the most prominent clubwomen of the United States.

OFFICIAL POSTCARD FOR COUNCIL OF GENERAL FEDERATION OF WOMEN'S CLUBS. SOUVENIR DESIGNED TO ADVERTISE PORTLAND.

is made up of Mrs. Harriet C. Hendee, Mrs. J. W. Caldwell, Mrs. Carl Mordhorst and Mrs. Oscar D. Stanley.

Two boys, two girls, stolen auto, wreck, jail!

This was the sequence of events in an early morning joyride yesterday which ended in the jail for Frank Weber and Gus Holzer.

The automobile was the property of J. E. Schaepe, of 6046 Ruth avenue, Lent, and was stolen from the corner of Broadway and Taylor streets about 10 o'clock Monday night.

War Prisoner Sends Vote. A vote coupon cut from The Oregonian for Miss Elia Litzner came straying down to Portland from Yukon Territory yesterday, sent by a German subject held prisoner in war by the Canadian mounted police.

Lindon Bates Born Here. Lindon Bates, Jr., vice-chairman of the Commission for Relief in Belgium, who was one of those lost in the Lusitania disaster, was born in Portland, July 17, 1882.

Lusitania Victim and Belgian Relief Worker Native of Portland.

Philomath, Or., May 25.—(Special).—The largest crowd ever seen in Philomath attended the last day of the horse show and roundup at this place.

Philomath, Or., May 25.—(Special).—The first event of the day was an exhibition by the Corvallis fire company. Members of the company leaped out of the third-story window of the college building into the life-saving net; others slid down a rope.

Roses to be Exhibited. Sellwood Ladies' Auxiliary to Give Programme at Y. M. C. A.

The Sellwood Ladies' Auxiliary will conduct a rose exhibition and raise joyride leads to jail. Driver of car, halted by policeman, runs into curb and both youths are arrested.

War prisoner sends vote. Festival coupon arrives from Yukon District too late.

Lindon Bates born here. Lusitania victim and Belgian relief worker native of Portland.

Philomath show draws. Rancher and student win prizes in riding contests.

Roses to be exhibited. Sellwood ladies' auxiliary to give programme at Y. M. C. A.

Philomath show draws. Rancher and student win prizes in riding contests.

Roses to be exhibited. Sellwood ladies' auxiliary to give programme at Y. M. C. A.

Philomath show draws. Rancher and student win prizes in riding contests.

Roses to be exhibited. Sellwood ladies' auxiliary to give programme at Y. M. C. A.

Philomath show draws. Rancher and student win prizes in riding contests.

Roses to be exhibited. Sellwood ladies' auxiliary to give programme at Y. M. C. A.

Philomath show draws. Rancher and student win prizes in riding contests.

Roses to be exhibited. Sellwood ladies' auxiliary to give programme at Y. M. C. A.

Today Is "Red Letter Day" in Premium Parlors on the 4th Floor. 10 Green Trading Stamps Given Free to All Visitors—Bring Your Book.

Olds, Wortman & King. Reliable Merchandise—Reliable Methods. Pacific Phone Marshall 4800. Home Phone A 6231.

Department Managers' Competitive Sale And Annual June White Sale

Women's $25 Coats. On Sale Today for $11.89. 25c Stationery At 19c. $1.50 Sandals 98c. Hair Switches At 98c. $3.50 B. & J. Corsets $1.98.

Men's $15 and $20 Suits. Fancy Silks $1.69. Women's 35c Vests 25c.

Glenwood Butter 53c. Girls' 85c Dresses At 49c. Long Cloth $1.18.

65c Guimpes 43c. Sale of Garden Needs. Basement Underprice Store.

65c Guimpes 43c. Sale of Garden Needs. Basement Underprice Store.

65c Guimpes 43c. Sale of Garden Needs. Basement Underprice Store.

65c Guimpes 43c. Sale of Garden Needs. Basement Underprice Store.

65c Guimpes 43c. Sale of Garden Needs. Basement Underprice Store.

65c Guimpes 43c. Sale of Garden Needs. Basement Underprice Store.

65c Guimpes 43c. Sale of Garden Needs. Basement Underprice Store.

65c Guimpes 43c. Sale of Garden Needs. Basement Underprice Store.

65c Guimpes 43c. Sale of Garden Needs. Basement Underprice Store.

65c Guimpes 43c. Sale of Garden Needs. Basement Underprice Store.

65c Guimpes 43c. Sale of Garden Needs. Basement Underprice Store.