BRITISH EMPIRE DAY IS OBSERVED HERE

Ex-Residents of England and Allied Countries Join in Patriotic Celebration.

STARS AND STRIPES FIRST

American Emblem Flutters Above Speakers' Platform, While Flags of Others Decorate Walls of Great Hall of Armory.

Natives of Great Britain and all her forces yesterday on the Turkish posi-tions near Seddul Bahr, on the south-ern end of Gallipoli Peninsula, had United States gathered in great num-been repulsed. It is stated the allies bers at the Armory Monday to celeobserved every May 24 as Queen Victoria's birthday.

Mingled in the great crowd were many former residents of France, Russia, Italy, Belgium and the other nations allied with the British Empire in the present war.

The British flag was prominently displayed in the great hall, but the Stars and Strips had the place of honor above the speakers' platform. Ameri-can flags also were sprinkled with profusion through the other decorations, which included flags of all na-tions now allied with England. It was a patriotic gathering in which the love and patriotism for England the love and patriotic gathering the the love and patriotism for England was placed second only to that for America. Oratory and music combined to inspire new enthusiasm for the mother country and to strengthen the confidence that everyone felt in the ultimate success of the allied arms in the present conflict.

Selections Make Audience Joyous. The celebration was conducted under the auspices of the Associated British Societies and was in charge of E. W. Matthews as chairman. Mr. Matthews opened the exercises by extending a brief note of welcome to the crowd and urging everyone to join in the spirit of the evening. he evening.

The audience at once was set in good And addence at once was set in good humor by the admirable selections of J. H. Macdonald, David Gray and Walter Loch on the bagpipes. This was followed by contraits solos by Mrs. Harold Bayley, First she sang "War" and then "The Land of Hope and Glory."

One of the principal addresses of the one of the principal addresses of the evening was delivered by Colonel Emmett Calahan. He spoke on "British Civilization," and recounted how many of the marvelous inventions and improvements in the world of art and science generally credited to the present eventions of Francisco Colonia. ent enemies of England really origi-nated on the British Isles.

He declared that Great Britain al-ways holds out a haven of refuge for the downtrodden and oppressed of the downtrodden and oppressed of other nations and that the British Em-pire in reality is a land of freedom.

Crowd Joins in "Tipperary." Among the pleasing musical num-ers were the tenor solos by Barry Murphy, whose selections were The Dear Little Shamrock" and "Macushln."

The crowd went wild with delight when E. Maldwyn Evans sang "King Charles" and "Nelson." They demanded an encore and he sang "Tipperary." The people started to applaud even when the planist struck the first note. Under Mr. Evans' direction the entire assemblage joined in the chorus. Miss Nona Lawler, in evident good favor with the crowd, was greeted with vigorous applause when she came upon the platform. With a clear soprano With a clear soprano the platform. With a clear soprano voice she sang, to the loudly expressed approval of everyone, "Kiliarney" and then "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling." r months. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a tempoon-ful is all that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly and rinses ou easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and Should Read the Following Letter-Mrs. Slack's Story About Her Child's Recovery Is Entirely Reliable.

Palmyra, Pa.—"Three years ago my little girf had black measles which left her with a chronic cough and so aw-fully thin you could count all her ribs, and she coughed so much she had no appetite.

Nothing we gave her seemed to help her at all until one day Mrs. Neibert told me how much good Vino) had done her little girl, so I decided to try it for my little one, and it has done her so much good she is hungry all the time, her cough is gone, she is stouter and more healthy in color and this is the first Winter she has been able to play out in the show, coasting and snow-balling without any ill effects."
