Clark was tried last week on the same charge and the jury was deadlocked, 6 to 6 at the end of nine hours. The accused man was chairman of the election board in precinct 27, where 126 ballots were found to have been changed in favor of Tom M. Ward for Sheriff.

RESTRICTED DISTRICT ASKED.—Residents of the Piedmont district have asked the Council to prohibit the erection of stables in the territory embraced by Almsworth and Killingsworth avenues and East Eleventh and East Fourteenth streets. Commissioner Dieck has recommended that the Council grant the petition. This territory is purely a residence section and the residents desire to guard against future intrusion of stables.

KELSO SCHOOL CLOSURE.—The Kelso school, near Cottrell, closed for the year Friday. Saturday evening Judge W. N. Gatens, formerly of the Portland Juvenile Court, lectured to the parents of the district on the work of the juvenile court of Portland. He pointed out that the responsibility for the misdeeds of children largely rests on parents, and that with them rests the question of doing away with the juvenile courts in this country. He commended the work of the Parent-Teacher Association, and said that every district should have an association of parents. Refreshments were served. The meeting was the last for the school year. Promotion exercises will be held for the eighth grade students on June 5. Mrs. J. Barnum, residing in the district, was re-elected principal, and Miss Erickson assistant. Mrs. Barnum plans to conduct half day school sessions for another month, without pay, for the benefit of children who are in need of instruction.

TWO CHARGED WITH ASSAULT.—When Deputy Constable Barney McCarthy tried to serve a court order on S. F. and E. J. White in a South Portland street yesterday, the two men seized him by the shoulders and tried to eject him from the car, declares the officer. McCarthy arrested both men and charged them with assault. They will be tried before District Judge Dayton today. The papers which McCarthy served on the men were court orders commanding them to appear in a District Court suit against them for the recovery of a small sum. The Whites, who are father and son, objected to the service being made on a streetcar.

JEFFERSON "SING" TONIGHT.—Jefferson High School students are giving a "community sing" tonight at 8:15 in the high school auditorium under the leadership of Professor W. H. Boyer, for the benefit of the glue club and to arouse interest in the work of the school. Miss Frances Peas, soprano, and Harry Hammer, baritone, will be the soloists.

ALBERT B. STONE IMPROVES.—Reports yesterday from Albert B. Stone, who was stabbed by Eli Parker last Friday at the St. Johns near Gresham, were to the effect that he is recovering. LOCAL HOUSE FACES A CRISIS

Portland's Player Piano House Compelled to Make Great Sacrifice.

It seems a shame to cut down a business at this time to the extent that is necessary, but I have left nothing undone and cannot help myself.

The owners of $40,000 of the preferred stock of my company want their money. I have been trying to place it elsewhere, but no one seems willing to invest in a prosperous, though not the very largest wholesale and retail piano business. I have always been on a strictly cash basis. I cannot borrow the money now to pay off this $40,000, so I must take the money out of my business.

By selling out a large portion of stock on hand and doing it quickly, I know I can win out. I know that a big sacrifice is necessary to induce piano buying now, but I am willing to make the sacrifice. I'll make extraordinary concessions for cash—less than cost—and for anyone buying on time will charge only a very little extra.

I have better pianos, grade for grade, than any other piano house in the city, because I personally select my stock. Let no one say that such and such an instrument is better, or more valuable than anything in my house. It is not true.

I have Sohmers and Behning grands and uprights and player pianos. No concern in America makes anything finer. I will take $143 for some of my brand new pianos.

For $155 I will sell them on time, say $15 down and $7 a month.

Heilig, ranks with the best advance sales of the season of the city. The new prices, according to Mr. Fangle, will prove a success in this line at least. Of the interest shown to date he says:

"We have had a remarkably gratifying response to the venture in holding the sale down to $1. We have had to do a little explaining that this was not a moving picture, but a regular production. The people are as a result taking unusual interest in the play. The night prices range from 25 cents in the gallery to $1 downstairs and the matinee prices from 25 to 75 cents."

JURORS RESENT CHARGE
 TWO ASK TO BE EXCUSED BECAUSE OF JUDGE MCGINN.

Members of Jury, censured for Small Damage Verdict, Say Court's Words Insulting.

"I feel that I have been insulted by Judge McGinn," and I want to be excused from further jury duty," declared Hugh M. McGinn, a juror in the Davis' court yesterday. "We did as our consciences dictated in the case in Judge McGinn's court yesterday. I have lived in Portland 16 years and my integrity never has been questioned. This is the first time I ever was called to serve on a jury during all this time. I came here against my will and served the county as best I could, and only to be insulted."

Mr. Glen was a member of the jury that Judge McGinn severely censured Monday morning for bringing in a verdict for $85 for L. Jennings, who had sued the Multnomah Hotel Company for $500 because he had fallen on the broken sidewalk and injured his leg. Judge McGinn did not think $85 was enough damages.

Judge McGinn's remarks were seconded by H. R. Beckwith, another juror, who also took exception to Judge McGinn's arraignment of the jury and asked to be excused.

Judge Davis, in whose court the two jurors were called yesterday morning, said he would excuse them if they desired after they had completed the case on which they were called yesterday.

STREET WORK PROJECTED
 East Alder, East Water, East Clay and Others to Be Paved.

East Alder street is to be paved from East Water street to Union avenue. Preparations are being made to lay stone blocks on East Water from East Washington to East Oak, at a cost of $11,000. East Thirty-second street will be improved from the north line of Gladstone avenue to the north line of Francis avenue, in Kenilworth, at a cost of $21,880.

Preparations have been completed for the paving of East Clay from East Water to East Eleventh street and East Seventh from East Grant street to Hawthorne avenue, at a cost of about $35,000.

Grand avenue is being paved across the hill made several years ago in Brooklyn ravine, between East Grant and Jackson streets.

I will sell very fine brand new player pianos for $230, and for $255 I will sell on payments of $35 down and $11 a month, twenty months, nearly two years, to finish paying for a piano or a player piano.

This is a bona fide, help-me-quick offer.

I have some used pianos, too, and good ones. Will take $65 for a Steinway piano, $55 for a Fischer, $80 for a good reliable W. W. Kimball.

Everything else, including baby grands, at same rate of reduction.

My offer is genuine; no one can say these figures are high. There are plenty of families who need pianos; there are plenty of people with money who can pay me the cash; but all can buy now because I'll sell on easiest payments.

If I don't act quickly I jeopardize my business. Come at once, or telephone or let me send you catalogues. I haven't any agents or traveling men. You are dealing with the head of the house, the man who has built this business up to its present success and wants to remain identified with Portland and Oregon and the music trade for all time to come. My guarantee is as good as anybody's. It is issued by the factories and countersigned by me. We have hundreds upon hundreds of satisfied customers and, even though we don't make a dollar of profit in this emergency, we are going to take just as good care of the interests of buyers now as we have in the past.

Store open nights, till late closes.
