"Although we have already contributed to the fund for the year of 1915, we take pleasure in inclosing herewith additional check for $5 to help carry on the good work."

The above letter came to the Associated Charities yesterday from a prominent firm in Portland in response to the appeal for additional funds with which to extend its work through the Summer. The unusual conditions of this year have made the demands upon the Charities so exceptional that unless the organization can procure a fund of $5000 it will be necessary for it to close its relief bureaus during the Summer months.

An appeal to the public was made a few days ago, and in response to this appeal contributions are coming in with encouraging rapidity.
