MRS. SCHOFF TARGET

Mrs. Kelley Assails Head of Mothers' Congress.

SELF-INTEREST INTIMATED

Secretary of Consumers' League Declares Resolution "Letting Down Bars" for Children in Shops is Act of False Friend.

"There are no enemies so terrible as false friends," Mrs. Frederic Schoff has been a traitor to child welfare." So said Mrs. Florence Kelley, general secretary of the Consumers' League, yesterday, when told of the resolutions that had been adopted at the recent convention of the National Congress of Mothers held here. Her indignation was directed toward the president of this organization.
Mrs. Kelley was the guest of honor at the luncheon given by the Professional Woman's League in the Hotel Benson. She had just completed an interesting address on the work of the Consumers' League, when Mrs. Millie Trumbull asked her what she thought of the action of the "mothers" in "letting down the bars" regarding the employment of children. The league which Mrs. Kelley represents is striving to secure legislation that shall keep little children from working in factories, sweatshops, canneries and other places that endanger their health, morals and opportunities for education.
Action Dubbed "Unspeakeable."
"It is unspeakable to think that an organization with such a fetching name as 'National Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations' should block the progress we are trying to gain. I was at one time a member of this congress," said Mrs. Kelley, "but I resigned because of the insistence of Mrs. Schoff to let down the bars and open the way for children to labor in factories. I will tell you that I am ashamed of Mrs. Frederic Schoff, who is from my home state, Pennsylvania. Her family has certain factories, and in them are employed children. Her fight has been against the work of the Consumers' League. Through the organization she heads and through the Association for Labor Legislation of New York, both false friends, we have lost ground."
Mrs. Kelley's words created a decided stir among her hearers. She urged the teachers who are connected in name with the Congress of Mothers to protest against those resolutions. If the suggestions made after Mrs. Kelley's talk are carried out the question will come up before the National Educational Association at its convention in Oakland in August and before many other organizations.

Resolutions Cause Stir.
The principles suggested by the Congress of Mothers, which were the cause of the expressed indignation of Mrs. Kelley were these:
Safe Occupations Few.
The Consumers' League contends that ever so many occupations termed "not dangerous" are in reality bad in results and that children should be debarred from them. Mrs. Kelley explained that in some states everything "is safe, except working in a sawmill."
Miss Blanche Luckey presided at the luncheon in the absence of the president, Mrs. Susie Fennell Pipes, who is in the East.
Mrs. Kelley spoke in the afternoon at a large meeting at the home of Mrs. W. J. Hawkins, 571 Myrtle street. Presidents of nearly all the women's clubs in the city and leaders in women's activities were among those who heard the distinguished speaker. She said that last summer she made elaborate preparations to convert the Congressional Union for Woman's Suffrage and when she went to their meetings and studied the facts she herself was converted and is now a member of their advisory board. She had always been a strong advocate for universal suffrage, but until she learned facts she had not accepted the method of holding the party in power responsible.

President's Attitude Assailed.
"Mr. Wilson, as a man, I admire for many of his qualifications," said Mrs. Kelley, "but his attitude toward women who want suffrage is intolerable. For 27 years some of the Eastern women have worked for suffrage. The president went to Pennsylvania to talk to 4000 newly naturalized citizens and he spoke well, but he will not even receive a petition from the women, the intelligent, well educated women, who ask for the privilege that is given to men of every type, bad and ignorant as well as good and able. The women of the West have this privilege. We come to you with hands outstretched, pleading for your help. Will you give us a little help?"
Miss Virginia Arnold and Mrs. Hawkins made brief addresses.
In the morning Mrs. Kelley addressed a large gathering of students at Reed College with "Third-Class Children of the Republic" as her subject.

At the Library a crowd of several hundred greeted Mrs. Kelley. Her subject for the closing address was "Courts and Consumers." She dealt with the struggles for legislation that should protect the consumer and the workers. In all her addresses Mrs. Kelley mentioned the official label of the "Consumers' League" as the badge that insured right conditions of manufacture for the article sold and a safe value for the purchaser.
She left at midnight for San Francisco. While here Mrs. Kelley was the guest of Mrs. W. B. Ayer, who entertained at dinner for the visitor, asking a few prominent men and women as additional guests.
Submarines Pursue Steamer.
MAASLUIS, Holland, via London, May 26.—The British steamer Imber arrived here today from Liverpool and reports that she was pursued by two German submarines in the vicinity of the North Hinder lighthouse in the North Sea.

OAKS REOPENS TONIGHT

PERFORMANCES SUSPENDED BECAUSE OF RAIN TO RESUME.

Rhododendron Bloom Reported Better Than Ever and Roses Soon Will Be in Their Full Glory.

All performances at The Oaks Amusement Park, that have been suspended since Sunday by John F. Corray, managing director, owing to the inclement weather conditions, will be resumed in full tonight, rain or shine. The park, practically will reopen for the season. There will be complete band concerts, a full programme by the Boston Troubadours and other free attractions.
"For 25 years, to my knowledge, the rain links has hovered over every one of my enterprises," said Mr. Corray. "This business of being meek and mild must end somewhere, so now I shall defy Dame Nature and perhaps I shall have better luck."
"I have the consolation. The rain has done wonders for the lawns and flower-beds at The Oaks. I believe there never has been a year in which our great banks of rhododendrons have looked so beautiful, and while the rain has injured the roses a little, in a day or two they will be more beautiful than ever. The gardener tells me that with only one or two exceptions, he has specimens of almost every known variety of rose, either growing or ready for transplanting, in The Oaks."
The automobile road into The Oaks has been repaired, and with the exception of a brief stretch from Spokane avenue there is a hard-surface road all the way from Portland.

NEW OFFICERS IN CHARGE

Changes Due to Police Chief's Absence and 6 Captains' Illness.

As the result of the absence of Chief Clark, who is in California recovering from an attack of la grippe, and the illness of two of the three police captains in the employ of the City of Portland, there is a new set of acting officers at police headquarters. Detective Captain Baty is acting chief of police and Police Sergeant Thatcher and Delaney are acting captains, the former on the day and the latter on the first night relief.

Though still confined to his home with an attack of rheumatism, Police Captain H. A. Circle was about yesterday and probably will return to his duties in a few days. He fainted while on duty Monday night.
Captain John T. Moore still is in the Good Samaritan Hospital, convalescing from a slight attack of pneumonia.
Man's Arm Crushed in Mill.
