

CITY NEWS IN BRIEF

OREGONIAN TELEPHONES. Managing Editor, Main 7070. A 6005. City Editor, Main 7070. A 6005. Sunday Editor, Main 7070. A 6005. Advertising Department, Main 7070. A 6005. City Circulation, Main 7070. A 6005. Composing Room, Main 7070. A 6005. Printing Room, Main 7070. A 6005. Superintendent, Building, Main 7070. A 6005.

AMUSEMENTS. REHEARSAL—Broadway at Taylor—Spectacular film, "The Wolf," and miscellaneous films. LYRIC—(Fourth and Stark) Moving pictures and vaudeville. COLUMBIAN—(Broadway and Stark) Concert band and vaudeville.

REHEARSAL—Broadway at Alder—Performance, 2:30 P. M. EMPRESS—(Broadway and Yamhill)—Performance, 7:30 and 9:15 P. M. Motion Picture Theaters. ORPHEUM—Broadway and Stark. NATIONAL—Park, West Park, near Washington. PEOPLES—West Park, near Alder. MAJESTIC—Park and Washington. NEW STAR—Broadway and Stark. SUNSET THEATER—Broadway and Washington.

PASTOR'S RESIGNATION TO BE CONSIDERED.—A meeting of the congregation of the Third Presbyterian Church, East Park and East Thirtieth streets, will be held tonight to consider the resignation of Rev. A. L. Hutchison, the pastor, which was placed in the hands of the church session last Sunday. If the resignation is accepted, the pastor, which was placed in the hands of the church session last Sunday. If the resignation is accepted, the pastor, which was placed in the hands of the church session last Sunday.

KNIGHTS TEMPLARS INITIATION TONIGHT.—The past eminent commanders of Oregon Commandery No. 1, of the Knights Templar, tonight will hold the Order of the Temple upon the largest class that yet has been initiated in this state. It is expected that D. B. Grant, grand commander of the State of Oregon, and L. G. Clarke, deputy grand commander, will be present with their staffs. The past commanders who are to handle the ceremony will act in the following order: H. J. Boyd, eminent commander; D. W. Taylor, generalissimo; L. D. Freedland, captain general; E. C. Tomasi, senior warden; F. A. Vankirk, junior warden; A. Thurlow, prelate, and J. A. Demmon, warden.

SENATOR TO SPEAK TO REALTY MEN.—Senator Chamberlain will deliver an after-luncheon address before the Portland Realty Club at 12:15 o'clock in the new dining-room at 12-15 first floor of the Commercial Club. J. Wilcox will act as chairman of the day. Fred A. Coward, secretary of the realty board, announces that the public generally is invited to attend the luncheon.

PAIR PARTY TO VISIT HERE.—The Record Printing Company, of Windsor, Ontario, Canada, has arranged a visiting party to visit Portland on their way to San Francisco. The party will reach Portland on Wednesday, June 23, and will remain in Portland until the following day. The party will be in charge of W. H. Adams, circulation manager of the Windsor Record, and Mrs. Adams.

BAPTIST DELEGATES TO VISIT.—Delegates returning from the Baptist Church conference in progress in Los Angeles will stop in Portland on their way to their homes. The delegates will arrive over the Southern Pacific at 7:30 in the morning and remain here all day. The delegates are preparing to entertain the party of approximately 55 persons. They will leave here in two special sleepers Tuesday night over the Portland Northern for Seattle and the East.

MARRIAGES TO VISIT CHERRY GROVE.—A large party of marriages will leave Portland Sunday morning over the Southern Pacific for Cherry Grove, where they will walk across the mountains to another connection with the railroad. The excursionists will go by the Southern Pacific to Patten, where they will travel over the Willamette Valley and Coast railroad to Cherry Grove.

GRESHAM ALUMNI TO ORGANIZE.—Invitations have been issued to the graduates of the Gresham high school to meet here next Wednesday to organize an alumni association. The senior class this year has taken the initiative steps for this organization. The Gresham high school was organized ten years ago and there are 97 graduates who are eligible to membership.

DR. JORDAN TO LECTURE.—Dr. David Jordan, the noted educator, lecturer and peace advocate, and head of Leland Stanford University will deliver an address on "War and the Future of the World," at a dinner to be given in his honor at the University Club. A large attendance of club members, particularly Leland Stanford men, is expected.

LINEMAN IN RAID LOSSES JOB.—An order was handed down by the Municipal Civil Service Board yesterday commanding the dismissal from the service of J. L. Ambrose, a lineman. He was charged with conducting himself in an unbecomingly disorderly manner at a party at the Troutdale for disorderly conduct. He was dismissed by Mayor Albion.

PAVING BIDS OPENED.—Bids for paving contracts aggregating about $20,000 were opened by the City Council yesterday. The bids were for the district improvement of portions of Twenty-eighth street, Uphur street and Twenty-ninth street, and for the paving of East Twenty-second street from Sandy boulevard to Oregon street.

BIDS OPENED JUNE 9.—The annual auxiliary bazaar of the Sellwood Young Men's Christian Association will be held at the Sellwood Park, June 21, with races, music and a big dinner. In July a lawn social will be held on the grounds of the Sellwood Young Men's Christian Association. Report of the treasurer showed $30 on hand. The relief committee reported that several families had been helped the past month. Mrs. W. D. Palmer, president, announced the appointment of Mrs. E. R. Elbert as corresponding secretary, which the members confirmed by a unanimous vote several new members were admitted.

CHAMBER TO SEND ROSES.—Besides the 3000 roses that are to be sent by the Portland camp of Spanish War Veterans in Spokane for Memorial day, there will be sent by the Portland Chamber of Commerce more than 1000 roses to be used in the ceremonies of the second Spanish War veterans' camp in Spokane, which is known as the Veterans of Foreign Wars. George W. Meard is in the lead of this camp. The Chamber of Commerce will ship its roses Saturday night to Spokane and has issued a request for all of its members to contribute an able number of roses as they can secure or spare at the Chamber tomorrow and Saturday for shipment to Spokane.

POSTMASTERS ARE ENTHUSIASTIC.—Many letters continue to be received by Postmaster Myers, of Portland, from second and third class throughout Oregon, saying they will attend the celebration in connection to be held here during the Rose Festival, June 9, 10 and 11. The festival is proving an especial attraction. A good many of the postmasters who have been here in Festival week and plan not only to come themselves, but to bring their families. One purpose of the convention is to organize a permanent First, Second and Third-Class Postmasters' Association of Oregon.

MRS. MARY DAVIDSON'S FUNERAL HELD.—Funeral services of Mrs. Mary E. Davidson, who died at her home, 423 Commercial street, on Monday, were conducted yesterday from Zeller Chapel, 304 Williams avenue. Interment was in Multnomah cemetery, Rev. J. S. Linger, pastor of the Highland Congregational Church, officiated. Mrs. Davidson was 53 years of age. She came across the plains to Oregon with her parents in 1861 and had lived in Portland since. She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Hazel Keene, and a son, R. L. Davidson, besides two grandchildren, Ruth and Fay Davidson.

NEAL R. CROUNSE, clerk of the Municipal Court, bought a motorboat last week. He disregarded the cardinal rule in purchasing a boat, that "a boat should float." A leak in the motorboat resulted, but the boat was saved. When the seams, which had opened during its long absence from water, are caulked up, the boat will be all right. Crouse admits this much.

GRAND JURY TO REPORT.—The Federal grand jury which began its work last Monday probably will make its report today or tomorrow. Several indictments are known to have been returned, there is a hot true bill on the calendar that they are expected to finish up all their work in two weeks.

MILK COMMISSION CREATED.—The City Council yesterday passed an ordinance creating a medical milk commission to cooperate with the National Milk Commission in the examination of certified milk. The commission will examine dairies and of the milk produced at plants seeking to become certified dairies. The commission will have exclusive power.

MR. BAKER IN NORTH PORTLAND TODAY.—George L. Baker, candidate for City Commissioner, will speak at the North Portland Library by invitation tonight. There will also be music and other entertainment features on the programme. Mr. Baker is being kept busy responding to requests to speak informally before various organizations and in his campaign work generally.

SKUNKS RANCH AT VICTORY.—Harry Meard secured a colony of skunks on his ranch, near Vesper, on the eastern part of the county and will engage in the fur-raising business. He already has five old and 12 young skunks. His enterprise attracts much attention from a distance among neighbors.

HOLY EUCARIST CELEBRATION SET.—Today being the first anniversary of the death of Bishop Scadding, late Bishop of the Diocese of Oregon, there will be a celebration of the Holy Eucharist at the Cathedral, Thirtieth and Clay streets, at 8 o'clock, Bishop Summer being the celebrant.

HISPANO-AMERICAN SOCIETY TO MEET.—The Hispano-American Society of Oregon will meet in Hall A at the Central Library tonight at 8 o'clock. In addition to the regular programme, a discussion in Spanish of dressmaking will be held.

WORK TO START EARLY.—Roadmaster expects to have crews busy week after awards made. Wood blocks may be used on two miles of new road. Bids for paving 73 miles of highway in Multnomah County under the $1,250,000 contract will be opened by the County Commissioners at 11 o'clock June 3, the first day of the Rose Festival. If awards are made at once Roadmaster Yeon expects to have paving operations in full swing within a week afterward.

ROADMASTER EXPECTS TO HAVE CREWS BUSY WEEK AFTER AWARDS MADE.—Wood blocks may be used on two miles of new road. Bids for paving 73 miles of highway in Multnomah County under the $1,250,000 contract will be opened by the County Commissioners at 11 o'clock June 3, the first day of the Rose Festival. If awards are made at once Roadmaster Yeon expects to have paving operations in full swing within a week afterward.

ADVERTISEMENTS FOR THIS PAVEMENT.—The last preliminary in the way of advertising for bids was cleared away at a meeting of the Commissioners yesterday. Specifications for 12 types of pavement were approved and ordered advertised and a form of separate contracts, under which contractors will bid at nominal sums to maintain the roads they have laid, for five years beyond the five-year term of the construction contracts, also was agreed upon and ordered advertised concurrently with advertisements of the specifications, but separately from them.

QUALITY and ECONOMY GO HAND IN HAND. It Pays to Buy the Best. Our Quality Stock Stands for the Best. Our Prices are Right.

COURT CLERK BUYS BOAT BUT IT FAILS TO FLOAT.—Neal R. Crouse, clerk of the Municipal Court, bought a motorboat last week. He disregarded the cardinal rule in purchasing a boat, that "a boat should float." A leak in the motorboat resulted, but the boat was saved.

GRAND JURY TO REPORT.—The Federal grand jury which began its work last Monday probably will make its report today or tomorrow. Several indictments are known to have been returned, there is a hot true bill on the calendar that they are expected to finish up all their work in two weeks.

MILK COMMISSION CREATED.—The City Council yesterday passed an ordinance creating a medical milk commission to cooperate with the National Milk Commission in the examination of certified milk. The commission will examine dairies and of the milk produced at plants seeking to become certified dairies.

MR. BAKER IN NORTH PORTLAND TODAY.—George L. Baker, candidate for City Commissioner, will speak at the North Portland Library by invitation tonight. There will also be music and other entertainment features on the programme.

SKUNKS RANCH AT VICTORY.—Harry Meard secured a colony of skunks on his ranch, near Vesper, on the eastern part of the county and will engage in the fur-raising business.

HOLY EUCARIST CELEBRATION SET.—Today being the first anniversary of the death of Bishop Scadding, late Bishop of the Diocese of Oregon, there will be a celebration of the Holy Eucharist at the Cathedral, Thirtieth and Clay streets, at 8 o'clock, Bishop Summer being the celebrant.

HISPANO-AMERICAN SOCIETY TO MEET.—The Hispano-American Society of Oregon will meet in Hall A at the Central Library tonight at 8 o'clock. In addition to the regular programme, a discussion in Spanish of dressmaking will be held.

Sunset Theater Commencing Today Special Notice Regardless of the action of the Board of Censors, which has taken the case into court, we positively will show that famous

2-Act Keystone Comedy Gussle Rivals Jonah Don't miss it—Thursday, Friday, Saturday, featuring "Fatty" Alexander, the Portland boy, and Two Other Big Acts.

In the Purple Hills Vivian Rich and Hary von Meter in a great two-act drama of the ways of justice. Eleven-Thirty P. M. An absorbing two-act detective story, featuring Sam De Grasse and Loretta Blake.

Sunset Theater Washington at Broadway

QUALITY and ECONOMY GO HAND IN HAND. It Pays to Buy the Best. Our Quality Stock Stands for the Best. Our Prices are Right. L. MAYER & CO. 148 Third Street A 4432 Main 9432

We Encourage New Depositors. Many people hesitate about opening a bank account, thinking their knowledge of business too limited or probably they consider the amount of money they have too small.

The United States National Bank THIRD AND OAK STREETS, PORTLAND, OR. Capital and Surplus $2,000,000

NO "SALE" AT JIMMY'S. No "Fire Sale," "Removal Sale," "Bankrupt Sale" or any other "Sale" at Jimmy Dunn's upstairs clothing store.

Your Watch Cleaned and Repaired for One Dollar Work guaranteed. This special offer is good until June 30, and applies to any watch that is worth cleaning, or can be made to run. Bring in your watch today before you forget the time limit.

LOCAL HOUSE FACES A CRISIS Portland's Player Piano House Compelled to Make Great Sacrifice. It seems a shame to cut down a business at this time to the extent that is necessary, but I have left nothing undone and cannot help myself.

I have better pianos, grade for grade, than any other piano house in the city. Because I personally select my stock. Let no one say that such and such an instrument is better, or more valuable than anything in my house. It is not true.

Summer Excursion Rates To the East and Return On sale daily May 15 to September 30. Final return limit October 31.

See America First! GREAT NORTHERN RAILWAY. Glacier National Park. Portland Rose Festival, June 9, 10, 11. Reduced Rates.

Hotel Carlton Fourteenth and Washington Streets. Rooms, with bath, $1.50 day. Rooms, without bath, $1 day.

Bellevue Hotel. 15 minutes to Exposition without transfer. Built of concrete and steel. Private bath to every room.

WANTED CHAIRS TO RECANE. School for the Adult Blind. 11th and Davis.

THE PEERLESS WEED DESTROYER. Now is the time to kill Dandelions, Thistles and other lawn weeds.

SOL DUC HOT SPRINGS AND SANATORIUM. The greatest health and pleasure resort on the Pacific Coast, in the heart of the Olympic Mountains.