Campaign.

Lerman-Speaking Society, at a meeting today petitioned President Wilson to call an extra session of Congress to invest him with power to prevent such shipments. The society is composed of 83 members, all of whom it was said favored sending the petition to the President. Copies of it also will be sent to the United States Senators and Representatives in Congress of Oregon.

Delegates to the convention of the Congress to the center of the extending the petition being expressed at the ex-United States Land Office receiver's appointment. Delegates to the convention of the State German-Speaking Society, to be need in Portland in a few days, were instructed to offer a similar resolution.

August Kehrberger, a contractor, is Dr. Foster of Reed College to D. president of the Salem Society.

On August 1, you issued a noble document setting forth the dovernment's views on non-trainty. This spiendid statement met with the full approval of all American citizens who would like to see this country live up to the words of this declaration. We, the up-

We, the uncreased, are led by wish to be of assistance to you in indicating what the people of inseries want, namely, in your own words: "We must put the curb on every transacton which might give a preference to one ariy in the struggle over another."

Our further reasons for this petition are: 13. Weekey's book on international law age: "If the neutral, instead of wheat, of this would send powder or balls, cannons or files, this would be a direct encouragement of war and so a departure from the neutral proclamation forbidding the export of rms and anunition to Mexico.
