GRANGERS PREPARE PLANS

Programme for State Meeting at Centralia This Week Arranged.

CENTRALIA, Wash, May 31.—(Special)—The 1915 meeting of the State Grange will open in Centralia tomorrow and continue until Friday. The advance guard of delegates, including Sinte Master Kegley and Secretary Lewis, have established headquarters.
According to Secretary Lewis, among the subjects to be discussed at the coming session will be the amendment of the game laws so as to abolish the protection of pheasants and to establish a bounty on coveres, the recognition of marketing farm products along the lines of a bill killed in the last Legislature, opposition to an enlarged American Army and Navy and the creation by Congress of a Federal commission to handle all public domains.
