CHINESE VISITORS TO BE ENTERTAINED

Chamber of Commerce Plans to Extend Great Welcome to Touring Party.

COMMITTEE IS SELECTED

ayor and Governor May Be Asked to Name Delegates on Body to Honor Members of Trade Extension Commission.

Entertainment on a lavish scale is to be provided by the Portland Chamber of Commerce and city and state officials for the party of Chinese merchants and financiers who will visit the city Monday, June 20.

The trade and commerce bureau of The trade and commerce obtent of the tempor-the Chamber has appointed a tempor-ary committee, composed of E. L. Thompson, F. C. Enapp and H. B. Miller, to prepare a suggestive pro-gramme of procedure. It is probable that this committee will recommend the committee of a fount committee the appointment of a joint committee by the Chamber of Commerce, the Mayor and the Governor. The mission of the Chinese visitors is

The mission of the Chinese visitors is primarily to promote trade relations between China and the United States. The party, composed of about 25 per-sons, is touring the Eastern half of the United States and is being greeted. with elaborate displays of hospitality everywhere everywhere.

Visit Is Being Returned.

Their trip is intended to repay the compliment of a trade extension tour conducted by the Pacific Coast com-mercial organizations to China a few years ago. O. M. Clark represented the Portland commercial bodies on that organization that occasion.

that occasion. It is probable that a banquet and formal reception will be arranged in honor of the visitors, but they already have served notice upon the local com-mittee that they don't want to waste much time with social functions. They want to see some of the principal local industries and learn something of local business conditions. They of local business conditions. Their trip, they have explained, is primarily husiness mison.

Industries to Be Shown.

Among the points of interest that they will be shown will be some of the big lumber mills, the paper mills at Oregon City, the meat packing plants, the woolen mills, some of the nearby dairies and other typical Oreplants, gon industrial plants. They have expressed a desire to learn as much as possible of local agricultural conditions, and efforts will be made to satisfy them in this particular.

Among the visitors will be some of Among the visitors will be some of the principal business men of China. At the head of the party is Chang Chen Haun, sometimes known as the John D. Rockefeller of China. He is 74 years old, but alert and active and a mighty power in Chinese financial affairs. He is a diplomat and a states-man, as well as a business man, and has held numerous positions of honor and trust in the Chinese government.

Names Are Given. The complete list of those in the party is as follows:
