REPUBLICAN CHANGE LIES IN RIGHT MAN

Washington Newspaper Man Advises Against Conservative Presidential Nominee.

PROGRESSIVES ARE FIRM

Return to Ranks Depends on Class of Candidate, Says Gilson Gardner, Who Is Studying Political Situation Here.

"If the Republicans nominate for President a man who is acceptable to the great body of Progressive Republicans, the Republican candidate will defeat Mr. Wilson.

"But if the Republicans nominate a pronounced conservative, like Senator Weeks, of Massachusetts, or ex-Senator Root, of New York, the Progressives probably Governor Johnson of Califor-nia-and President Wilson will be re-Trail gets under way.

people here in the West seem to think," he declared. "The conservative element of the Republican party is in power in the Eastern states. Men like Funrose and Crane will have a mighty insurance in the next Republican convention. It is possible that the verdict in the Roosevelt-Barnes libel suit may have eliminated Barnes, but it hasn't if Barnes can help it. He was preparing to perfect a National organization to finance the next campaign just before he went into court with the Colonel."

An entire cleanup by noon.

Some early committees started out yesterday afternoon and did yeoman work. Most conspicuous among the results, however, was the sale of 200 pencils by Miss Beatrice Lash, the Progressive Business Men's candidate for queen of the festival. These pencils were all sold individually or in small quantities, which makes Miss Lash's achievement all the more refore he went into court with the Colonel."
