professional musical circles of the city and state for many years and while in college was an officer and member of the University Glee Club for four consecutive years. In Portland he has played with the Symphony Orchestra for three seasons and he has been treasurer and a director of the Musicians' Mutual Association for two years, besides being engaged at various times with Lind, McIlroy and other prominent leaders of the city.

Martha Bell Cochran, a Los Angeles girl, is visiting her brothers, Seldon J. Cochran, 5324 Forty-fifth street Southeast, and E. M. Cochran, of Oswego.

Messages of congratulation and flowers are being showered upon Mr. and Mrs. Welrose R. Kaser on the birth of a daughter Saturday morning.

Miss Marguerite Park, of 50 East Sixteenth street North, is at Madison, Wis., attending the commencement exercises at the Wisconsin University, after which she will attend the alumni reunion at the Whitewater Normal School. Mrs. Park will join her daughter the latter part of the month and return home via San Diego and San Francisco.

Miss Helen Davis, of New York, a charming Vassar girl, has been visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Luther R. Dyott, where she was the guest of Miss Adele Dyott. Miss Davis and Miss Dyott left on Saturday for San Francisco, and after a visit at the fair, the former will return to her Eastern home. Miss Davis is the daughter of the late Judge Charles Davis, of New York. She is immensely popular in society. While Miss Dyott was a student at Wells College the girls met and became friends.

Mrs. Henry Coulter Cabell has given out for a large reception to be held on Saturday afternoon from 4 until 8 o'clock at her home at the head of King street.

Mr. and Mrs. William A. Spence are now domiciled at the Glenn Apartments.

Miss Catherine Russell, charming and attractive daughter of Mrs. Lewis Russell, is being extensively feted by the debutantes. Each day since her return to this city has marked some delightful function in her honor, yesterday a pretty luncheon with Miss Nan Penroyer Russell being given in her honor at Hotel Benson. Today Miss Isabella Macleay will also be a luncheon hostess honoring Miss Russell, and on Thursday evening Miss Margaret Mearns will be hostess for a dancing party at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. Henry E. Jones, on Portland Heights.

The women of Westminster Presbyterian Church will give a farewell reception to Mrs. Johnston Porter at the home of Mrs. C. C. Newcastle, 600 Weilder street, from 3 to 5 this afternoon. Mrs. Porter and her son, Lawrence, expect to leave June 14 for Halifax to be away two years.

A reception will be given this evening by Myrcia Circle, Women of Woodcraft, and Arleta Camp, Woodmen of the World, at their hall in Arleta in honor of Queen Sybil, her princesses and maids from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Dyale are being felicitated upon the arrival of a little daughter, born May 27.

Mrs. Katherine A. Daly is at Hood River, visiting her son, Herbert F. Daly, at his place, Morningdale Orchard. Before returning she will visit Mrs. J. Adrian Epping.

The Bit and Spur club held a meeting recently at the home of Miss Edith Reynolds in Alberta, where final arrangements were made for the club's appearance in the Rose Carnival parade on Thursday afternoon. After the business meeting, dancing and games were enjoyed and refreshments served at a beautifully-appointed table, the color scheme being pink. Owing to the fact that some of the members are out of the city only the following will appear in the parade: Mrs. Leslie Ewing, the Misses Matilda Anderson, Jessica Barde, Stella Berger, Florence Day, Nell Dorney, Clara Fleming, Caroline Gleason, Rose Harrington, Celinda Heaton, Hannah Johnson, Bertha McCarty, Edith Meyer, Edna Moffat, Florence Murphy, Helen O'Hern, Leone Parrish, Lisette Phillips, Edith Reynolds, Nora Self, Elsa Sittel and Gracie Stanton.

Miss Mamie Free, one of Portland's charming girls, was the inspiration for a luncheon given by the Phi Pi Psi sorority Thursday at the Hazelwood. Miss Free leaves for Shanghai, China, in a short time and will make her home there for an indefinite period. The following maids and matrons were present: Mrs. Ralph Rector, Mrs. Jack Hoogstraal, the Misses Jeanne, Genevieve Keller, Katherine Erdner, Beth Stennett, Rozelle Snyder, Olive Sullivan, Inez Radell and Selene Kropp.

Rose Festival guests and friends can find comfortable and central restrooms provided by the women of the Unitarian Church in the church parlors, corner Broadway and Yamhill streets. The parlors will be kept open every day during the festival for the convenience of the public. Tea, sandwiches, cakes and ices will be served.

WOMEN'S CLUBS

AN interesting visitor in Portland is Mrs. Emma K. Rinehart, of Toledo, Or., who is the guest of Mrs. J. B. Comstock, 326 North Twenty-fifth street. Mrs. Rinehart was formerly president of the Toledo City Federation of Women's Clubs and she had the distinction of having re-established public retail markets. While she was chairman of the Housewives' League Mrs. Rinehart saw the need of retail markets. She interested the farmers and the housewives and finally got the markets established on a practical basis, winning for herself the unique title of "the market woman." Mrs. Rinehart passed the winter in Seattle visiting with her daughters. She came to Portland to attend the mid-biennial council of the General Federation and will leave soon for San Francisco. She came to the council as a delegate from the Woman's Educational Club, one of the largest organizations in Ohio. Mrs. Rinehart visited Anna Lewis

Hall yesterday and was deeply interested in the work that the women of the Portland Women's Union are doing in providing a homelike place for self-supporting girls.

The Portland Woman's Union met yesterday for a short business session and probably will hold no further meetings for the Summer. All committees reported the work in excellent shape.

Mrs. Charles S. Lebo, of Medford, Or., is visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Archie S. Ash, at the Ormonde Apartments.
