

The Rich Luxuriousness of Your Living Room

or the dainty beauty of your boudoir is best obtained by soft, luxurious SILK hangings and draperies, such as our new which we are introducing for the first time.

"Kapock" Silks are the silk fabric for draperies that is guaranteed not to fade in sun or water.

Moreover, they cost less than half the price of fadeable silks. We have every color and design to harmonize with your decorative scheme.

Tiffany blended, plain design, Kapock Silks, yard, $2 and $2.25 Plain gold, Verdure design, Kapock Silk, the yard, $2.25. Chinese design, in gold and black Kapock Silk, yard, $3.

You must see this handsome new Drapery Silk, so we extend an invitation to you to call.

AID FUND IS $1000

Charities Campaign to Be Suspended During Festival.

SECRETARY WILL BE AWAY

Fresh Air Plans Abandoned to Enable Association to Provide for More Pressing Needs—Calls Continue to Come.

Table with 2 columns: Name, Contribution Amount. Total: $1006.75

One-fifth of the fund necessary to save the Associated Charities from a necessity of closing for the summer and leaving its wards to seek aid where they may, has been contributed by the benevolent people of Portland.

First two weeks of the campaign for the fund closed yesterday with a total of more than $1000 contributed.

The campaign will be suspended until after the Rose Festival, and the campaigns will be resumed next week to raise the $4000 that is yet needed.

- 1. Man out of work; wife and three children to support; another child expected in short time; condition almost destitute. 2. FIRE PREVENTION TOPIC

Willard Done, of San Francisco, to Speak in Portland June 28.

Under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce a meeting has been arranged for June 28 by Louis Sondhelm, editor of the Northwest Insurance News. The purpose of the meeting is to give business men of all classes an opportunity to hear Willard Done, of San Francisco, speak on various phases of fire prevention work.

ONE PASTOR TRANSFERRED

United Brethren Conference Reports Appointments for Portland.

Rev. J. D. Nisewonder was returned as pastor of the First United Brethren Church, East Fifteenth and East Morrison streets, by the Oregon conference, which closed its session at Salem Sunday night.

The only change was at the Third Church, where Rev. J. P. Parsons was stationed last year, but who resigned. Rev. Mr. Nisewonder, who returned yesterday, declared that the conference reports showed considerable progress, a gain of 200 members having been made during the year, and the collections for benevolences for the past year exceeded those of the year before.
