The officers of the association constitute the finance committee. Preparations will be made for the home-coming meeting of the association June 13 for all graduates of the Gresham high school.

PAUL J. SMITH'S FUNERAL HELD.—Funeral services of Paul J. Smith, who died Sunday at his home, Columbia boulevard, were conducted yesterday morning at St. Mary's Church, Williams avenue and Stanton street. Interment was made in Mount Calvary cemetery. Mr. Smith was 38 years old and came to Oregon with his parents 34 years ago. He is survived by a widow, Mrs. Marie Smith, three sons, Ronald, Clarence and Kenneth G. Smith; his father, Jacob Smith, a sister, Mrs. Adams Green, and five brothers, L. C. R. N. and T. J. Smith, all of Portland. Mr. Smith was a member of Rose City Camp, No. 5466, Modern Woodmen of America, and many members attended the services.

ALUMNI REUNION PLANNED.—The entertainment committee of the Mount Angel Alumni Association, composed of Carl Massey, Carl Haring, Rev. John Cominsky and Rev. John Costello, met yesterday in Gregory Hall to consider entertainment in connection with the annual reunion to be held at Mount Angel College June 16. An excursion will be run to Mount Angel from Portland and a banquet will be given at the hotel. Mr. Massey has been selected as toastmaster. Andrew Weber was appointed to provide a special car for the Portland members of the association. Rev. Father Gregory Robie, of Portland, is vice-president, and Rev. Ambrose Walsh secretary.

UNION AVENUE PAID PROGRESS.—Union avenue between Bryn Mawr and Columbia boulevard is to be filled to grade, and the City Engineer is preparing plans. Union avenue will be the thoroughfare approach to the interstate bridge across the Columbia River, and this bill is the first necessary step in the construction of a viaduct will cross the tracks of the C.-W. R. & N. The cost will be assessed to a large district, and will be about $40,000. The plans will be filed next week with the Council, when bids will be asked for the improvement.

MISS LIBURN HONORED.—A reception was given Mrs. A. J. Liburn, of Roseburg, Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. F. J. Wells, 407 East Ninth street. Mrs. Liburn was one of the original members of the Portland Progress Club, but moving to Roseburg nearly two years ago she became an honorary member. She has been visiting in Portland and attended the recent federation convention in Portland as a delegate from Roseburg. The reception was attended largely by members of the Progress Club. Mrs. Liburn will return to her home today.
